550 Visiting Mothers Throng Campus for Gay Weekend Festival

Students Fete Campus Guests At UO Festival

(Please turn to page two) were awarded to living organizations having the best grade averages for the past year. Other awards were the Gerlinger cup for outstanding junior class woman on the campus which went to Clare Igoe, journalism student. Tony Amato, first year law student and captain of next year's football team won the Koyl award for outstanding junior class man

Frosh Paint

Saturday's activities started with the painting of the "O" on Skinner's butte, by freshmen. Frosh and sophs gathered on the banks of the millrace near the railroad tracks afterward to have their annual tugof-war and baths.

At 10:30 the mothers met for a reunion, sponsored by the Mother's club in Johnson hall, followed by luncheons with students in their individual living organizations.

A tennis meet between University of Washington and Oregon squads was played and won Saturday morning by the Oregon men by one match. A game of the annual Frosh-Rook four game "little civil war" series was won by Oregon's Frosh, 7 to 1.

AWS Fete Mothers

Mothers were entertained by a tea in Gerlinger from 4 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon. Following this a Mother's day banquet was held in John Straub Memorial hall at 5:30.

Approximately 235 mothers registered the first day for Mother's more than 550.

of "Romantic Serenade." Favored year since that time. by a rainless evening, the parade of floats proceeded down the mill- new constitution, will be open to casting symphony orchestra. The who have attended the institution. float of Queen Betty I and her Other women interested in the purthe north bank, ano the series of come associate members with all operatic floats followed.

Canoe Fete Winners First prize for most beautiful float the drinking scene from "The Student Prince" entered by Alpha governing policies, of the organiheart in Maytime" from "May- parts of the state. time," but the list was incorrect.) Vagabond King."

included a breakfast meeting of the three year terms. executive committee of Mothers' club, at the memorial building ject of the organization shall be although they did not at first unbuilding. Special services were held "to serve in every way possible the derstand the little hums, and odd! in all Eugene churches for mothers university and its students." and students at 11 a. m.

At a mass meeting of visiting mothers in Johnson hall Saturday morning officers were selected for the coming year. They are, left to right, Mrs. Dan E. Clark, Eugene, president of the Eugene Mothers; Mrs. E. M. Fouch, Portland, director: Mrs. Warren D. Smith, Eugene, director, and Mrs. N. B. Drew, Klamath Falls, director. Second row, from left: Mrs. Hugh Rosson, Eugene, district vice-president; Mrs. Joseph S. Riesch, Portland, treasurer; Mrs. Walter L. Coleman, Portland, director; Mrs. H. H. DeArmond, Bend, director, and Mrs. J. C. Pauling, Astoria, director. Front row, from left: Mrs. W. C. Schaeffer, Eugene, vice-president; Mrs. A. C. Greenwood, Portland, president; Mrs. E. C. Peets, Portland, retiring president; Mrs. I. Lubersky, Portland, director, and Mrs. Dolph Phipps, Medford, district vice-president.

Moms' Group Reorganizes, Adopts Rules

Meeting Breaks Record For Attendance; New State-Wide System Is Outlined, Voted

Mothers of University of Oregon weekend according to preliminary students formally reorganized as count by registration booth. Final the "Oregon Mothers" during the figures for the entire weekend annual Mothers' day events on the placed the registration figure at campus the past week-end, and adopted a new constitution and by-Climaxing Junior class activities laws. The group was formed in for the weekend, the curtain was 1929, when Dr. Arnold Bennett raised Saturday night at 8:30 on Hall was president of the Univerthe canoe fete featuring the theme sity, and has been active every Active membership, under the race and past the stands to the all women whose children or wards knocked the girls cockeyed the way music of Oregon's network broad- are attending the University, or they came running around aftercourt carried her to the throne on pose of the organization may berights and privileges except that of voting and holding office.

Wide Representation State-wide representation in Gamma Delta and Kappa Sigma. zation are provided in the new Winner of second place was "Bar- constitution, which authorizes a carole Scene" from "Tales of Hoff- president, vice-president, secretman," Sigma Alpha Epsilon and ary, treasurer, executive secret-Alpha Omicron Pi. (Previously the ary, and five district vice-presiwinner was announced as "Sweet- dents are chosen from various good jazz. I depend on mood a lot."

Business of the organization be-Third place was won by Alpha hall tween annual mass meetings will and Hendricks hall, the float de- be handled by the board of directpicting the "Tavern Scene" from ors, which will consist of the officers, presidents of local units, erica." The Sunday morning program and 15 members at large serving

Events of the Junior class pro- stitution was adopted broke all re- his throat muscles preparatory to guess I belong to all the world." gram and Mother's Weekend were cords for attendance. Every avail- singing. completed by the concert of Nino able seat in the hall was taken, Doug Nichol, prominent Portland Martini at McArthur court Sunday and a number of mothers were horseman who had driven the singat 3 o'clock. Mr. Martini, well- forced to stand. The attendance at er down to Eugene from Portland, known tenor of stage and screen, this and other events of the week- informed that Martini was a very entertained in a two hour program end was indicative of the progress accomplished rider. The night befor members of the ASUO and the of the organization has made dur- fore the star had accepted Aaron

Streamlined Tenor Star

rom the stairs of her Pi Phi house Sunday. The girls were all fer, Eugene; treasurer, Mrs. Joseph cert in McArthur court to pay his respects to the gracious ruler. "She very pretty queen," Martini remarked. During his concert he Medford; Mrs. C. E. Ash, Astoria; had cast numerous appreciative glances to the royal court that formed Mrs. Hugh Rosson, Eugene; and such a beautiful background to his romantic songs and had even turned Mrs. Minor Corman, Hood River. his back to the audience once to sing to Queen Betty and her prin-

Slender, graceful, with a sensidreamy grey blue eyes, and long, the artist one dreams about when thinking of the Metropolitan opera, radio, screen, and the concert stage. He has a natural stage persmiling sort of way, at the Igloo when he sang. In fact he must have

Nino Martini is one of the few tenors who have ever been; able to reach high "F" with ease! And his manager, Jack Salter, calls him one of the few "streamlined" tenors, because he appeals to the eye as well

Although Martini sings only the finer music on the concert stage he has no aversion to jazz.

"Yes, I like jazz," he said. "Surely when I dance, I enjoy dancing to "And also whom he is singing

The fellows guarding the doors and the hallway during the concert The constitution states the ob- thought Nino was all right, too, make America his home. sounds he made in his room while The meeting at which the con- he was warming up and limbering artist does not have a home. I

Also Horseback Rider

"Man on second!" called Betty Pownall, queen of the Junior Weekend vice-president, Mrs. W. C. Schaef-

Graduates' Mothers

May Continue to Get

Annual Oregon News

Oregon Mothers who would ike to continue to receive "Ore-mothers of students in school opera singer had officiated at the judges judged the best horse.

of hard riding in that picture.

beautiful," Martini said.

the Chesterfield program.

Oregon Students

Eugene, on active duty at Shreve-of Astoria, and Jim Reed, Charles'

from Kelly field July 10.

Phone Numbers for

Rooms in New Libe

Building Announced

The following phone numbers for the new library have been announced; 364-librarian's office, order department, and staff room; 365-reference and newspaper room; 367 - circulation desk.

horse show. He judged the riders compiled each year.

tive mouth, delicate fingers, black, wavy hair, Martini looked gon News for Oregon Mothers," after their sons and daughters leave the University are invited to send their names and adsonality. He was entrancing, in his dresses to Mr. George N. Belknap, University editor. ..Mr. Belknap is compiling a permanent mailing list for "Oregon News for Oregon Mothers," to ...supplement. the ..list ..of to," one of his friends winked.

"American Jazz?" Martini mused. "America has best jazz in world today. Jass belongs to Am-visitors and guests to the campus. ing the past year, it was stated. Frank's challenge to do a little Over successful Junior weekend festivities, Queen Betty I ruled for three days while thousands of University visitors thronged the campus. The queen and her princesses, left to right, Rhoda Armstrong, Peggy Vermillion, Queen Betty Pownall, Betty Jane Casey, and Frances Schaupp. The crown bearer is Bonnie Mae Cook.

Five Gracious Rulers

Officers for Coming Year Moms Revise By-Laws;

Mothers Name

Elect Mrs. Greenwood President at Meeting Saturday Morning

More than 550 mothers were registered on the campus over Junior Weekend, making the Mothers' Day of 1937 the largest Oregon has seen in several years, Earl M. Pallett, committee chairman, said

Campus living organizations, hotels, and private homes were filled er a weekend of festivity at the University.

At the executive committee meeting of mothers held Saturday morning, a revision of the by-laws of the constitution of Oregon Mothers was read. At the mass meeting later, they were read again, and adopted.

Mrs. Greenwood Chosen

Mrs. A. C. Greenwood of Portland was chosen president to succeed Mrs. Elbert C. Peets of Portland. Other officers selected were F. Riesch, Portland; district vice-It was none other than Nino Martini who had stopped after his con- presidents, Mrs. Andrew Collief, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Dolph Phipps,

New members of the board of directors are Mrs. A. B. Starbuck, Dallas; Mrs. W. D. Smith, Eugene; Mrs. Frank Outler, Oswego; Mrs. Mary P. Miller, Mrs. C. C. Clarkson, and Mrs. Harry J. Brown, all of Portland.

Boyer Greets

President C. Valentine Boyer brought greetings and appreciation to 470 mothers, daughters, and sons at the annual Mother's Day banquet held in John Straub memorial building Saturday evening. Robert Prescott, Eugene, brought greetings from Oregon Dads; Gayle Buchanan, from AWS; Barnard Ottilie Seybolt Directing Hall, from the University student body.

The radio class of the speech department of the University enfancy riding at the Portland Hunt tertained with a skit entitled "Mosome very high class horsemanship. furnished by the Phi Beta trio, and It was also whispered that the the Oregon songmen of Alpha hall. Juniors Win picture "The Gay Desperado," Mar- Mothers were guests of the juntini had done all his own riding, ior class at the prom Friday evennot using a double for a single ing and at the canoe fete Saturday riding scene as many stars are evening.

An announcement was made at in a women's riding contest and the the banquet of the junior class having the greatest percentage of mo-And not only that. In his last thers down for the weekend.

wont to do. And there was plenty Sunday, being Mother's day pro per, mothers were entertained in "Yes, American girls are very the living organizations at dinner and later attended the Nino Martini concert. It was asked if he intended to

Scholarship Planned

A scholarship of $300, to be "Oh, no. I think not. I was born awarded to an outstanding student in Italia, was raised there; but an who will enter next year as a freshman, will again be awarded by the Oregon Mothers, it was an-Some day, however, the singer nounced by Mrs. E. C. Peets, Porthopes to retire to a little villa in land, retiring president. The group also has deposited $1,000 in the He is just about to complete a student loan fund, it was announconcert tour that started last Nov- ced. ember in New York. In two weeks

The mothers' organization has return to resume his contract with cities, it was announced.

Problems and policies of the Uni-Speaking of his tour, he shook versity were discussed at the meethis head. "Fifty-three concerts, too ing under the direction of Dr. C. Valentine Boyer, university president: Mrs. Hazel P. Schwering, dean of women, and Karl W. On- Portland, and will be released from thank, dean of personnel. Mrs. there over stations KPO, San Fran-Schwering described progress of cisco; KFI, Los Angeles; KOMO, are connected with the Army air the women's cooperative house on Seattle; KHQ, Spokane; KOA, corps at present, or have been in the campus and invited mothers to Denver; KDYL, Salt Lake City; the past, are Kermit Stevens of inspect it.

port, Louisiana; Milton Thompson Willis Warren Praises Library at Eugene Club brother, who will be graduated

Declaring it was "tops" in university libraries, Willis Warren, reserve librarian described the feaary to members of the Eugene Acvesterday.

additional library space created by P. m. the limitations of the old building. The present library has over 275,- Chancellor Frederick M. Hunter to capacity as students put up their returned from Chicago where he work for three days to show Moth- has been meeting with the nation's foremost educators, discussing pertinent higher education problems.

UO Canoe Fete Audience Hears Wrong Winners | UO Students Edit

outstanding Oregon high school year as a freshman, will be again awarded by the Oregon Mothers, it was announced by Mrs. E. C. Peets, retiring president. The group also has deposited $1000 in the student loan fund.

Mortar Board, senior women's honorary, added to the mothers fund by donating $50 dollars at the weekend meeting.

The mother's goup decided to extend the scholarship to all high school graduates in the state, instead of limiting the award to Portland students. Lucille Stevens, freshman in social science, won the scholarship last

'Pymalion' Setting Nearly Completed

Arranges Stage

The set for the University theater production of "Pygmalion," which will play May 14 and 15, sity journalism department. is nearing completion. To accommodate the scope of the perform- Mock Trial Enjoyed by ance, Horace Robinson, technical director has enlarged the stage by constructing steps down to the audience level which will be used as a forestage.

Under the direction of Ottilie Turnbull Seybolt, the production has reached the polishing stage. Eleanor Gullion, former Guild hall star, who has been appearing in the Cleveland Playhouse theater, is in Eugene and has been attending Pygmalion rehearsals. Miss Gullion played Juliet in the University theater out-door production for the youngsters. of "Romeo and Juliet" in the spring of 1935.

NBC Program To Feature UC

An NBC broadcast on Sunday, he will be in Hollywood making a made progress in every section of May 23, featuring the University's picture "Music for Madame." With the state during the past year, 65-piece symphony orchestra, the this completed he will go to Italy and a number of active chapters Eugene Gleemen, and Hal Young, for two weeks' vacation and then have been organized in various tenor, will go out over a western network of ten stations, it was learned vesterday The program, under the sponsorship of the Oregon state highway commission, will originate in Eugene, be sent by wire to KGW KGIR, Butte; KGHL, Billings; and KTAR, Phoenix.

Used to augment the publicity and travel information appearing in magazines and newspapers, the highway commission is sponsoring the broadcast as an additional advertising project. Governor Charles tures of the University's new libr- H. Martin and Frank Branch Riley, noted Portland lecturer, will also tive club at their weekly luncheon appear on the program. The broadcast is to be held in the music Warren emphasized the need of auditorium and will start at 1:30

Wonder what the gentlemen in 000 volumes, he said, and the old waiting were thinking of as they library's facilities were stretched stood behind their darlings, Queen considerably to take care of 150,- Betty and her princesses on the stand at the Prom?

Tea for Mothers Importance of Held in Gerlinger

The alumnae room of Gerlinger hall, decked in Oregon spring flowers, was the scene of an informal tea for Oregon Mothers the YWCA honored all visiting mothers, their sons and daughters. Receiving in formal spring dress were Gayle Buchanan, AWS president; Harriett Thomsen, YWCA president; Mrs. C. V. Boyer, wife ing, dean of women; Mrs. John building Saturday night. dean of women.

Mrs. Dan E. Clark, president of dren realize their aims. Eugene Mothers; Mrs. George Turnbull, Mrs. Virgil D. Earl, Mrs. M. Betts, and Miss Janet Smith.

Register-Guard fullness of their lives. Not all purposes, President newspapers extend student men and women planning to make Good purposes must have the esfull run of the paper to students, cation is important," he said.

Those appointed to head the staff elected president of the student for the day were: Bill Pease, man- body. Mr. Prescott, dads' repres-Wayne Harbert, city editor; Or- mothers, and toastmistress of the ville Hopkins, assistant city editor; banquet. Stanley Hobson, sports editor; Morris Henderson and Hubard The invocation before the ban-Kuokka, assistant sports editors; quet was led by Rev. C. F. Ristow, Play; Horace Robinson Clare Igoe, women's editor; Myra of the Methodist Episcopal church. Laurence, proof reader.

Friday's News will also be is- Bruce Eddy, and Albert Chambersued by students from the Univer- lin, sang several numbers, includ-

4-H Kids; Write Letters

the Law school has received several the comic radio skit, "Mother letters from young Lane county Comes to College." 4-H club members in the past few weeks in appreciation of the mock trial he staged with the help of Dr. Gould Wickey Will students on April 10.

The trial at the county courthouse, part of the annual Marketing day program for the 700 visit- ton, D. C., will be on the campus ing 4-H members, was apparently a few hours today. Dr. Wickey is one of the high points of the day editor of Christian Education and er, in a letter to Professor Spencer, Council of churches. thanked him for staging the trials, A luncheon honoring Dr. Wicksaying he thought them instruc- ey is being held at the Anchorage tive to visiting teachers and pupils at 12:15 today by Christian leadalike. They may become annual af- ers on the campus. fairs, part of the program offered Dr. Wickey will speak to Luththe 4-H clubers on their Marketing eran students in the men's lounge Day excursion to Eugene, accord- at the Gerlinger hall at 4 o'clock ing to Professor Spencer.

Goals in Life Cited by Boyer

Friday afternoon when AWS and Gayle Buchanan, B. Hall Also Extend Greetings To Oregon Mothers at Annual Banquet

"Purposefulness is what gives of the University president; Mrs. zest to life. A life with no purpose E. C. Peets, president Oregon is empty," stated C. Valentine Mothers, Mrs. Burt Brown Barker, Boyer, president of the University, wife of the vice-president of the in his address at the mother's day University; Mrs. Hazel P. Schwer- banquet in John Straub memorial

Stark. Evans, YWCA secretary; In extending his greetings to the Mrs. Alice B. Macduff, assistant mothers of Oregon, he congratulated them on their work in pro-Presiding at the tea tables were viding means for letting their chil-

Purpose Cited

"The function of education," he Karl W. Onthank, Mrs. F. W. Bond, stated, "is to free men to realize Mrs. Walter M. Cook, Mrs. Robert their purposes." That, he brought out, is what parents are doing to aid their children. By sending them to a University where they might attain "purposefulness in life," they were contributing to the fullness of their lives.

Boyer explained, are wholesome. Ignorance often leads a person to Yesterday's issue of the Registry to carry out purposes in conter-Guard was compiled and edited flict with those of other men or by the journalism students from society as a whole. That, he bethe University of Oregon. This is lieves, is another function of eduan annual courtesy which Eugene cation to distinguish wholesome from unwholesome purposes.

Education Important

newspaper work their profession. sentials of comprehensiveness and Members of the Register-Guard elevation, he stated. "It is necesstaff signified confidence in the sary that purposes be elevated and students when they declared a interests should be expanded. That holiday for themselves and gave is why I think a University edu-

Editorial writing was done by Greetings to the guests were also Dean Allen's class in editing, extended by Barney Hall, newlyaging editor; Paul Deutschmann, entative, Gayle Buchanan, presiassistant managing editor; Ken- dent of AWS, and Mrs. Elbert S. neth Webber, telegraph editor; Peets, president of Oregon

Music on Program

Hulser, society editor; Erwin The Oregon songmen of Alpha hall. Walter Vernstrom, Freed Bales,

'Mighty Oregon." Dorothy Louise Johnson, violin student, played Mendel's "On Wings of Song." Students of the speech division added humor to Professor Carlton E. Spencer of the program in the presentation of

Visit Oregon Campus

Dr. Gould Wickey, of Washingexecutive secretary in charge of H. C. Seymour, state club lead- Christian education for the Federal this afternoon.

New Style Creations as seen in Vogue

Large vivid color-bright block printed patterns, new graceful silhouettes — neat clever styles that sparkle, dresses for summery days at the country club. for comfort on the campus-for smartness on a shopping tour.

WASHBURNE'S ON THE CAMPUS IS THE DUDLEY FIELD SHOP