

THE HOT CORNER

By BILL NORENE

Water under the bridge: Headlines in the University of Oklahoma announce the entering of the Sooners into "big time" competition next fall with the Sooners' scheduling of Washington State college for a game December 3.

The Cougars are described as perennial football champions of the Pacific Coast conference. No doubt California, Washington, Stanford, and USC will be glad to hear of this.

Dr. Alfred Strauss tried to get Bill DeCorrevont to go out to the University of Washington, but now that Bill has decided to go to Northwestern, Bob Cahen, Washington Daily sports columnist, comes out in his column and says that the Huskies didn't want DeCorrevont so badly after all.

He quotes Frank Monkus, member of the Husky frosh, who opposed DeCorrevont in the Chicago high school championship game in 1936.

In it Monkus said: DeCorrevont was . . . plenty good . . . past the line . . . he's almost impossible to tackle. . . . But he's always running out of bounds when he saw he was going to be hit . . . a couple of us boys decided to see if he could take it . . . I hit him high, the full hit low, and the end piled in for good measure . . . they carried DeCorrevont off the field.

Short sport shots—The University of Washington hockey coach is a B.A. prof. . . . recently the Huskies lost to Gonzaga 18 to 1 . . . when John Wagner, Corvallis restaurant owner, missed the recent OSC-Washington series at Corvallis it was the first Oregon State game that he missed in 20 years . . . last year he, though barely able to move, climbed out of a hospital bed to see one of the OSC home series.

The Idaho Argonaut certainly fixed some of our boys up . . . in telling how tall our reserves are they added an inch to Ted Sarpola's height and said that Matt Pavalunas was 6 foot 4 inches . . . oars as used in college racing shells are hollow and made of cedar . . . WSC placed two boxers on last year's all-American boxing team, while Idaho's Vandals placed one.

Iowa lost 13 athletes through ineligibility the past week . . . an article in the Northwestern Daily tells about two University of Oregon freshmen, Dallas and Wetmore, cracking coast conference marks. . . . Both the California and Stanford student body presidents are first basemen on their varsity baseball teams.

Alpha Tau Omega's squad ran right over Delta Upsilon and into the division championship yesterday, 38 to 10.

The Hotelmen jumped into an early lead, and easily pulled away from the DUs. Baskets by Anderson, Graybeal, and Hay ran up a 12 point lead in the first quarter, while the frantic DUs were unable to score. They managed to sink one basket in the half, meanwhile holding the ATOs to a 19 to 2 lead at the half.

Aqua Ducklings Tackle Uni High Tomorrow Noon

Co-Captains Dallas, Wetmore Will Lead Team Wednesday

University of Oregon's frosh swimming team opens its schedule Wednesday evening at 7:30 in the University pool when it clashes with University high school.

Pre-meet favorites, the freshman squad is composed of some of the most promising Duckling swimmers in years. Mainstays of the team will be Co-captains Jack Dallas and Sherman Wetmore.

Dallas was rated as the best high schooler in the 100-yard breast stroke last year by the NCAA. He comes from Long Poly.

Wetmore, also of Long Beach Poly, was one of the best backstrokers in high school competition. Wetmore is getting in condition for a try at the state AAU title in the back stroke which has been won for the past few years by Fred Rossiter of Multnomah club.

Marnie Outstanding Third outstanding man is Jim Marnie from Honolulu, who is following the footsteps of the Hawaiian boys, Hurd and Sexton, leaders of Oregon swim teams in the past.

Elmer Mallory, brother of the varsity sprinter, is the only frosh diver. Wilson and Keller will in the middle distances.

University high school, coached by Leonard Scroggins, will put out a strong team against the frosh. Gerald Huestis, state high school champ in the 100-yard backstroke, will give Wetmore a hard battle. His brother, Ralph, was one of the state's best high school paddlers in the 100-yard breast stroke and will offer plenty of competition for all-American Dallas.

Other swimmers for the Uni outfit are Dick Smith, John Merrell, Alan Gard, Lambers, Hoffman, Sargent, and Young.

Oregon State Downs Ducks In Local Pool

Cathey Beats Myers; R. Lafferty Wins at Breaststroke; Only Webfoot Firsts

Oregon's sophomore swimming team lost its season's first dual meet Saturday afternoon when Oregon State turned the Webfoots under, 48 to 27.

It was the first defeat in intercollegiate dual meets that any Hoyman coached Duck team has experienced. Oregon's last defeat was in 1933.

Ralph Cathey, Oregon's promising soph diver, turned in a stellar performance to grab first place honors from his teammate, Bert Myers. Ralph Lafferty in the breast stroke took the only other first place for Oregon.

Brownell, Brugger High Brownell and Brugger of the Beavers were high point for the meet with 11 1/2 points each. Brownell walked off with both 100 and 220 yard free-style events. As anchor man in the 440 yard free style relay, he cut down Oregon's lead and nosed out Jim Smith to add 7 points to his team's total.

Brugger won the 60-yard free style sprints, the 150-yard back stroke, and also swam in the 440-yard free style relay.

The 60-yard free style was anyone's race from start to finish. Brugger nosed out Jim Smith and Pierce Mallory with a burst of speed in the last few yards. The 100-yard dash was close, too, with Brugger edging out Smith for first place.

Burns Walks Away The biggest walkaway was the 440-yard free style race in which Burns of OSC finished a lap ahead of Jim Levy and two laps ahead of Tom Hayashi. Burns took a wide lead at the start, so Levy clackened his pace and coasted in for second place.

The only fast time was in the 300-yard medley relay.

Summary of the meet is as follows:

300-yard medley relay: Won by OSC (Vogland, Rea, Koski). Time, 3:19.9.

220-yard free style: Won by Brownell, OSC; Burns, OSC, second; Levy, Oregon. Time, 2:27.3.

60-yard free style: Won by Brugger, OSC; Smith, Oregon, second; Mallory, Oregon, third. Time, 31.8.

Diving: Won by Cathey, Oregon, 404.2; Myers, Oregon, second, 394.1; Edwards, OSC, third, 345.4.

100-yard free style: Won by Brownell, OSC; Smith, Oregon, second; Koski, OSC, third. Time, 57.5.

150-yard back stroke: Won by Brugger, OSC; Vogland, OSC, second; Coleman, Oregon, third. Time, 1:49.

200-yard breast stroke: Won by Lafferty, Oregon; Rea, OSC, second; Stewart, Oregon, third. Time, 2:42.1.

440-yard free style: Won by Burns, OSC; Levy, Oregon, second; Hayashi, Oregon, third. Time, 5:42.2.

400-yard free style relay: Won by Oregon State (Koski, Hillison, Brugger, Brownell).

Vandal Ringmen Slate Meet With San Jose State

Idaho Coach Rates California Crew Tops in South

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Moscow, Feb. 14.—Some of the best collegiate boxers in the entire west will exchange punches here February 17 when the University of Idaho ring team defends its reputation against dangerous invaders from San Jose State college in California.

The card will be the first between the two teams, but not the first time their men have clashed. Idaho men know how capable the California fighters are, having mixed with them several times in tournaments. One of the San Jose State boxers is a Pacific coast intercollegiate champion, and several of his teammates are rated as contenders for coast titles this year.

August Predicts

Louise August, youthful Idaho coach, predicts that the national intercollegiate team title will won this spring by San Jose State, Washington State, or Idaho. The two latter schools finished first and second, respectively, last year.

Final selections for the Idaho team will not be made until next week. Best guesses follow: 119 pounds—Captain Ralph Miller, Moscow; 129—Dale Fitzpatrick, Moscow; 139—Julian Benoit, Portland, Ore; 149—Jow Fallini, Mackay; 159—Milton Osterhout, Declo; 169—Alex Passi, Moscow; 179 arl Killian, St. Maries; and heavyweight—Ross Sundberg, Idaho Falls.

Gale Breaks Record Held by Palmberg; 7 Free Throws Do It

Junior Forward Has Six Games to Set Real Record; Failed to Get Field Goal Against University of Idaho's Vandals

All hail the new northern division scoring record-holder!

He is Laddie Gale of Oregon, and in only 14 games he cracked a mark which has withstood the attacks of other basket bombardiers in the northern loop since 1935.

Coach Hobby Hobson's gangling ace, although failing to hit a single field goal in Saturday night's game with Idaho, canned seven free throws from the gift line to surpass Wally Palmberg's total of 187 by two. The Oregon Stater's record was established under the old 16-game season.

Held to only eight points by Bill Kramer of Idaho Friday night, Gale needed but five points to tie Palmberg's record when he trotted onto the floor Saturday night, but once again Kramer was riding him hard. He found field goals harder to hit than match heads at 40 paces.

With a minute to go, "The Lad" had tied the coveted all-time mark with his fifth straight conversion. Then, with Oregon trailing by two points, Gale was fouled again, and he calmly stepped up to the key-hole and bucketed both attempts to write his name alongside that of Ed Lewis, Palmberg, and other point-minded greats in the pages of northern division annals.

With only a few seconds remaining and the score knotted at 34-all, a foul was called on Gale, his fourth personal of the game, and Willis Bohman, Idaho sub, sank the toss that beat the Webfoots for the second straight night, 35 to 34. Friday night the Vandals won 33 to 28.

Gale has six games left in which to add to his total and set a greater high for himself and other hopefuls to shoot at next year.

The tall sharpshooter's feat in surpassing previous marks in the scoring department, was little solace for Hobson, however, as the Ducks tumbled out of first place in the championship chase for the first time this year.

Ducklings Prepare for Lumberjack Series Saturday

Anyone watching John Warren's frosh work out in the Igloo yesterday would have been in doubt whether it was a dancing or skating party. The Igloo floor had been waxed for the Senior Ball Saturday night and the big Ducklings had trouble keeping their position vertical.

The frosh, having won the two OSC games over the weekend are in training to meet the powerful Longview high school quintet in Longview Saturday. The youthful Oregonians took the Rooks here Friday with a 51 to 31 score and then nosed out the Orange team at Corvallis Saturday with a 46-to-41 win.

Archie Marshik, big Duckling center, led all scorers with 27 points for the two games. Earl Sandness bucketed 23 counters for second place honors.

Team Drilled

Warren drilled the team in taking the ball off the backboard and in shooting. Sandness, Marshik, and Allen, the tail boys of the squad, were given most attention by the Duckling mentor. A short scrimmage session was also held, but the floor was too slick for fast playing.

Sandness received an injury on his weak knee in the game Saturday night and had it tightly bandaged in scrimmage yesterday. It did not, however seem to keep the Astoria lad from dumping in the baskets.
