

Classes Split On Policies to Change Vote

Sophomores Adopt Benson's Election Plan; Freshmen Refuse to Vote

The "joint session" meeting of the freshman and sophomore classes last night to vote upon Noel Benson's reorganization bill for campus politics resulted in a split in policy of the two classes.

The sophomores, following an explanation by Class President Dick Litfin, voted to amend their constitution adopting the plan except for a minor alteration in regard to members on the class election board.

Frosh Refuse Vote

The freshmen, upon hearing the plan with its provision of suspending card sales five days before election, refused to bring the question to vote. Class President Gleason Payne said last night that the proposal would again be brought before the class before elections May 5.

Under ASUO Vice-President Benson's plan, class elections and ASUO elections would be held the same day, May 5. The plan would

(Please turn to page seven)

Double-Dating Preferred by Cal Students

By ALYCE ROGERS

Double-dating is highly favored by students at the University of California, according to a recent survey taken concerning "Boy Meets Girl." Sixty per cent of both sexes favor this institution; 40 per cent turn thumbs down. The reasons are logical and revealing. The men favor this type of dating in order to cut down on the financial overhead, such as gas, parking, etc. Women favor it because of the added protection obtained. "Lone wolves are more dangerous," said one coed, in summing up the situation; then again, it always depends.

Love Poem

Joe's gal has lots of dough;
Mine is poor—but she's gentle and sweet.
Joe's gal has a figure like Venus;
Mine's built like a truck—but is hard to beat.

Joe's gal has class and clothes;
While mine is common—but good.

D'ya think I'd trade my gal for his?

You're doggone right I would.
Bill—(Indiana Daily.)

Definitely...

"I think final examinations are a waste of time, for I find that very few students have changed their semester grade by taking a final. The time spent on those exams could be better used for further study." Purdue University's Prof. Seibert Fairman states a view held by exam-bother students for many a year.

Let 'Em Eat Cake

President Erb, Pat Brugman, and Clayton Ellis . . . to raise funds for sending Oregon debaters to Reno, a campaign will be launched to make the campus "snowball" conscious.

Oregon Mothers to Meet on Campus For Business Session and Luncheon

Mothers from all over the state will gather here today for a regular quarterly meeting of the state board of Oregon Mothers, converging on Gerlinger hall at 10 o'clock this morning.

The mothers, headed by Mrs. Lillian Greenwood of Portland, president of the group, will hold a business meeting and inspect the campus. They will be served lunch at noon by the YWCA girls at the Y hut.

The meeting is one of the two quarterly meetings held on the campus each year, the other two quarterly gatherings being held in Portland.

No entertainment is planned for the meeting except for the tour of the campus, according to Mrs. Dan E. Clark, president of the Eugene chapter of Oregon mothers. The conference is for today only.

It is expected that part of the business meeting will be concerned with plans for Junior weekend.

15 Coeds Named Queen Candidates

Committee May Add To List; Cumulative Vote to Be Used

Fifteen girls, representing as many girl's houses, were named candidates for queen of Junior weekend as the first list of selections was announced last night by the queen selection committee appointed Wednesday by Zane Kemler, junior class prexy.

Girls named were: Kay McAlear, Alice Rogers, Elizabeth Ann Jones, Mary Elizabeth Norvell, Virginia Regan, Peggy Reavis, Blanche McClellan, Mary Frances Henderson, Betty Crawford, Marcia Steinhauer, Mary Sackett, Ruth Tawney, Mary Ellen Williams, Jacqueline McCord, and Lorraine Hunt.

To this list the committee may add any other girls it feels should be included. But, said Chairman Harry Clifford last night, "No names have been added as yet."

The candidates will appear in sport clothes and high heels in the alumni lounge in Gerlinger Monday night when all but five will be eliminated. The chosen five will then be submitted to popular vote Tuesday.

A cumulative system of voting will be inaugurated for Tuesday's election, according to Zane Kemler. Holders of ASUO or Junior class cards will be eligible to vote, Kemler said, with those holding both cards being allowed two votes.

Doc Says Head Of Lettuce Is Love-Bug Cure

In the spring, tra la, Casanova's thoughts lightly turn to love. "Maybe so," says Dr. Fred N. Miller, director of the University health service, "but if so, it's caused by a superfluity of spuds and flapjacks in the winter diet."

Paupers, children, and morons eat too many carbohydrates and fats during the winter months, forgetting vitamins, according to Dr. Miller. By spring their systems are well run down and the ensuing melancholia is blamed on the coo of the doves, the odor of wild flowers, and euphonic buzz of yellow-jackets.

The moral is: eat a head of lettuce a day and the love bug won't getcha.

More Fans at Hoop Games This Year

Ticket sales to the basketball games this season showed a slight increase over that of last year, Mr. E. R. Walker of the ticket office revealed last night.

Whereas the largest drawing series last year was the Oregon vs. Washington games, this year it was the Idaho series. Mr. Walker attributes this to the standings of the two teams at the time of the games.

Women's Honorary To Hold Breakfast At Osburn Sunday

Spring term pledges of Phi Chi Theta, women's national business administration honorary, will be entertained at a Sunday morning breakfast at the Osburn hotel, following the initiation of their eleven pledges.

Pledges for spring term are Doris Hanson, Jean Bonness, Florence Sanders, Dorothy R. Clark, Barbara Keep, Irma Helikson, Doris Imus, Pearl King, Jean Hewitt, Ruth V. Tawney, and Phoebe Breyman.

Kirby Page Says War Causes Dictatorships

"If we are to deal with dictators effectively," said Mr. Page, "we a solid, positive program of war prevention—that is the belief of Kirby Page, world-famous author and lecturer, who spoke at the assembly in Gerlinger hall Thursday morning at 10.

"If we are to deal with dictators effective," said Mr. Page, "we must understand what produced dictators and their aggressive policies." The major event that produced the authoritarian position of Hitler was the determination of the allies at the end of the war to make themselves safe, and convert Germany into a weak, third-rate power.

"War in our day," he said, "is the worst evil there is. It is a combination of all the major evils of our time," including dictatorship.

It is a fallacy that we can protect democracy by setting up wartime dictatorship," he declared. Mr. Page also warned his listeners against the dangers that may be brought on by propaganda and isolation.

(Additional details, page three.)

Creighton Hits Homer to End Tie for Ducks

Kato, Hardy Knock Triples, Beard Gets Double as U. of O. Wins Close Game

A long ninth-inning home run from the bat of Pitcher Bob Creighton gave Oregon's Webfoots a non-conference win over Portland university in the season's opener on Howe field yesterday afternoon, 5 to 4.

Creighton, who relieved southpaw Bob Hardy in the fifth inning, pitched two-hit ball to the end, and won his own game by breaking a 4 to 4 tie.

Oregon collected five hits off Bill O'Donnell and relief chucker Baker, while the Pilots touched Hardy and Creighton for only four.

Triples Hit

Masa Kato and Hardy, with triples, and Bob Beard, with a double, all got extra-base hits for Oregon. Wimpy Quinn, right fielder, got Oregon's only single, a line-grounder past third base in the first inning.

Creighton struck out six in his five innings on the mound, and O'Donnell whiffed five. The teams move to Portland today for another game.

(Additional details on page 4.)

Igloo Staff Is Day Too Early, Claims Oliver

The warm Oregon sunshine the past few days may have affected genial Coach "Tex" Oliver to the extent of making him absent minded. At least this was the impression of observers who passed by his office yesterday.

On one of the windows of his office was a large college sticker reading, "Arizona Wildcats."

Coach Oliver, however, maintains that the office force at the Igloo forgot the date and tried to play an April fool joke on him.