Chilly Dress for Winter Concerts

Starred on the bill of fare for winter term concerts are Uday Shankar and his partner, Simkie, top, who will lead their troupe of economics, will lead a course in pearance under his new title. Hindu dancers in an appearance at McArthur court, and Nathan Mil-stein, bottom, who will play his violin at the first concert.

| Description of public utilities; Alfred L. Lomax, professor of business ad-

Rumors Reverberate as Curbstone Football Fans Guessat New Grid Coach

Shields, Warren Are 'Local' Possibilities to Fill Callison's Shoes; Gilbert Silent Over Candidates From Outside

By VINCENT GATES

With the strained coaching situation reaching a climax through the resignation of "Prink" Callison two weeks ago, the 1938 Oregon football team will have a new coach to guide them through the next

The question at hand, on the campus, the streets, in Oregon towns and wherever Oregonians gather, is: Who will be the new coach? Immediately following acceptance of Callison's resignation by the ASUO athletic board, rumors flew thick and fast concerning his successor. John Warren, frosh men-came apparent that an Oregon mer fullback star for the Web-

Bradshaw Approached

football coach at Fresno (Calif.)

didates shortly after Callison quit, the players are acquainted.

Jimmy "Rabbit" Bradshaw, head

'Advice Bureau' Grades Coeds For U of W Men

By ALYCE ROGERS clinic held at the University of foots, refused to make application Washington puts modern coeds in- despite encouragement by his to various classes. First there is friends. the "budget-shop" girl who is as liberal with her affection as the man is with his money. If he takes her for a coke, he can hold her State College next was approached hand. If he takes her to a show, by Dr. James H. Gilbert, member he can put his arm around her. If of the Oregon faculty and athletic he takes her to a dance he can representative, but nothing official was disclosed. Dr. Gilbert admitted interview-Then there is the "time passer" who sits in the car until 2 o'clock ing "three or four" other possible modeling work on this portion of Minchall, son of F. S. Minchall of contenders for the coaching berth, the building has been completed. the Benton County Review, and Daand then rushes home to tell the but would not disclose their names. other girls about it. Also there is the statistical girl who feels that He denied that Tex Oliver, Arizona the building, which is being trans- Sanderson of the Freewater Times. necking is all right after the third coach and oft-mentioned for the formed into classrooms, has not Daughters studying journalism Oregon job, was approached. or fourth or fifth date. And of course, there is always the prude who gets indignant and rushes school (Portland) coach, was tinue to be held in their usual the Sheridan Sun; Louise Aiken, wildly into the house at the slight- placed on the list of possible canest overture. The "perennial daughter" is the type that worries about what mother will say. Forgetting what anybody will say is the "trya-little-harder" type who really leads a man on.

A Crying Carreer

Agnes Clune Qunilan, Philadel-(Please turn to page two)

Enrolling Mill Grinds 'Til 5 Today at Igloo

Money Changers Ready for Change day registration mill.

for all students.

or at McArthur court.

record of 3120 set last term. Red Books at Johnson

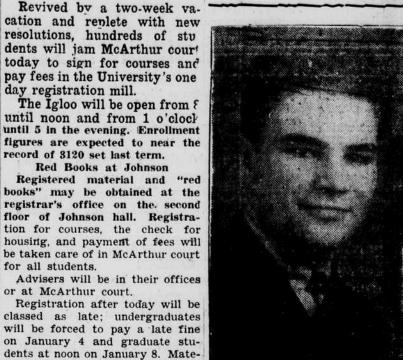

Oregon Emerald

UNVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, MONDAY, JANUARY 3, 1938

Registration Material WINTER CARD SALE STARTS

They Head the ASUO Card Show

final lap at registration today are, left to right, John Luvaas, Rita Wright, and Louis Rotenberg.

Portland Extension

rial for late registration will be issued at the registrar's office.

Work Overtime

Many University professors will be doing double duty after January 3. On that date the Portland tem of higher education will give instruction to 2000 students in evening courses. Eighteen new courses are being inaugurated.

Newel H. Comish, professor of business administration, will instruct a course in salesmanship: Victor P. Morris, dean of the school of business administration, will teach a course in economics of the recovery program.

Calvin Crumbaker, professor in the cultural geography of China

James R. Jewell, dean of the school of education, will give instruction in the history of American education; Elizabeth B. Montgomery, assistant professor of education, will give a course in the principles and practices of coun-

Oliver L. Barrett, associate pro fessor of sculpture, will teach sculpture and elementary model-

NYA checks for December are ready at window 2 in Johnson hall. litical reporting; Arthur R. Jones, Students are requested to call for publisher of the Condon Globe coach, filed application when it be- two other students related to members of the craft.

25,000 Law Books

Get New Home in

Old Libe Building

Eric Waldorf, Jefferson high will be used. Law classes will con- Steen M. Johnson, ex-publisher of but alumni pressure forced the as a library from 1904 to 1937, is of Hi Jeness, promotion manager ger, was in California today and The main reading room has been tor of the People's Press, one of could not be reached for a state- divided into classrooms. These will Eugene's first newspapers. Miss ment, but he was believed to favor be completed some time during the Margaret Finnegan is the neice of the selection of a coach with whom term. Renovating of the basement Hattie S. Brown, assistant manament and Waldorf was believed stallation of two air-conditioning William Pengra, Portland.

"Oregon grad" status as a require- being completely modernized. In- of The Oregonian.

has not yet been started.

Anse Cornell, graduate mana- two of the main features.

Sons of Journalists

Follow Family Steps of 25,000 volumes was moved into lin Allen Jr., whose father is ad-vacation by student labor. Re- Weekly of Los Angeles; Stanley the old library stacks during the vertising manager of the American

As work on the remainder of vid Sanderson, son of Mrs. E. Y.

yet been completed, only the stacks are Janice Johnson, daughter of The old structure, which served Argus, and Joan Jeness, daughter units and improved lighting are sophomore in the school, is a great-

Will Open January 3 Dr. Erb Will Make Large Percentage New Courses Will Be Offered; Profs Will Debut on Campus Of Oregon Students At Press Confab Make Own Money

At Annual Banquet On January 21

pointed president of the Univerpress conference, to be held at the recently shows. school of journalism January 20 to 22. This is his first campus ap-

The new president, who will not assume his position here until ministration, will give a course on March, will discuss "Professors and the Press" at the conference's annual banquet January 21.

E. Palmer Hoyt, managing editor of The Oregonian, will address the conference on the problem of freedom of the press, a topic to which he has devoted much study. Other scheduled speakers include Miss Adelaide V. Lake, ediwho will present an account of tor of the Sheridan Sun and exstaff member of The Oregonian, women in journalism in the state; Harry N. Crain, political writer and city editor of the Salem Capitol Journal, who will discuss po-

(Please turn to page two)

Richard Litfin, son of Ben R.

Litfin, publisher of The Dalles

Frank Jenkins, editor of the Klam-daughter of George Aiken, Ontario nephew of William Pengra, ex-ediger of the Astorian-Budget.

extension center of the state sys- New Prexy to Speak Less Than One-Seventh Totally Dependant, Three-Tenths Financially 'Grown Up. Revealed by Economic Survey

Less than one-seventh of the 3120 students on the University of card holders. The admission to Topping the winter bill-of-fare Oregon campus are entirely dependent for all of their funds, while sity, will address Oregon newspa- approximately 30 per cent are "grown up" in every sense of the word permen at the annual Oregon and earn all of their money, a survey made by the registrar's office upon parents

dean of personnel.

Only 287 men depend entirely on their parents while 741 earn all

Backfires on Two Students

Andy and Martin Bogdanovich no more scoff at Santa Clause as a myth; because when he attemped to get down the chimney of their dwelling near the Anchorage Thursday evening, he must have shut off the draft. When the Bogdanovich brothers returned home Thursday they found their only present a pile of ashes, and their only belongings the clothes they wore on their backs.

Both students are entirely self-supporting. Even their bicycle which they used as a means of locomotion to and from work was only a little mass of twisted steel.

Ohmart Is Chosen Co-op Cooperator

Howard Ohmart, general mana-Journalism runs in the blood, Dean Eric W. Allen of the school tor, was named for the job by his of journalism commented here today, after a survey disclosed that ger of Campbell co-op, was elected to form a coast federation of livfollowers and Gene Shields, line students in his school include 12 children of newspaper families and ing organizations at the first Pacific coast conference on the Univer-Nine sons of journalists studying the profession here include sity of Washington campus. graduate might be hired. Mike Philip Bladine, son of Lars E. Bladine, publisher of the McMinnville Fifty delegates from the Univer-Mikulak, backfield coach and for- Telephone-Register; Burr Monrad, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Tucker sity of Oregon, Washington, Idaho, of the Myrtle Point Herald; Norman Scott, son of W. A. Scott, cir- British Columbia, and Washington culation manager of the Salem Capitol Journal; James Brinton, son State college attended the conferof C. M. Brinton and brother of ence.

A spring vacation to be held B. C. Brinton, of the Baker Record-Easter vacation is planned on the Washington State and Idaho cam-Chronicle; Bill Jenkins, son of

The complete law school library ath Falls News and Herald; Frank- Six Coeds Are Given Awards By Panhellenic

Scholarships that will provide tuition for the coming term have been awarded to six women students of the University of Oregon by Panhellenic, it was announced recently.

The six, chosen on the basis of scholarship are Vivian Cornutt, Marcia K. Wright, Erma Brown, Elizabeth C. Phillip, Hallie Dudrey, and Ellen Torrence.

Funds for the scholarship were derived from the fee charged all freshman girls who desired to be rushed for membership in sororities the opening week of fall

Are 'Open Sesame' To Varied Program Five Dollar Pasteboards Will Admit Oregon

Winter ASUO Cards

Students to Basketball Games, Concerts, Dances, and Activities

Winter term ASUO cards, the "open sesame" to a student body program wrapped in claims of "unprecendented supervalue," will be placed on sale in McArthur court today when returning students push through Oregon's registration turn-

Cost of the $5 winter term ducat can be deferred in a number of "painless payments," sales heads announced yesterday. Although material wealth in some form of money must be ex-

Student Body Offers 'Hobble' as Opener

Frolic, Gaiety

The "Hobson Hobble," a student cards to Gerlinger hall where Babe body dance January 7 dedicated to Binford's orchestra will play for Coach Howard Hobson, is being the "Hobson Hobble," the first alloffered as a special attraction to campus dance of the season.

son's basketeers tussle with Wash- meet foemen from other northwest set from nine to twelve in Gerlinger hall. 928, or 30 per cent, earn their own crimson and gray of Washington way entirely; another 10 per cent crimson and gray of Washington State and the Lemon and Green of Cream will predominate. Plans Oregon will predominate. Plans cent earn 50 per cent; 331 or 10 are being made for the introducper cent earn 25 per cent, while 173 or 5.6 per cent pick up 10 per cent by working. Only 951 or 30.1 Sport clothes will be in order. per cent are entirely dependent Babe Binford's orchestra will provide entertainment, introducing a Of some $40,000 borrowed from the emergency loan fund, during special line of college medleys.

Athletic coaches and their wives the last term, practically all of it have consented to act as chaperwas repaid by students from their earnings, reports Karl W. Onthank, ones. This is the first of two studentbody sponsored dances. The sec-

Students engage in all types of ond, the "Duck Dip," will be held vork, from mowing lawns and putlater in the year. ing in wood to accounting and other forms of skilled employment Many earn their board and room, while a few actually are able to Wednesday Is Proof Deadline For Oregana Oregon Daily Emerald.

Wednesday will be the last day to return proofs to Kennell-Ellis studio for pictures to be included in The 1938 Oregana, Editor Wayne Harbert said last night. "It is hoped," said Harbert,

"that new students-and those who were negligent last termwill take advantage of this opportunity to include their pictures in the yearbook. Those students who pledge houses this week may also have their pictures taken or transferred."

Mr. Ellis should be called for appointment in those cases where the pictures have not been taken. If pictures are taken by Tuesday it will be possible to return the proofs by Wednesday, he has announced.

Although more than 2,000 copies of The Oregana have been sold, it will be possible, according to Manager Howard Overback, to subscribe today at registration.

J. H. Gilbert Elected

James H. Gilbert, dean of the ren. College of Social Science, was teenth annual conference on the lace T. Wait. will be open to advertising man- campus of Pomona college, it was revealed yesterday.

changed, students can pay all, part, or none of the entire price at registration today. If a deferred plan is used, other payments may be made in one or two installments later in the term, it was announced. Double-Bill Friday First opportunity to "cash in' on ASUO cards will be a double-Sport Dances Ushers on ASUO cards will be a double-bill offering on Friday night, Jan-Hoop Season With uary 7, when Hobby Hobson's Webfoot quintet meets Washington State basketeers on the Igloo maples. Immediately after the game, students will be admitted by ASUO those without cards will be fifty are reserved student seats for 12 basketball games in McArthur The hobble will follow on the court where Oregon's driving heels of the game in which Hob- Ducks, undefeated this season, will > Receive Basketball Seats Student body card holders will also be admitted to six frosh bas-

Three concerts, starring some of the most outstanding artists in the annual series, are available to tion of the coaches and players to students. Nathan Milstein, famous violinist, will open the series of winter term concert attractions on January 13. The Eugene Gleemen, noted for their male chorus, will appear February 2 under the direction of John Stark Evans.

Hindu "Passion Dancers' Uday Shankar and his Hindu ballet will offer numerous Oriental fandangoes, featuring the Hindu "dance of passion." The concert, originally scheduled for February 22, will be presented on February

An all-student dance, "the Duck Dip." will be held later in the term. Besides the other attractions student body members will receive a one-term subscription to The Drive to Continue Sale of cards will be carried in living organizations this week. A concerted drive under the tutelage of Rita Wright, John Luvaas, and Louis Rotenberg will be carried on to round up prospective members not registered today.

The little pasteboards can be obtained from house representatives, at the cashier's office in Johnson hall, or at the McArthur court ticket office.

Dr. DeBusk Given Tribute in New Book

Dr. H. D. Sheldon, research professor of history and formerly dean of the school of education, has edited a book, "DeBusk Memorial Essays," just off the University press, in which fitting tribute is paid to Dr. Burchard Woodson DeBusk, educator at the University from 1915 until his death July

Dr. DeBusk worked untiringly To Economic Board while at he University in an effort to establish reading clinics and otherwise aid handicapped child-

Among the compilators are Kenelected as co-member on the exe- neth Shumaker, Dr. Raymond H. cutive board of the Pacific Coast Wheeler, Dr. Elizabeth Montgom-Economic association at its six- ery, Miss Lillian Rayner, and Wal-

"A man so single in his purpose, so free from petty jealousies and James K. Hall of the University egoistic inhibitions is seldom of Washington was elected presi- found," Dr. Selden said in writing of Oregon's former educator.

550 Seats Added To Student Section Seating capacity in student sec-equal substantial salaries and yet

Business men and others in Eu-gent are cooperative in providing employment for needy students, it carry regular study schedules.

tions at ASUO concerts will be increased by 550 this term, George Root, educational activities manager, announced yesterday. On the bleacher seats on the lower floor of McArthur court 320 seats will be added for the first concert of the term. In the balcony an additional 230 seats will be made available for students, he

Ad Men's Honorary Sponsors Contest

Alpha Delta Sigma, national nonorary in men's advertising, is sponsoring a contest for which the winner will be awarded the Alpha Delta Sigma advertising trophy for 1937.

Competition for the 1937 award will be based upon the planning and publication of an advertising campaign promoting some phase of newspaper service. The contest agers or members of advertising > Copy must be submitted not later than January 7, 1938.