

2nd Rythm Review Slated Tonight

Emerald Broadcast To Bring Musical Questions Contest

Babe Binford's Band Will Play Hit Numbers In Rythm Reviews Program Tonight; Five Contestants to Take Part

Following on the heels of last week's successful musical question contest, the second of the new Emerald Rythm Reviews will be broadcast from KORE tonight at 8:15 o'clock with Babe Binford's band taking part musically in this week's contest.

Five contestants for the ordeal have been selected from the list of applicants received by Wendell Kaufman, director of the contest. Five questions pertaining to many features of modern dance melodies will be asked each "musical guesser," according to Kaufman and Don Kennedy, master of ceremonies. The winner of the contest will receive a prize of a merchandise order to either H. Gordon and company or Joe Richards men's store.

Questions for the contest will get harder with each program, Kennedy said.

Binford's band will play some of the newest and popular numbers, among them will be winners of the hit parade and other favorites of the nation's dance world. Parts of the tunes being asked for in the question contest are played while the questions are asked.

Favorable comment to the new series of programs was received following last week's broadcast, when studio technicians and officials received numerous phone calls complimenting the review.

Kennedy announced that program visitors will be welcome during the broadcast. Questions to be asked and names of contestants are being received by Kennedy and Kaufman.

Art Studes Discuss Advisory Council

Majors in each of the eight departments of the school of architecture and allied arts are meeting at various times during the week with Dean Ellis F. Lawrence to discuss the formation of a student advisory council for the school.

The council, which would develop a close relationship between the student body and the faculty, would be composed of representatives from each department, Dean Lawrence said. The number of representatives one department could have on the council will be determined by the enrollment, he said.

Dean Morse Speaker At Round Table

Wayne L. Morse, dean of the law school, presented a paper on the "Administration of Release Procedures in Oregon" at the monthly meeting of the Round Table group held at the Osburn hotel, Tuesday at 6:15.

The Round Table is a discussion group composed of townspeople and University professors.

Follow Through

(Continued from page three) er than a Fourth of July rocket again tonight . . . this time conclusively and very, very positively.

Short ones—And to think Dead-Eye-Dick Williamson used to go to Oregon . . . tonight Silent Bud Robertson rode the "hand" rail . . . coolest man on the floor tonight after Anet left was Johanson . . . the Ducks won in the last few minutes without Anet mind you . . . yes, and little Matt Pavalunas came through in the pinch and how!

KXL's announcer practically climbed into the rafters to see the game . . . yes, mama, if I never see another game, I've seen ONE.

Beaver Boxers Will

(Continued from page three) A definite home and home series has been arranged with the Oregon State rooks and the University freshman boxers have a number of men working out nightly. Among the frosh are Paul Smouse, 172, Stackhouse 175, Bailey, 210, Gilpin 165, Stevens 128, Haley 112, Hanscom 155, and Wood 145.

Keith Barker First In Talent Contest

Keith Barker, sophomore from Portland, was named winner of the $25 first prize in the talent contest last night at Villard hall. Barker presented a juggling act for the winning skit.

Second and third prizes of $15 and $10 went to Chandler Stevens, magician, and Alyce Rogers and Max Peabody, dance team.

Warren Waldorf directed the contest while Charles Hulsten, George Root, Paul Kiepe, and Mrs. Ottilie Seyboit acted as judges. All contestants are asked to see John L. Casteel before the end of the week.

Purpose of the contest was to find talent in the fields of radio, dramatics, music, and speech for future University programs.

Coed Hoop Schedule

Schedule for women's basketball for this week is as follows: February 9: 4 o'clock—Alpha Xi Delta vs. Kappa Alpha Theta; 5 o'clock—Alpha Delta Pi vs. Alpha Omicron Pi; Hendricks hall vs. Delta Delta Delta.

February 10: 4 o'clock—Alpha Gamma Delta vs. Sigma Kappa; 5 o'clock—Chi Omega vs. Delta Delta Delta; Kappa Kappa Gamma vs. Gamma Phi Beta.

February 11: 5 o'clock: Orides vs. Alpha Xi Delta; Women's Co-op vs. Alpha Phi.

TO SPEAK AT ROSEBURG

Dr. C. L. Huffaker of the school of education will speak February 12 at Roseburg before the Douglas county principals' association on "Pupil Personnel." Systems of grading and handling class work will be included in his discussion.

Students to Make Ad Research for Oregon Emerald

A survey of Emerald advertisers is being conducted by Professor Frank Short's publishing classes. The survey is for the purpose of determining any deficiencies in the Emerald's service to its advertisers so that they may be eliminated.

Each of the students is assigned several merchants to interview and ask various questions concerning the extent they advertise and their reasons for advertising in campus publications.

The survey is considered valuable practical experience as well as an aid to the Emerald and other campus publications.

Landsbury Chosen To Give Music Talk

John J. Landsbury, of the University music school, has been chosen by deans of musical institutions throughout the country to read a paper on "Cultural Music Training" before the National Music Educators' conference in St. Louis. The conference will begin April 1.

Dean Landsbury has announced his acceptance of the invitation.

Ellis Lawrence to Serve on Committee

The notice of his appointment to the nominating committee of the Association of Collegiate Schools of Architecture was received recently by Ellis F. Lawrence of the art school.

He will serve on this committee along with Dean Everett Meeks of Yale and Dean Hunt Bosworth of Cornell.

Speech Classes To Enter Annual Jewett Contest

Speeches on "Men and Machines" by representatives of the extemporaneous speaking classes will be held Thursday, February 17, in competition for Jewett prizes.

Class members will do general reading on the topic "Men and Machines," and then, one hour before the contest starts, draw from a hot a sub-topic dealing with one specific phase of the problem. Contestants will have the hour to prepare their speeches. This is the first time the procedure has been used here.

The contest will be open to both men and women. Awards are $15, $10, and $5.

Men's Forum Slates Two Appearances

"The Farm Problem" is the topic of a discussion to be presented to the Lebanon Lions club Thursday by the men's public forum group. The team will appear before the Lebanon high school in the afternoon and in Sweethome in the evening, under the sponsorship of the chamber of commerce.

Making the trip will be George Hall, Charles Devereaux, Dean Ellis, and George Mackin. John L. Casteel, speech professor, will be in charge.

NOTED WRITER RETURNS

Robert Ormond Case, class of 1920, has just returned to Portland from a trip to Philadelphia where he discussed plans for his latest serial with editors of the Saturday Evening Post. "Wings North," now running in the Post, is one of his latest literary productions.

Metzger's Will Offers Chance Of Realty Chair

The University of Oregon appeared no closer to its goal of the establishment of a realty chair here, when the conditions of the will of Bernard L. Metzger, Portland realtor, who made the provisions for the chair's establishment, were revealed yesterday.

For the last week the hopes of the University ran high when informed that Mr. Metzger stated in his will that "provided certain conditions were not met," his entire estate of over $100,000 would be left to the University for the establishment of a chair of real estate.

The certain conditions are: if the nephews and nieces, as legal heirs to the estate, should die or see fit, then the entire estate would be turned over to the University of Oregon.

Women Return to 18th Century, Blue For Spring Apparel

The eighteenth century, the period of Louis XVI, and the color blue are highlights in new spring clothes, advised Miss Martha J. Mellinger, clothing instructor at the home economics building, yesterday.

Following the example of Dorothy Shavers, one of the foremost exponents of fashion and a vice-president of Lord and Taylor in New York, spring clothing is predominately blue. The color, a soft blue, and the lines of the new dresses are inspired by eighteenth century paintings and costumes, Miss Mellinger said.

The trend toward eighteenth century lines was first started by milliners who were influenced by eighteenth century painters. Among these are Wateau, Boucher, David, and Gainsborough. The hats and dresses of these painters and their time were definitely feminine, she declared.

Early Edition Added To Browsing Room

A 1612 edition of "Chrysostomi Opera" published in Greek at Eton, has recently been added to the browsing room collection, says Corwin V. Seitz, order clerk.

The volumes, eight in all, were purchased through the Pauline Potter Homer fund for beautiful books at the suggestion of Dr. E. C. A. Lesch of the English department.

Male and Female

It's time to mail a Valentine box of Candy if you Intend Doing so.

Here at Seymour's Cafe, exclusive agents in Eugene for the famous Van Dym Candy, we have the largest and freshest assortment of Valentine boxes for your selection.

Boxes 50c to $5.00

We pack for mailing free, except postage.

Del Rey Cafe

ANNOUNCES that its party room is available for student parties Friday and Saturday evenings.

Why not plan to hold your pledge or class dinner where Eugene's finest foods and service are found?

Phone 830 845 Willamette

The light that cheers

It's a friendly glow . . . that lighted Chesterfield. It brings pleasure and comfort to men wherever they are. That refreshing Chesterfield mildness . . . that appetizing Chesterfield taste and aroma...makes a man glad he smokes.

Weekly Radio Features
LAWRENCE TIBBETT
ANDRE KOSTELANETZ
PAUL WHITEMAN
DEEMS TAYLOR
PAUL DOUGLAS

Chesterfield

... they light the way to MORE PLEASURE