

Duck Nine Faces Washington in Double-header Today

Webfoot Netmen Take Washington Huskies First Time in 9 Years

Ducks Take Doubles To Defeat Foes After Losing Three of Five Singles Matches

By CHUCK VAN SCOYOC
For the first time in nine years, Oregon's tennis team overcame the Husky jinx, and defeated Washington by a 4 to 3 score Saturday morning on the campus courts.

Although trailing 3 to 2 at the end of the singles competition, the Ducks decisively trounced their northern opponents in both doubles matches to assure themselves at least a tie for the northern conference dual meet championship. It was the ninth consecutive win this season for the team.

Things started rather badly for Paul Washke's netters as Johnny Economus, captain and No. 1 for the Ducks, bowed to Ken Clegg, No. 1 and ranking northwest singles man, 6-4, 6-2. Clegg relied on a fast drop-shot to out-point his opponent.

Tough Going
Second on the list of the Husky victims was Bill Zimmerman, who although he put up a stubborn opposition, was defeated by Dewey Ostrum 3-6, 6-2, and 6-3.

A little encouragement to the Webfoots was Al Finke's victory over Dick Mosier, No. 5 of the Huskies, 7-5, 6-3. Finke relied on a smashing game to garner his win.

Three Losses
The third loss for the Webfoots was handed to Chuck Eaton by Curtis Coones, 9-7, 6-1.

Oregon's second win in singles play was scored by Larry Crane, No. 2 for the Ducks, over Bill Crapo, Husky ace, 3-6, 7-5, 6-2. Crane started rather badly but rallied to display the best tennis he has played this year.

Double Trouble
Zimmerman and Crane as No. 1 doubles against Clegg and Coones, out-drove their opponents by 6-2, 6-2 scores.

Economus and Eaton blasted John Rickles and Walt Walkinshaw for a 6-2, 6-0 win.

WSC Cougars Give Ducks Second Shelling in Two Meets; Five Firsts Taken at Pullman

Home from their Pullman shelling, which was even worse than the one at Seattle, Oregon's track and field team, settled down to serious work yesterday, in spite of the rain, with hopes of winning their first dual meet of the year at the expense of Oregon State here Saturday afternoon.

On the basis of comparative scores this year's annual battle should be the closest in many years said Coach Bill Hayward yesterday.

Huskies Take Both
Both squads have met and been defeated by Washington's powerful Huskies. Oregon scored 44 points against the Seattle team and the Beavers tallied 42½ counters. For both teams it will be a chance to break into the win column for the first time.

At Pullman last Saturday the Ducks came out on the very short end of a 90 to 41 score. Oregon men took five of the 15 first places. George Varoff, pole vault; Bill Koskett, shot put; Dutch Holland, discus; Ken Miller, half mile, and Captain Sam McGaughy, mile, were Webfoot winners.

Benke Breaks Record
Bill Benke, blond Cougar ace, provided the only record breaking performance of the day with a .471 quarter mile to eclipse the old mark of 48 flat set by Talbot Hartley of Washington. The Palouse men made clean sweeps of five events.

Varoff cleared 13 feet 6 inches in the pole vault to tie his northern division record made at Seattle, but failed to top the bar in three attempts at 14 feet.

McGaughy came into his own with a 4:27.8 mile for the fastest time he has turned in this season. Crawford Lyle, lanky two miler, was nosed out in his event by Ed Little, but half a yard in the most thrilling race of the meet.

Weight Men Scamper
Failing to enter a 440-yard relay team, Hayward gave the crowd a laugh by having his weight men run against the Cougar strong men, and the Duck huskies walked off with the race.

Summary:
100 yard dash—Won by Ledford, WSC; Jack Orr, WSC; Nettleton, WSC. Time, :10 flat.

Pole vault—Won by George Varoff, O, 13 feet 6 inches; Darr, WSC, 13 feet; Woods and McNaul, WSC, both 11 feet 6 inches.

Two-mile run—Won by Little, WSC; Lyle, O; Wooten, WSC. Time, 9:57.8.

Javelin throw—Won by Nelson, WSC, 191 feet 13 4 inches; Hardesty, O, 169 feet 5 3/4 inches; Adams, O, 163 feet 4 inches.

Shotput—Won by Foskett, O, 48 feet 11 3/4 inches; Berry, O, 45 feet 10 3/4 inches; Roswell, WSC, 45 feet 7 3/4 inches.

Jayne Bowerman Given Internship With Government

Jayne Bowerman, senior in social science, was notified this week that she had been awarded one of the thirty internships of the National Institute of public affairs in offering this year for work with the federal administration at Washington, D. C.

Thirty graduate scholarships have been awarded to outstanding students over the United States. Each interne will be assigned to a government official and act as a full-time assistant. Miss Bowerman asked to work in the personnel offices of the Social Security bureau.

The plan has been started this year to help in the development of government careers and add to academic preparation for public service. At the end of the year, internes will be given the civil service exams, and, if successful, placed in permanent government jobs. A Reed college graduate was the only other Oregon student to receive an appointment.

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED
Announcements received recently reveal the marriage of Marjann Ruth Styles to Webster Jones on April 21, in Portland.
Jones is a graduate of the University of Oregon, class of 1927, and is connected with the Portland Gas and Coke company. His bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Styles, of Calgary, Alberta, Canada.

Frosh Schedule Game With Rooks

Will Play Second Game at Corvallis; Linde Leads Mates to Win

According to John Warren, frosh baseball coach, the Duckling nine will travel to Corvallis next Saturday in an attempt to make it two straight over Oregon State's Rooks, who were beaten last Saturday, 7 to 1, with Southpaw John Linde pitching four-hit ball.

Matt Pavalunas with two hits in five trips and Wimpy Quinn, who hit a homerun in the first with Jim Jones aboard, led the hitters in their seven hit assault on Earl McKinney, Rook pitcher. Al Schuler, who relieved McKinney at the start of the seventh pitched three innings of hitless ball.

Tom Cox, Duckling third baseman, scored the first run for the frosh, when he reached second on Lever's overthrow of his ground ball. Cox went to second on one of McKinney's three wild pitches, and scored on Baker's only passed ball.

Following Quinn's home run, Jake Fisher doubled over third, went to third on Goode's infield out, and tallied a few minutes later on Linde's single.

John Dick, first baseman, scored for the frosh in the second and third innings, and Pavalunas scored for the frosh in the second and third innings, and Pavalunas scored in the sixth on Quinn's infield out after he had tripled to right field.

The Rooks scored in the sixth when Burton Selberg, former Jefferson star, singled, went to second and third on successive passed balls, and scored on Cox's error.

Summary:
Frosh 7 7 2
Rooks 1 4 2
Batteries—Linde and Kelly; McKinney, Schulerich and Baker.

Opener Rained Out After Four Damp Innings

Webfoots Lead 3 to 2 as Infield Becomes Mud; Today's Games Start At 1:30 o'Clock

Northern Division Standings

	W	L	Pct.
Washington State	8	1	.889
Washington	4	2	.666
Oregon	4	2	.666
Oregon State	2	6	.250
Idaho	1	8	.111

Second place in the northern division baseball race will be at stake today—weather permitting—when Oregon's Webfoots square off against Washington in a double header at 1:30.

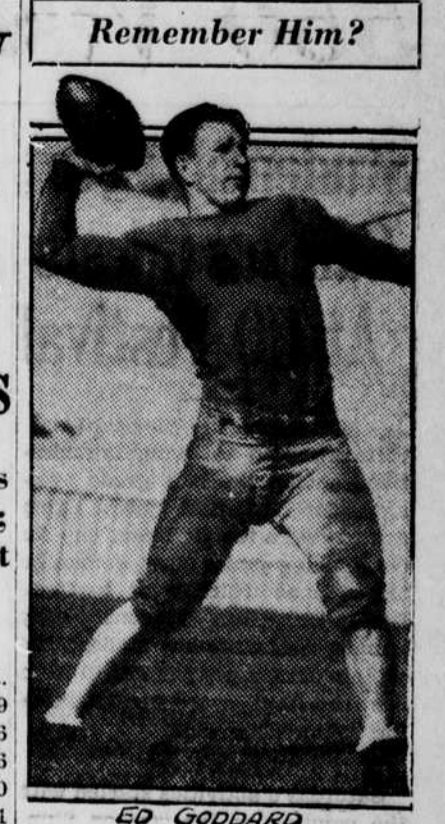

The rival clubs braved wind and rain yesterday long enough to play almost four innings of ball, but finally had to call it quits when the infield and the mound got too muddy.

Coaches Defy Rain
Coaches Howard Hobson and Tubby Graves were out to play yesterday's crucial tilt if it was at all possible, and started the affair in a drizzle. They're apt to play today if there is any chance at all.

Bill Sayles is slated to take the hill in contest number one today against Washington's Lou Budnick, righthander, while Johnny Lewis or Bob Hardy will work the second tilt. Bernard Kohls, two-year ace, is Graves' probable pitching choice for the nitecap.

Sayles and Budnick opened yesterday's game, and the Webfoot sophomore had a three to two edge at the end of the first half of the fourth inning. Hits were five to four for Oregon at the point with the Ducks coming to bat.

Coach Hobson yesterday started a somewhat different lineup than the one which faced Washington State last week. His first change was to move Cliff McLean to left field in place of Bill Courtney. Ralph Amato was shifted from yesterday to second base to start yesterday's game, and Jimmie Nicholson filled the hole in center.

ED GODDARD
Donned this time in a baseball uniform, big Ed Goddard, Washington State star all-around athlete, was poison to Webfoot pitchers in the recent Cougar series. Duck hurlers will have to stop him at Pullman, or else.

Gale Smith, at first; Jack Gordon, at short, and Ford Mullen, third sacker, complete the Webfoot infield.

Hoopman Loverich Plays
Roy Marlowe, veteran catcher, was handling Budnick's slants yesterday, and Graves had an outfield composed of Al Plummer, left, Ed Loverich, all-conference basketball forward in center, and Len Rich in right.

The Husky infield includes George Ziegenfuss, first sacker; Ray Cook, third base, Willie Hewson, shortstop, and a lad named Fripp at the keystone bag. The Huskies are fresh from their two game series at Corvallis where they trumped Slats Gill's Orangemen on Friday only to be slaughtered, 17 to 7, Saturday.
