

Lebanon Gets Superior Mark To Take Prize

The Dalles, Oregon City, West Linn Judged Tie In Class B Competition, Scored 'Excellent'

Lebanon, going through a difficult program of St. Julian, Atilla-Karoly and Unfinished Symphony-Schubert, were easy winners in the C division. It was given a division 1 rating which denotes superior ability. In division 2 were placed Woodrow Wilson junior high, University high, Canby and Marshfield. In division 3 were Sandy, St. Helens, Tillamook and Woodburn, while Beaverton and Estacada were given division 4 ratings.

Class B Called Tie
In the class B event all three entries, West Linn, The Dalles and Oregon City were given equal ratings by being placed in division 2, or excellent rating. The Dalles was a shade superior to other contestants but lacked the polish to place them in the first division, according to the judges.

The contest was judged by Walter Welke, band director of the University of Washington, Ferdinand Sorenson, Portland Symphony orchestra member, and Charles Waddingham, Portland.

Houses Were Hosts
The young musicians were guests of various living organizations during their two-day visit on the campus. A huge luncheon followed by a general assembly at Gerlinger hall on Saturday was the highlight of the visitor's entertainment program.

The contest was under the direction of Douglas Orme, University band director, and Ellsworth Huffman. Next year the class A and D bands will compete here in accordance with the program of alternating the event between Oregon and Oregon State.

Higher Education Board To Meet at Oregon State

The Oregon State board of higher education will meet on the Oregon State campus April 26 and 27. On Monday, the members will attend a Faculty Men's club banquet honoring B. F. Irvine, who is retiring from the board after 39 years of service.

The banquet will also celebrate the 50th anniversary of the building of the Oregon Agricultural experiment station. The members of the board will join in an all-college convocation Monday, and will review the Oregon State ROTC unit. A business meeting will be held the last day of the meeting.

Mooney Tries Again

Tom Mooney, held in California for a preparedness day bombing which occurred nearly 20 years ago, is shown above with his attorney, George Davis, left, entering the state building in San Francisco for final arguments before the state supreme court on his application for a writ of habeas corpus. Mooney is attempting to have the recommendation of the court's referee set aside.

Ice Cream Sale To Be Held by Kwama's Today

Jumbo dishes of freshly frozen ice cream will be sold for a nickel and ice cream sundaes will be offered at nine cents apiece when Kwama, sophomore women's honorary, hold an ice cream sale at Taylor's for their charity fund.

Ice cream at these cheap prices will be sold from 11 o'clock in the morning until 5 in the afternoon. Kwama will act as sales girls, and promise to dish out specially large dishes of the ice cream.

Skull and Dagger To Pledge at Glee

At a meeting last night of Skull and Dagger, sophomore men's honorary, 15 outstanding freshmen were chosen to be pledged from a list of 70 men up for consideration. The freshmen chosen will be tapped Friday night during intermission at the annual Frosh Glee dance in McArthur court.

A committee of active members was chosen last night to execute a formal pledging ceremony during the intermission. Ribbons will be pinned on the chosen few, after which they will file through a lane of crossed swords held by active members to take their places beside others of the order.

Names of the men chosen will remain a secret of Skull and Dagger men until time to tap new pledges comes Friday night.

Time of the dance will be from 8:30 until 12:15 with prices at $1 a couple. The dance will be a sport dance, corsages not in order, in accordance with the gay "southern plantation" scheme of decoration being constructed by Sam Fort.

KORE will broadcast Ellis Kimball and his gentlemen of swing from the dance either at 8:30 to 9:00, or from 10:15 to 11:00 p.m.

Griffith to Give Final Museum Series Talk

George E. Griffith, in charge of education and information for the northwest division of United States Forest Service, will give the final lecture in the Museum of Natural History series for 1936 and 1937, Thursday, April 22, at 8 p. m. in room 101, Condon hall.

"Forests in their Economic and Sociological Aspects" will be Mr. Griffith's subject. The lecture will be illustrated by a collection of lantern slides.

This lecture should be of particular interest in view of the great economical value of our forests in Oregon and their use for recreational purposes.

Honorary Banquet To Be Held at Side

Beta Gamma Sigma Will Honor Gerald Norville Who Has 3.66 GPA

Beta Gamma Sigma, business administration's scholastic honorary, will hold its banquet in the College Side tonight at 6:30 with Professor C. L. Kelly as toastmaster.

At this time Gerald Norville, the freshman who has made the highest grade point average during the entire year, will be honored and have his name engraved on the plaque which hangs in the business administration school. Norville has maintained an average of 3.66.

Only juniors and seniors are eligible for membership in the organization with only 2 per cent of the juniors chosen and 10 per cent of the seniors. The organization now has 20 members.

The only senior elected is Kenneth Gillanders with the juniors claiming Gerald T. Smith and Julie Graff.

Dean Landsbury will be the principal speaker of the banquet, basing his talk on "Advantages to Business Men of Training in Arts and Music."

Little Theater to Give Sally Allen's Mystery Drama

An unnamed mystery drama by Sally Elliott Allen, written in three acts with a prologue, will be presented Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday evenings at 8 o'clock at the fairgrounds by the Little Theater group.

Attached to each program will be a coupon. Those attending who wish to name the play will hand in the coupon with the proposed title. The winner will be presented a season ticket to next year's performances given by the group.

Parts in the production are played by Marion Owens, Robert Horn, Paul Kiepe, Gretchen Parker, Loren Reynolds, Virginia Mikulak, C. A. Huntington, and Ralph Schomp. Mrs. Allen is directing the play, aided by Fred Cuthbert.

Tickets are on sale at the Co-op and Washburne's.

Informal Dance Is Scheduled for Library Opening

Twilight of opening day of the new library will see its terrace filled with lights, music, and swaying students as the new house librarian organization goes into action by sponsoring an informal dance. The dance is scheduled for May 3, at 7:30, Kay Philip, president, announced today.

The dance is given to help furnish the browsing room. It will be a date affair and campus clothes are in order.

Battleground of Cannery

Tension was high in Stockton, California, where over 1000 citizens were ready to be sworn in as deputies to protect strike-breakers, whom cannery operators plan to use to re-open their plants. In a recent riot 17 men attacked by union strikers were injured at the Stockton Food Products company, pictured above.

Seniors Asked to Get Caps, Gowns

Graduating seniors are warned to arrange for their caps and gowns at the Co-op before the end of the week, announced Margile Morse, senior class president, last night.

"Since the 1937 graduating class of the University shows to be the largest yet, we desire to have all those graduating take part in the ceremony," stated Miss Morse. "We wish to give to the campus visitors at commencement an impression of the prestige of Oregon, and this can not be fully accomplished without the cooperation of all seniors."

Commencement will be held in McArthur court May 31, at 8 o'clock. Information regarding the speakers of the evening will be released later by Dean James H. Gilbert, senior advisor.

Last spring Oregon graduated 389 students and during the year 412 bachelor of arts degrees were granted. At the beginning of spring term this year, 443 seniors were enrolled, and it is predicted by the faculty that more degrees will be granted this year than last.

Professor John Stark Evans Is Named Judge

A competition for the selection of piano soloists to belong to the Portland junior symphony orchestra next year will be judged by John Stark Evans, professor of music, the weekend of May 8.

From among the best young players in Portland will be selected new members for the orchestra. Saint-Saens' "Concerto in G minor" is the number to be played by the competitors.

C. L. Kelly, Hal Young Appear on Kiwanis Program

Speaking before the Eugene Kiwanis club, Monday noon, C. L. Kelly, professor of business administration, discussed the major problems confronting a person who plans to build up an estate.

Mr. Kelly pointed out the three principal obstacles in the way of an estate builder as the elimination of risk, the income to build with, and something definite to use as an estate.

Hal Young, professor of voice, presented Oregon's new marching song as a feature of the program. He was accompanied by George Hopkins.

Twelve Year Old Pianist Will Play Difficult Piece

David Smith, 12-year-old pianist student of George Hopkins, professor of piano, will play Mendelssohn's "Concerto in G minor" at a concerto program to be given in the music auditorium by Mr. Hopkins' students May 11.

David won the class E division of the Federated Music clubs contest this year, a class ordinarily for students from 15 to 18 years.

Robert Garretson, Laural Burgraff, and Jacqueline Wong, all students of Mr. Hopkins, will also play on the program. All the musicians will be accompanied by Mr. Hopkins playing orchestral accompaniment on a second piano.

Phi Alpha Delta Holds Initiation Rites for Two

Phi Alpha Delta, national legal fraternity, held initiation ceremonies for two new members in the AWS room of Gerlinger hall at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Initiates were Jason Bailey and Marven Hendricksen. Erceel King was installed as justice for the coming year at a banquet at McCrady's cafe in the evening. Other officers installed include Dick Miller, vice-justice; Ed Reames, exchequer; Fred Hammond, alumni secretary. Keith Wilson is outgoing justice.

ALL HONOR

TO A GREAT ATHLETE

LARRUPING LOU GEHRIG

OF THE WORLD'S CHAMPION NEW YORK YANKEES

FOUR HOME RUNS IN ONE GAME! YEOW!

PACK OF CAMELS? YES, SIR!

UM-M-M, HERE'S THE BEST PART OF EATING!

SOCK IT, 'IRON MAN!'

X MARKS THE SPOT where once there was a thick juicy steak smothered in mushrooms—Lou's favorite dish. Gehrig is a big man—6 ft. 1 in. tall—weighs 210 pounds. And he has a big man's appetite. Lou eats what he wants and isn't bashful about coming back for "seconds." So for smoking Camels at mealtime and afterward, you have Lou's own words: "I've found that smoking Camels and eating go together naturally." Choose Camels for your cigarette and see how they help to ease tension, paving the way to good digestion. Smoking Camels at mealtime and afterward speeds up the flow of digestive fluids. Alkalinity also is increased. Thus Camels give you a delightful sense of well-being... they set you right! Smokers find that they can enjoy Camels steadily—between meals as well as at meals—and that Camels never get on their nerves.

HOME-RUN KING! Gehrig (a regular Camel smoker) has an average of 38 home-runs per season. In 1934, and again in 1936, Gehrig topped the American League for home-runs. Gehrig's follow-through is shown above. It takes healthy nerves to connect, and, as Lou says: "Camels don't get on my nerves."

BASEBALL'S "IRON-MAN"! When Lou steps on the field, for his first game of the 1937 season—he'll be playing his 1,809th consecutive game. Injuries never stopped Gehrig. Once he chipped a bone in his foot—yet knocked out a homer, two doubles, and a single next day. Another time, he was knocked out by a "bean ball," yet next day walloped 3 triples in 5 innings. Gehrig's record is proof of his splendid physical condition. As Lou says: "I've been careful about my physical condition. Smoke? I enjoy it. My cigarette is Camel."

HERE'S LOU'S FAVORITE BAT and his favorite first baseman's mitt. His bat is especially made. He wears out two mitts a season. Last year, with 1,377 put-outs, his brilliant play at first base was only 6/1000ths short of PERFECT.

FOR A SENSE OF DEEP-DOWN CONTENTMENT—JUST GIVE ME CAMELS. AFTER A GOOD MAN-SIZED MEAL, THAT LITTLE PHRASE 'CAMELS SET YOU RIGHT' COVERS THE WAY I FEEL. CAMELS SET ME RIGHT, WHETHER I'M EATING, WORKING—OR JUST ENJOYING LIFE

"ANOTHER BIG REASON why I prefer Camels,"—continues Lou, (above)—"is that I get a 'lift' with a Camel!" Enjoy Camels freely—they're friendly to the throat.
