

DUCKS OUTSCORE ONES, 12-8

THE CHATTER BOX

By ELBERT HAWKINS

Don't forget that all-important Washington series which opens on Howe field next Monday. It'll be a scrap for second place in the northern division race, and Hobby's Ducks will be out after a sweep of both games. They'll have to win at least one to stay in the title running.

Those Washington Staters have everything their way now with the season half-way over and a firm grip on first place. All of their games are at home, with the exception of one jaunt to Moscow, nine miles away. Five victories in six games has given Bailey's lads a tremendous advantage.

Oregon's tough road trip is still to come. Starting next Friday they undertake six games in seven days. At the end of that killing jaunt we'll know whether there's any chance for the championship.

Looking over the sports calendar for Junior weekend we find enough activity lined up to keep the most ardent fan more than busy. Don't miss that frosh-rook baseball encounter which starts at 2 o'clock. It's the first of their annual four-game "little civil war" series, and promises to be a thriller.

Honest John Warren has developed an aggregation that at the present time has yet to lose. They have beaten Silverton high, Junction City high, Pacific college of Newberg, Eugene Bible college, and several other tough groups.

That isn't all for tomorrow by a long ways, for in the morning Coach Paul Washke's Webfoot tennis team plays Washington's defending northern division champs in a match that may settle the season's dual match title.

Washke's Ducks have piled up an enviable record this season, dropping only five individual matches out of 56 while rolling up eight consecutive victories. Included are Idaho, Washington State, Linfield, Oregon Normal, and Willamette.

Washington barely edged out Linfield by a 4 to 3 count, and Oregon took the same outfit early this season, 5 to 2. The Husky number one man was out of that series, however.

Oregon got off to a profitable Junior weekend start yesterday by capturing a baseball game and a tennis match. Coach Hobson's varsity nine beat Oregon Normal, 12 to 8, and Sid Milligan's Webfoot golfers swamped Washington State, conference defending champions, by a 22 to 5 count.

BIG RALLY COPS RAGGED FRACAS

Wind and rain failed to dampen the spirits of Coach Hobson's Webfoots yesterday, and in a wild and woolly contest on Howe field they out-slugged Oregon Normal for a 12 to 8 victory. The Ducks open against Washington at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon.

The few fans who braved the weather to witness yesterday's ragged game saw practically everything in the books. Oregon finally had to come from behind with a six-run rally in the seventh inning to win the thing.

Hobby's boys pounded Jake Miller, Monmouth hurler, for 16 base hits, and won despite five boots. Ford Mullen, Duck third baseman took hitting honors for the game with five hits in five trips to the plate, including a home run and a double.

Bob Hardy and LeRoy Mattingly shared duties on the mound for Oregon, limiting the Normal crew to nine hits. Southpaw Hardy in his five innings on the mound allowed but three runs, and whiffed eleven batters.

Mattingly took the hill in the sixth inning with Oregon holding a 6 to 3 lead, but it wilted before an Oregon Normal rally of four hits in the first of the seventh, which coupled with one error gave Al Cox's lads a 7 to 6 lead.

This failed to bother the Ducks, and they hammered Miller for five hits and six runs in their half of the inning to give Mattingly official credit for the win.

Oregon took a two-run lead in the first inning on singles by Jimmie Nicholson, Mullen, and Gale Smith, and a walk by Jack Gordon. The Ducks got three more in the second canto when third sacker Mullen knocked his homer into centerfield with Nicholson and Bob Hardy on base.

Normal got one tally in the second on two successive wild heaves by Mullen, and collected a pair of

High School Tracksters Meet Today

Hayward field will be busy as a beehive this morning and afternoon as more than one hundred high school athletes compete in the annual Willamette valley high school invitational track and field meet.

Eight schools have already sent in their entry blanks, with four more slated to be on hand for the start. Springfield, Cottage Grove, Albany, Corvallis, Salem, Chemawa, Eugene and University high schools are definite entries. Dallas, McMinnville, Independence and St. Mary's of Eugene have been tendered invitations.

Qualifying heats in the 100, 220, high and low hurdles, and all field events will start at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. The finals will start at 1:30 o'clock with the field events first followed by running events.

The winning team will receive a trophy, as will the winning relay team. Salem high school won both trophies last year.

Ray Hendrickson, athletic director at University high school, is in charge of the meet and he will be assisted by majors in the school of physical education.

The meet is an annual affair and alternates between Oregon and Oregon State tracks. Clerk for the course will be Paul Rix.

HUSKY NET TEAM TO MEET OREGON

This morning at 10:00 o'clock the Oregon varsity tennis team, coached by Paul Washke, will meet University of Washington's net squad, the northern division's defending champions. The match will be played on the University courts, weather permitting. The time has been moved up so as not to conflict with the frosh-rook game at 2:00 p.m.

The Oregon squad will face its stiffest competition so far this season. Thus far, they have won eight consecutive matches and have lost only five individual contests out of a total of 56.

Linfield college is the only team which the Washington squad has faced. The McMinnville players lost by a 4 to 3 decision.

At least a tie for conference honors will belong to the Ducks should they win the match, which will probably be for the conference dual meet championship.

Captain Johnny Economus as No. 1, Larry Crane, No. 2, Charlie Eaton, No. 3, Bill Zimmerman, No. 4, and Al Finke, No. 5, will probably compose the Oregon squad.
