

Thetas Will Entertain Officer; Two Dances Hold Social Spotlight

The opening festivities on this term's social calendar will be Gamma Alpha Chi's annual spring formal Saturday, April 2 in McArthur court and a campus dance will be held Friday afternoon under the auspices of the YWCA to choose the "Man of the Hour."

Kappa Alpha Theta will honor their grand president, Mrs. D. Bligh Grasett from Winetka, Illinois, at a reception Sunday from 4 until 6 at the chapter house.

The heads of all living organizations and a few faculty and townspeople have been invited by the active members to attend.

In the receiving line will be the house president, Betty Crawford, Mrs. Jane Blair, Dean Hazel P. Schwering, Miss Betty Robb, Mrs. Alice Macduff, and Miss Helen Peters.

Pouring in the dining room between 4 and 5 will be Mrs. Brachlebank and Mrs. DeBusk; between 5 and 6 will be Mrs. Clara Fitch and Mrs. Karl W. Onthank.

Active members and alumni will assist about the rooms.

Mrs. Grasett arrives on April 1 and will stay until April 3, coming here from the Theta chapter at Oregon State. She will be entertained on Friday night at a dinner at the Theta house. On Saturday, she has had appointments scheduled with officers in the house, Dean Schwering, and campus people.

Committee Acts As Hostesses

The Queen's committee for Junior Weekend will play hostess at a tea Monday at 4:30 in alumni hall for all potential candidates for queen and princesses.

This year out of the total number of candidates that are put up by each living organization, a selection committee composed of five boys and five girls picked at random, and three members of the art school faculty will judge the nominees, chosen for their poise and beauty, who will appear at the tea.

The list will then be cut down to five girls who will be voted on by the campus for the honor of being queen.

Fraternity Honors Founder's Day

Phi Delta Theta celebrated their Founder's Day Wednesday by a joint dinner with the Oregon State chapter. Upperclassmen journeyed to Corvallis and the Oregon State underclassmen came to Eugene.

Desserts of the week were on Wednesday night: Sigma Phi Epsilon and Pi Beta Phi; Sigma Chi,

Ruth Tawney

COED OF THE WEEK

If work has anything to do with making dreams come true Ruth Tawney, 21-year-old foreign trade student, will start realizing some of hers soon after she graduates from the University next year. Miss Tawney is at present the only young woman in the foreign trade school. Having a head for business but not caring for the monotonous routine attached to most of it she chose this field not so much for the money that was in it but the opportunity to travel and see something.

After graduating from the University she hopes to get a scholarship in an eastern college. After that—well she hopes to go into either the civil service and consular work or stenographic work in an importing or exporting house. Those are the ambitions of this attractive red-headed girl who has been totally self-supporting most of the time in school.

Coeds Should Work

She thinks that every coed should work at least part of the time to get some idea of the value of money as well as some degree of independence. The effort to evade reality she believes persists among most women students.

Her friends and professors believe that she will be able to accomplish what she sets out to do. Her short life has been like that.

Summer vacations have been filled with a variety of different jobs. She has assisted in a dental office, worked at a switchboard, done office work, acted as a companion to an old maid school teacher, and taught archery. And why archery?

Archery Champion

Archery is a pastime that Ruth has taken seriously and done well in. She was state champion for four years and Northwest champion in 1935. She had to give up championship shooting because it was such a strain along with her studies and work. She plans on going out for intramural archery next week, there being no distinction between professional and non-professional shooting. She will use the tackle that her father always makes for her.

The Tawney family is typical. Ruth has a younger sister who has seen too many shows or read too many funny papers and dotes on pulling the little-sister act when big sis' boy friend arrives. If the boy friend is a favorite of (Please turn to page seven)

Campus Romeo To Be Chosen At 'Time Trip'

Have you met the "Man of the Hour?" Who is he? Who are his minute men, Tick and Tock? These questions will be swered Friday afternoon, April 1, when the sophomore commission of the YWCA sponsors "Time Trip." This dance is replacing the annual "Heart Hop" formerly sponsored by the group, and will be held from 3 until 5 o'clock in the living rooms of the Alpha Chi Omega, Kappa Kappa Gamma and Pi Beta Phi sororities.

Admission will be 25c per couple, and each admission ticket gives the couple two ballots on which they may vote for the "Man of the Hour" and his "Minute Men." Voting will take place from 3 until 4 o'clock, and at 4:15 the coronation will be held at the Alpha Chi Omega house.

Each fraternity is donating one of its "most wonderful" lads as a candidate for the occasion. The list to date consists of Woodrow Everett, Alpha Tau Omega; Matt Pavalunas, Beta Theta Pi; Martin Rieg, Chi Psi; Howard Tomasi, Delta Tau Delta; Jack McGirr, Delta Upsilon; John Keyes, Kappa Sigma; Al Hunt, Phi Delta Theta; George Smith, Phi Gamma Delta; George Varoff, Phi Kappa Psi; George Knight, Phi Sigma Kappa; Harold Faunt, Pi Kappa Alpha; Dick Litfin, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Burton Barr, Sigma Alpha Mu; Charles Eaton, Sigma Chi; Wally Johansen, Sigma Nu; Paul Rowe, Sigma Phi Epsilon; Bill Vermillion, Theta Chi; and Forrest Landeen, all-dorm.

"Time Trip" will be a boy-date affair, contrary to the past-method, and tickets are now on sale in all the boys' houses.

The committee from the Sophomore commission is headed by Peggy Robbins, and includes Anna Marie Huffaker, Ruth Richardson, Carolyn Dudley, Virginia Brown, Leah Puppo, Ethel Lofstedt, Joan Murphy, Jean Kendall, Marjorie Montgomery, Barbara Espy, Ellamae Woodworth, and Harriet Sarazin. Tock? The questions will be an-
