DUCK TRACKS

Who is going to stop California's undefeated Golden Bears? Week after week the nation's football critics have merely said, "wait." But now they're beginning to get panicky.

For other Coast conference Rose Bailey's most recent masterpiece Bowl contenders it's now a serious matter. Only three clubs besides this season only by the Huskies, the Golden Bears have a look in. that is if you throw out their Stanford, Oregon State, and Washington State each have only one defeat, although the latter two has high hopes of garnering a few have a pair of ties.

points for the Yellow and Green California now has four wins next week in Portland with his so and no defeats or ties, and needs far unsuccessful running attack. to hurdle but three more obstacles in the round-robin to finish in the strength has not been used as much money. One of those three hopeas possible, Coach Callison added. fuls, the middle one, is Prink Calli-"Fast men like Nicholson and son's razzle-dazzle Webfoot sopho-Graybeal can't always be stopped mores who can still make history and I believe there is a fine chance in their five remaining games. of shaking them loose Saturday.'

Stub Allison's California boys have shown undoubted superiority over the conference in their first four games. The Golden Bears boast 98 points for a 24.5 average -far above the cellar Uclans who have a 10.2 average. As a defensive club, yielding but 26 points in carriers fail to make the hoped for four games, they're second only to gains. Stanford, and tied with Washing-How does this conference record

California 24, Oregon State 6. California 27, Washington State ably be out for another week.

California 20, Southern Cal 6. California 27, UCLA 14.

The fact remains that Oregon Saturday. He was in suit yesterfaces the Bears in Portland just a day, but did not take part in the week from Saturday. And what scrimmage with the frosh. a chance for an Oregon day. At In his place Callison used Cece present, Prince Gary Callison Walden, burly reserve from last isn't much worried about Califor- year's club. At the other guard nia, he's looking five days ahead was Joe Huston with Bill Estes when Oregon faces Babe Holling- and Bill Foskett at tackles, John bery's brave Washington State Yerby and Bud Robertson at ends. Cougars, who still have a slight Vern Moore, center, and Paul mathematical chance. It should be Rowe, Bob Smith, Jay Graybeal, a honey. California meanwhile and Hank Nilsen in the backfield. plays host to Jimmy Phelan's title- Sent in later to participate in the

What a weekend it was for prog- Husk and Nello Giovannini, guards; nosticators. We all had tempera- Denny Breaid, center; and Arleigh ture rises. Pat Frizzell of the Bentley, Bill Roach, Frank Em-News saw his average skyrocket a mons, Denny Donovan, and Steve bit, while this timid soul attained Anderson, backs. a .738 percentage. Upsets were not so plentiful over the nation, although scoreless ties seemed to boom into prominence.

John "we can't win" Warren, the honest one, dopes his team wrong about six Saturdays every fall, but against the Washington Babes he kicked away their mythical northwest freshman title by a 26 to 0 store at Multnomah stadium last Friday.

Eye-witnesses tell us that the previously unbeaten frosh simply met a superior eleven. Imagine them trying to tear holes in a line which averaged 208 pounds. Then you can slightly comprehend what Honest John's boys faced. The scrimmage discussion last night, backfield, too, was well over the the Ducklings pointed their com-190-pound mark per man.

Campaigning to put Southern Campaigning to put Southern smashing donated his warriors by California's Ambrose Schindler— smashing donated his warriors by hall, Phi Gamma Delta playing brought on the field watched such the boy who brought storm clouds the Washington Babes last Friday the Comets, and Sigma Alpha Mu "all-Americans" as Hub Cap Hubto Oregon-on this year's all- night at Portland, "Honest John" American is losing a little bit of Warren fastened his frosh squad's its impetus. Yes, he did run wild nose to the grindstone last night. against Ohio State and Oregon Speed tests, blocking, tackling, on successive weekends, but of late and scrimmage with the varsity has slowed down. California held formed the order of the day. Warhim two weeks ago, and Washing- ren drove the lads through the seston State completely stopped the sion without a breather. Trojan flash Saturday in a 0 to 0 game. He can't be a 60-minute player because of incessant leg next customer on the Oregon Yearcramps.

lings' machine-gun schedule. This of "Schindler talk" will be the Ducklings' sixth tussle northwest fans are concentrating in as many weeks with no time out on boys like Joe Gray, and a few for second wind. of his caliber. Oregon has no all- The casualty list hhas dwindled American candidate like big Del down to normal proportions with Bjork, last year's great tackle, but only three men remaining in it. Guard Joe Huston is beginning to Chet Haliski, back, is still bruised,

Heads Up! Step Out!

For that proper Kampus Kut call at the ...

Kampus BARBER SHOP

Across from Sigma Chi

Nicholson, Jay Graybeal Featured As Gridders Work on Running Game

Tony Amato Expected To Be Set for Game DuckHoopers With WSC Cougars Open Practice By BILL NORENE Despite the fact that Buck

(the WSC line) has been scored on trouncing received in the Cal game

Coach Prink Callison apparently

Stating that Oregon's offensive

Nicholson to Start

Salem Jimmy would start at left half against the Cougars with Jackrabbit Jay Graybeal being held in reserve with his running mate

Bob Smith in case the Webfoot ball

At the other halfback post it is believed that Ted Gebhardt will start in place of the injured Dale

Lasselle, Lasselle, whose knee was

Tony Amato, who like Lasselle was injured in the USC game, should be ready for the Cougars

Vic Reginato, ends; Merle Peters and Ellroy Jensen, tackles; Ron

Mad Ducklings

EONS Meeting

La Grande next Friday night.

Still boiling from the 26-0

Meet EONS Next

Eastern Oregon normal is the Meeting the Oregon varsity in a

Scramble With

injured in the USC game, will prob-

Callison indicated yesterday that

Twenty-five Players, Including Seven Letter Winners, Answer Call

UnderHobson

Oregon's first varsity basketball practice was held yesterday in huge McArthur court with 23 lettermen and prospective candidates reporting to Coach Howard Hob-

The first meeting was mainly to organize the group and to drill on a few fundamental points of basketball. The exercises included duck-walking to limber up the legs, dribbling, stopping and starting, and handling the ball. Regular practices will be held daily in pre-(Please turn to page four)

Phi Delts; Sigma Hall Winners in Donut Volleyball

Kappa Sigs Win on Forfeit From Alpha Hall Contingent

Intramural volleyball swung into its second week last night with Kappa Sigma, Sigma hall, and Phi Delta Theta being credited with defending Washington Huskies at scrimmage were Don Kennedy and Oregon's defeat, too.

Mauling Managers

Vast Multitude of Customers

By GEORGE PASERO

All-Something Anyway

bard Kuokka; Jim "Bring 'em

NEW HEAD COACH

OF IOWA

AT THE UNIVERSITY

The crowd that all but overflow-

Drubbed in Classic

ed in the struggle.

for the trainers.

Officer to Buck

A ninety-yard pass from rubber-armed Officer to "Catch Everything" Buck brought the first Trainer score. A moment later the Rubbergorkies crossed the goal line again but Referee Donovan and Head Linesman Bentley called

Not to be outdone, the Mauling

Managers, field-generaled by Marlantes, called a surprise play that shook Smith loose for a touchdown pass. An offside play gave the Managers the extra point and

A moment later Varoff entered the game for Varoff and the the fireworks began, Varoff's invisible pass to Speedboy Lloyd being good for a touchdown which was Squeak Lloyd came back on the seventh down to tear around left end and finally plunk the ball in back of the goal posts for the win-

Gabby Makes Excuse

licked, blamed it on the crowd.

"They was makin' so much noise

And Referee Donovan vociferat-

ed thusly: "It was a clean game, cleanest I've ever officiated. I only we couldn't head de signals."

Gabby Leo Marlantes, far from a lead at this point.

nullified by offsides.

ning touchdown.

Only three games were scheduled for play due to the use of one of the volleyball courts by the Teachers Institute, which will con-

Last night's games marked the beginning of the second round of play, with all teams in the A

Phi Delts Triumph

The Phi Delts started like a whirlwind in the first game of their match with the Campbell Co-op, with the Co-op team winding up on the short end of a 15 to mendous din equal to that created Marlantes, We're off Varoff, Kat Varsity and the short end of a 15 to mendous din equal to that created in the crash of Wall Street, the Cadenessa, Squeak Lloyd, Comet It was 8 o'clock of a Saturday clothes, still inactive. Delts, with the score being 15 to Manager equipment all over the form.

> tion in the Delta Tau Delta team 12-7. as they coasted to an easy 15-3, 15-4 victory. Alpha hall forfeited game scheduled for the evening's 10 miles of "Trainer's Field."

pass toward the EONS mixup at All games scheduled for tonight are in the A league. They find the Chi Psi team tangling with Zeta ed the two benches that were meeting Delta Upsilon.

GUEST COLUMN

Oregon State's Mr. John Eilers

By JAMES WINCHESTER New York Sports Writer and Radio Commentator

Editor's Note: Mr. Winchester.

who writes this feature, was a former sports editor of the New York World Telegraph, and at present does feature work in the East, Having covered the Olympic games he is interested in track artists, and on his present trip to the coast found time to visit the Oregon campus for an interview with Polevaulter George Varoff. His second and final column will come tomor-Writing a guest column while on a vacation is something like a postman taking a hike on his day off but-to quote the catch line of "Cafe Metropole"—hold on to your hat, Henry, here we go again. If John Mers, Beaver halfback, trod Hayward turf not long ago, and you can stand it I am sure there Saturday figured in Oregon State's tie of Stanford. Eilers figured in won't be a breakdown on this end. This being football season the sports pages are naturally filled each day with stories of outstanding courage and stamina displayed by galloping halfbacks or thun-have given you a plugged nickle dering linesmen on the nation's gridirons. Football is a sport that requires plenty of fight and courthe sprinters occupying the spot-By Terrible Trainers have the same requisites, and in ing up activities. Suey Oye of Jaa great many years of following pan was there, Meadows of U.S.C., athletic events it remained for a and other lesser known vaulters league now having played in at Score, 12 to 7, as Men of Colonel Hayward University of Gregon boy to dis- from New England and the East. Dominate; O'Brien, Donovan Referees for play, to us, the most courage, "guts" if you will, of any athlete ever seen in action.

game was also won by the Phi Terrible Trainers scattered bits of Smith, and Slasher Daveys per-night, last February, deep in the At thirteen feet he was still cavernous depths beneath the seats "sitting it out" and in the press lower practice field Sunday in a Buat what 299,898 fans still of the Boston Garden. Outside, box sports writers were dictating 'Honest John' Sails A well-balanced Sigma hall game that echoed over the country want to know is what part Dennis the snow was piled deep around to their telegraph operators flash-Yearlings Toward team failed to find much opposi- from Maine to Coos bay, winning O'Brien Donovan, the referee, play- the building and an icy wind was es that Varoff, hampered by an inhowling down from the White jured leg, would not compete at While no blood was lost, rumor Donovan called a total of 499 mountains.

has it that there are still some bits penalties (and almost 400 were on From a worried meet official we moved to thirteen-six, five would to the Kappa Sigs in the third of managers within a vicinity of the managers) in between his other had heard that Vareff, suffering have got you twenty from the asduties of calling signals for the from a leg injury, would not be sembled bookies, that Oye would managers and scouting weaknesses called 499 penalties. And say that was the largest crowd I've seen since I was in South America and reffed the tilt between the Brazil Nuts and the Uruguway Ugoes on the Argentine pampus."

Complete Manuscript Service

EDITING TYPING

Mimeographing

Expert work on term papers, theses, form letters. Work approved by the graduate school. Vincent Holcomb in charge.

'CO - OP'

FLEET NIGHT DELIVERY

PHONE

It's Swelligant

and the latest campus rage

TUTTI-FRUTTI

Golden Bears Remain Undefeated on Coast

COAST CONFERENCE STANDINGS
W	L	T	For	Agst	Pct.
California4	0	0	98	26	1.000
Stanford	1	1	31	21	.666
Oregon State2	1	2	33	34	.666
Washington State1	1	2	10	34	.500
Southern California1	2	1	40	41	.333
Washington1	2	1	24	26	.333
Oregon1	3	0	34	80	.250
UCLA1	3	1	54	62	.250

Football fans from Seattle to Washington today scanned the gridiron situation in the Pacific coast conference and found California power a step nearer to the circuit championship and the Pasadena Rose Bowl bid.

The plentiful Golden Bears of the University of California turned Annual Three - Mile the full force of their heralded might on their fourth conference opponent of the current season, and for the fourth time left the field, triumphant and confident of their power.

Bruins Claw Pay-Dirt

who joined Oregon State, Washing- Tuesday, November 23. ton State, and Southern California Announcement of the definite beaten, but managed to score more turning out under the supervision points against California than all of Russ Cutler and Sam McGaugother opponents combined.

(Please turn to page four) able to compete. I was out to investigate for myself.

Stretched out on a rubbing table in one of the dressing rooms I ATOs, who have been reported as found him. He was alone but on requiring all their pledges to turn his face was written a grimace of out for the event, and the Yeomen, night?" I asked him.

The lithe, blond kid took a long time to answer but when he did it was not to say "yes" or "no."

It was to roll from the table, pick up his pole and start for the the Phi Delts for first place with sawdust covered pit in the midst of 174 points to their credit. The Yeothe circular arena above. As he men have failed to make much of started up the ramp his pole a showing so far this year but the dragged and he limped with his win would give them an excellent right leg. Then and there the as standing. for the chances of George Varoff.

As the meet got under way with light on the track, the pole vault-But other sports, less publicized, ers began their preliminary warm-

As the practice jumps continued Varoff remained on the sidelines, He wasn't a football player. He inactive. The bar was started at back alive" Buck, Kermin the Ger- was and is a track man. His name 12 feet and Meadows, Sefton, Oye Varoff remained in his sweat > his specialty. As the bar was take the blue ribbon.

(Continued tomorrow)

Turkey is Trophy For Donut Runners

Race Is Scheduled For November 23

With a plump Thanksgiving turkey and team trophy offered by Bill Hayward as their objective, a This time it was their "little large. field of intramural crossbrothers," the UCLA Bruins, who country runners will get under way felt the claws of the big bear and on their annual three-mile grind on in the ranks of the vanquished by date was made yesterday by Paul Washke, intramural sports direc-Pill Spaulding's Uclans were tor. The squads which have been hey are reported to be the largest in the history of the run.

The Bill Hayward trophy is at present held by the SAEs who will exert every effort to keep the silverware on their mantle, by the who are aided this year by Don "Are you going to jump to- Barker, last year's turkey winner, are rated as favorites to take the crown and the 75 points toward the intramural championship.

A win for the ATOs will give them a lead on the fall intramural calendar as they are now tied with > SCORECAST NOW ...

Varsity vs. W.S.C. California vs. Wash.

1000 MORRIS

Full details on the Philip Morris contest are posted on your house bulletin board and at the College Side Inn . . . Taylor's . . . University Pharmacy . . and Claypool-Van Atta

A PIPE --

... a Man's Smoke

If you smoke, play safe . . .

The Coeds won't borrow YOUR PIPE

Comoys Dunhills Kaywoodies DeMuths Frank Medicos

Lots of Good Pipes, 50c and $1

A splendid assortment of tobacco, pouches, lighters and pipe racks.

the 'CO-OP'

stir some noise. Joe, you know, but he is scrimmaging with the catapulted his name to nation-wide squad. Jim Stuart, tackle, shoulrecognition with a goal conversion der injuries, and worthy Blaisdell, in Oregon's stirring 7 to 6 upset of guard, chest injuries, are the re-✓ Stanford. Huston is worthy, as are maining casualties. several other Ducks, and it won't Ringing up three wins, one tie, hurt to do a little advertising. and one loss, the yearling eleven holds down a .750 percentage. Warren's proteges handed the Rooks a double loss, trounced the SONS, tied the Wolves, and cracked up against the Babes. Willamette Boasts Homecoming Jinx WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY. Salem, Oct. 1 .- (Special) - The 13-6 Bearcat victory over Whittier college a week ago gave Willamette a homecoming win record of

A "Spec" Keene coached eleven has lost only one homecoming game since the mentor came to Willamette-by a 9 to 6 score to

College of Puget Sound in 1926,

11 straight games.

his first season here.