

Oregon's Northern Division Champions to Head South For Title Go With 'Luisetti'

Webfoot Hoopsters Leave Wednesday for San Francisco; Will Meet Twice Crowned Indians Friday in Series Opener

Oregon's northern division basketball champions Wednesday night board the Cascade Limited for San Francisco where they will meet Stanford's whooping Indians, better known as Hank Luisetti and Co., in the first game of the coast title series Friday night. The Ducks leave at 9:15 p.m.

The two division crown-wearers will hop over to Palo Alto, the home camping grounds of the Indians, for the second game of the series Saturday, and if a third is necessary to decide the championship of the coast, it will be played also at Palo Alto Monday night.

Confident that his boys will uphold northern division hoop prestige, Hobson last night voiced the feelings of his entire squad. "I think that we play better basketball up here, and while they've got a good team, I think we've got a better one."

The problem facing Coach Hobson is the little matter of stopping the "Signor of Swish," Mr. Angelo "Hank" Luisetti. The Indian "chief" set a new national four-year high-scoring record of 1550 points in his last game of his college career Saturday night, and has been stopped only on very rare occasions in his four years of college basketball.

OSC Stopped Luisetti
Slat Gill, crafty Oregon State coach, and his 1935 Beavers stopped him cold at Seattle in the Olympic playoffs and kicked Stanford clear out of the picture. Gill used an effective zone defense that kept the swarthy Frisco Italian bottled up tighter than the French keep champagne. He scored only five points in this game.

The genial maestro of McArthur court basketball, Coach Hobson, plans to use much the same strategy in the Golden Gate city and at Palo Alto. He will depend upon his newly developed "floating zone" which the Ducks have used effectively in the last half of the northern division season.

Gale Rests
Only Laddie Gale, new northern division scoring-record holder was on the sidelines at yesterday's first practice session in preparation for the Indian series. Gale is taking things easy favoring a back injury, suffered in the Oregon State game—the result of a kick—but Mentor Hobson hopes to have him ready for the crucial games.

Hobson last night named a traveling squad of 10 or 11 men, de-

February Sets Spring Record For Library

Spring has definitely taken a hand in the number of books used in the University library, Miss Bernice Rise, circulation librarian, observed. Final exams, she said, are also a factor in the general circulation decline noted for the last part of the month of February.

A circulation decline is to be expected in the spring she has found, but the number of books checked out for the month of February this year exceeds that of last year by 1162 books in the circulation department alone. The number of books checked out in February, 1937, was 12,720, and 13,882 this year.

The largest number of books circulated during the month were taken out the first week.

pending upon whether Bob Hardy's fractured ankle was healed sufficiently to allow him to play. Hardy donned Webfoot toggery last night and loosened up with the varsity, and may go south with the team.

The regular traveling squad, composed of Bobby Anet, Wally Johansen, Slim Wintermute, Laddie Gale, Dave Silver, Ray Jewel, Ford Mullen, John Dick, Matt Pavlunas, and Ted Sarpola are set for the trip.

Indians Favored
The Indians will go into the game as slight favorites over the Webfoots mainly because of Captain Hank, left forward and six-foot-three of basketball wizardry.

At the other forward will be Phil Zonne, another tall lad; at center, Art "Stork" Stoenen, and a hot-and-cold performer; and at guards, Jack "Spook" Calderwood, and H. B. Lee.

'Big-Time' Broadcast By Orchestra Sunday

The long-anticipated "big-time" broadcast of the University symphony orchestra, directed by Rex Underwood, will be given over the red network of the National Broadcasting company from 2:30 to 3 p.m. next Sunday.

The 65-piece group, with George Hopkins, professor of music at the University, as featured soloist, and John J. Landsbury, dean of the music school as speaker, will present the concert in the University music auditorium. The public is invited to attend, with no charge for admission.

Opening with Smetana's "Dance of the Comedians," and concluding with the fandango from "Caprice Espagnole" by Rimsky-Korsakow, the program will include numbers which are interesting and delightful to all concert-goers.

Repeating his performance in the recent concerto program of the symphony orchestra, Mr. Hopkins will be at the piano in the rondo from the famous and ever-pleasing Beethoven "Emperor" concerto.

The string orchestra is scheduled to play the prelude to the "Deluge" by Saint-Saens. Mollie Bob Small, violinist, will be soloist.

A selection which has been played several times by the orchestra, and always gladly received by an audience is the Wolf-Ferrari "Jewels of the Madonna" from which the group will play the intermezzo.
