

Soph Board Elections Tied; Run-off Monday

In the elections held at the Y bungalow Friday afternoon for officers on the sophomore commission, every position was tied except that of vice-president. Elections will be Monday afternoon at the same place from 3 to 5 for these tied returns. Bettylou Swart announced Friday evening.

Tied for president are: Barbara Espy and Aida Macchi, for secretary are: Lucille Stevens and Patsy Taylor, for treasurer are: Anna Marie Huffaker and Marjorie Montgomery, and vice-president is Peggy Robbins.

Since only a few votes were cast in relation to the number of freshmen who have Y cards, it is hoped that more will take advantage of this second voting and will turn out, it was stated today.

a few others.

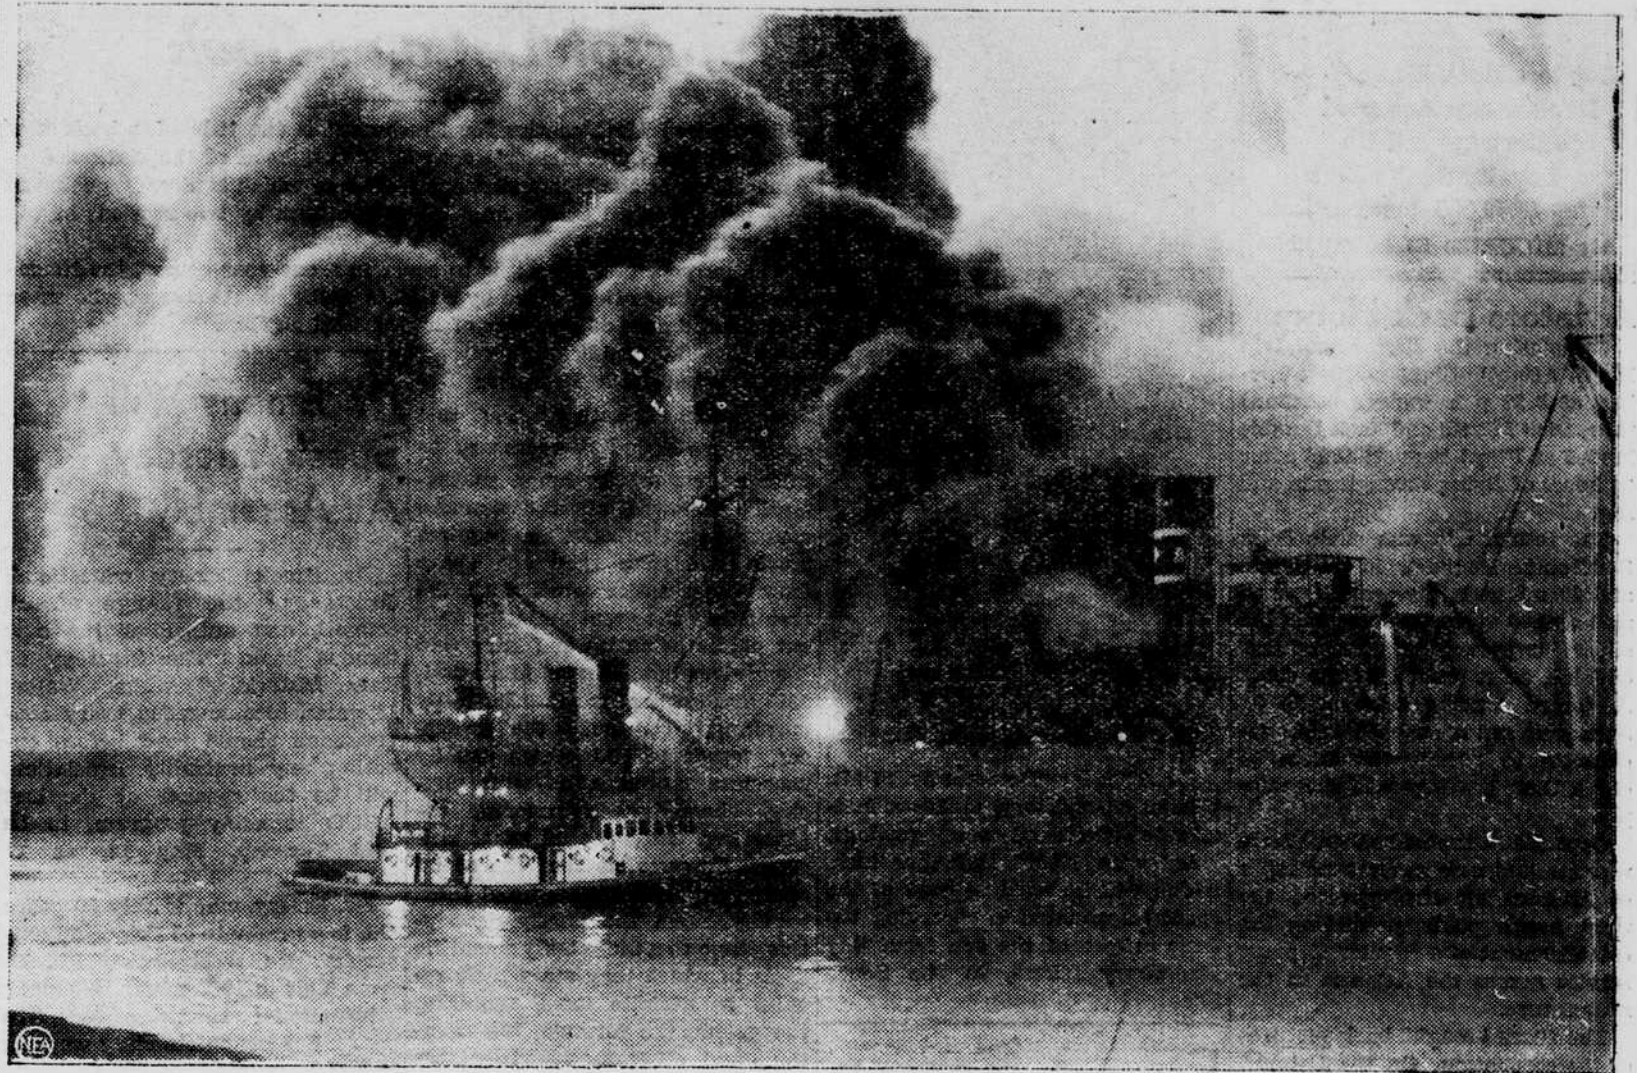

Horace Robinson designed the sets; they were up to par, which means excellent. The bright spots outshone the dull, and all in all, it's a show to be enjoyed.

Studies Honored

Elizabeth S. Lay, University of Washington, has been awarded a Carnegie endowment for International Peace scholarship which will permit her to study international law at The Hague, Holland. She is one of four American students to be so honored.

Ship Endangered as S. F. Waterfront Fire Rages

San Francisco firemen fought by land and water against a blaze that attacked an Embarcadero pier, and forced the cutting adrift of the freighter Delarof, which was moored to the pier. The vessel was towed to safety. Photo shows the smoke-shrouded Delarof with a fireboat pouring streams of water on the flames attacking the piling.
