

THE HOT CORNER

By BILL NORENE

This fella Hobby Hobson that is now coaching our basketball and baseball entries in the northern division is a bit of all right. In fact, it might even be said that he is a very good bit of all right.

Yesterday you may have, in one of your off moments, read in this same column all about Slat's Gill's seconding a motion by Sportswriter Pete Antonich to insert a 10-second pause after every basket scored.

Originally this proposal was to help the sportswriters in their efforts to keep up with the rapid pace set by some of the fast-shooting teams they come in contact with.

Now for some reason or other, maybe because it would be right up his alley, we suspect Coach Gill of having just a little more than the sportswriter's welfare at heart when he jumps in with both feet as being definitely in favor of the proposal.

In fact it is a wonder that Coach Gill does not get flat feet he jumps so far and so hard. Coach Gill even jumps so far as to write all the other northern division coaches a letter presenting this little gem.

Well, matters progress no farther until last Saturday evening after the Oregon-Montana scare. Gill, losing no opportunity to scout the Oregons, comes over for the game. Hobby and Jiggs Dahberg are already here.

Now coaches don't ordinarily conspire, that is unless they are baseball coaches with their teams playing on a hot day, but these three northern division coaches do.

Among other things mentioned is, of course Coach Gill's latest proposal, the insertion of 10 seconds time out at a very inconvenient part of the game.

Coach Dahberg put the question squarely up to Howard Andrew, and Howard Andrew, not a very outspoken person, said something like, "I don't know."

Jiggs then came back and asked Hobby if he had any ideas on the subject.

Now Hobby may not have very much to say on occasions, but never let it be said that he is tongue-tied.

From what we hear, it was Coach Gill, who was tongue-tied when Hobby answered Dahberg with the suggestion that they pass a rule giving the defensive team possession of the ball if the offensive ball club fails to shoot within 30 seconds after they bring the pill into the front court.

What a fine time the Beavers would have playing ring-around-the-rosy with a 30-second time limit on their pastime.

Short shots—Stanford Basketball Coach John Bunn is now yelling that USC's Trojans went out of their way physically to stop Luisetti . . . he did admit, however, that Dornise, the man assigned to check Hank did a great job in the proper way . . . the Ducks put at least three different men on Chuck

Comets Triumph Over Omega Hall, 23 to 12; Zeta Hall Downs Phi Psis by 26-12 Score in Other A League Hoop Contests

Faced by Gib Wiley the lively Comets brushed aside a determined Omega hall five, 23 to 12.

The Comets were slow in getting started but, when they did, they applied the power and went to town running the score to 11 to 6 at the half. In the second period Wiley got his eye working and sent the old ball through the hoop with consistency. The closest the Omegas could come to the Comets was in the early part of the third canto when the score was 11 to 10 for the Comets. This, however, was short for the Comets rolled up the count to hold an 11-point lead at the end of the game.

Wiley with 12 points was high. Klidder led all the scorers for Omegas with 5 points.

Zet 20, Phi Kappa Psi 12 In a game which one team tried to out-foul the other without the referees detecting such "foul play" Zeta hall trimmed the Phi Kaps, 20 to 12.

The game started out slow with the score 9 to 7 at the half. From here the Phi Kaps tried in vain to get the ball and score, but the Zetas, with their superior ball handling and "nudging," retained the ball long enough to come out on the long end of the score. Whitnack led the scorers with 10 points, while Collier was high for the Phi Kaps with 4. Whitnack played an outstanding game for Zeta hall with Williams and Collier outstanding for Phi Kaps.

SAE 8, Phi Delt 19 In the feature game of the afternoon the Phi Delt triumphed over the SAEs for their third victory in a row in the chase for the donut crown, 19 to 8.

The game was a donnybrook from beginning to end despite the score. The Phi Delt jumped in to lead with a basket by Shipley and a free throw by Holmes. Holmes fouled Bentley who made good the throw making the score 3 to 1. Ken Shipley canned one from the keyhole for another 2 points and Jacobs was fouled and made his free toss good thus the score was 5 to 2. Ed Strohecker and Shipley followed with two in a row giving the Phi Delt a comfortable lead at the end of the first period, 9 to 2.

The second half was a repetition of the first with the Phi Delt adding more polish to their rapid fire passing system and getting the ball off the backboard with a little more consistency. The biggest surprise to the fans was the inability of Shipley to find the hoop in the second half. He was bottled up so that he was only able to connect for one field goal.

Shipley led all scorers with 8 points. Strohecker followed with 7.

Don Walker, slim guard of the Sigma hall team yesterday spoiled the Sigma Phi Epsilon's basketball party by scoring in the last few minutes of play and thereby saving the hall team from a white-washing. The score was 34 to 2 for the SPEs.

The SPEs got off to an early start and midway in the game held a 16 to 0 lead. This lead was increased during the third quarter with the hall boys failing to score. The Sigma hall five had many shots, but were unable to hit the bucket.

Hobby Speeds Pace Of Drill for Crucial Washington Series

Dave Silver to Rejoin Squad Today; Coach Hobson Books Tomorrow Morning as Time For Departure for Seattle

Placing the emphasis on speed and more speed, Coach Hobby Hobson last night sent his rangy Duck basket boomers to the wars in a lengthy scrimmage against "Honest John" Warren's tall hoop hoopers representing Hec Edmundson's Washington Huskies.

The webfoots are booked to en-train for Seattle early Thursday morning for their crucial series against the University of Washington Huskies, second place club in the conference standing, Friday and Saturday nights.

Still minus the services of Dave Silver, husky forward who has been confined to the infirmary the past 10 days with a light case of chicken pox, Hobby had the same lineup on the floor that opened the last two games.

The young Duck mentor sent Laddie Gale, the tall kid with the big hands, to the showers early in the workout to give him a rest. Gale is still a little weak from his cold of last week.

Dick In for Gale John Dick, bruising reserve who filled in so capably for Hardy in the Oregon State series, took over Gale's post.

Speedster Bobby Anet and Wally Johansen handled the guard posts as per usual custom although Johansen gave way to Ford Mullen, also early in the proceedings.

At center, Slim Wintermute, the human "mooring mast" as the University of Washington publicity director calls him, gave way to Ray Jewell after about 20 minutes of hard scrimmage.

Ted Sarpola, sophomore member of the ex-Astoria trio, on Coach Hobby's varsity worked most of the session at the other forward post, teaming with Dick.

Another scrimmage with the frosh is on the slate of the varsity tonight. This will wind up the practice for the Duck men who will appear at the rally immediately after and then head for the north-land in the gray of the morning.

Silver will rejoin the squad for tonight's practice session, Hobson announced. The big forward will see action in the Washington series although he will not start, Mentor Hobson indicated.

Frosh Leave For Eastern Jaunt Today

Ducklings Will Meet High Country Prep Teams; Eleven Men Listed for Trip

Four games in as many nights will occupy the minds and bodies of Coach "Honest John" Warren's frosh hoopmen this week when the yearlings make an invasion into eastern Oregon to meet Hood River, Pendleton, LaGrande, and Baker high school quintets.

The trip will probably be the longest of the year for the Ducklings who are getting all the experience they can before they clash with the OSC Rooks in their annual "little civil war" starting February 11 at Eugene.

Two complete teams have been listed by Warren to make the trip. Those selected by reason of their showing in games and practice are Earl Sandness, Toivo Pippo, Archie Marshik, George "Porky" Andrews, Harold Hoffman, Everett McNeely, Bob Shisler, Warren Smith, Chet Allen, Danny Read, and Pete Igoe.

The probable starting line-up for the four games will be Sandness and Hoffman at the forward posts, Archie Marshik at the pivot position, and Andrews and McNeely

Mixed Teams Will Compete In Gym Tonight

Mixed volleyball teams will compete at the men's physical education building Wednesday night at 7:15. All games will be played at that time.

Opening Bell Will Find Oregon Mittmen Pitted Against Oregon State

"Ready for action!" Jim Dimit, coach of the University boxing team, is well pleased with the condition and spirit of his fistic artists, he announced yesterday. Long weeks of training are being climaxed this week, in preparation for the meet with Oregon State College Friday evening at McArthur court.

Nick Anxious Russell Inskip, 215-pounder, has been receiving Dimit's especial attention lately and appears to be in good shape to take on Ben Ell, the Beaver heavyweight. Ell, with quite a reputation as a tough boy, spent his autumn serving as second-string fullback on the OSC grid team.

Speed artist and hero of several exhibitions during the last two months, 135-pound Nick Nickerson seems anxious to try his "swarming" talent on the Beavers' Merle Johnson—and so on down the list of boxers.

Don Towers and Bob Kroessin, welterweights; Merle Hanscom and "Poker-Pete" Thorn, in the 158 division; and 175-pound Bill Hawke, all are working out nightly, and Dimit has few worries.

Smokey and Ferris Spar The two 165 men who have recently gained applause in campus exhibitions, Gale Ferris and Smokey Whitfield, have been sparring together and with Dimit. Whitfield, Chicago '33 Golden Gloves finalist, has been concentrating on improving his defense, and appears virtually impregnable.

Bogue Asks for Speed Meanwhile, Al Bogue, wrestling team instructor, has been urging his men to "ever greater speed," in the hope of presenting a fast-moving and spectacular club Friday evening.

Morton Myers, welterweight, has shown steady improvement during the last two weeks and promises
