

Frosh Nine Blasts Uni-High, 13-0, in Opener

Ducklings Hammer Three Hurlers; Will Play Lebanon Today

By LYLE NELSON

The frosh baseball season officially opened yesterday when the yearling squad met and defeated a game but out-classed University high team, 13 to 0.

The Ducklings will play again today when they meet the Lebanon high school team in a double-header starting at 1 o'clock.

Coach Warren did not disclose the starting lineup, but it is likely that the same team that started the Uni high game will be used.

Not only did the Ducklings hold the Golden Tide scoreless, but pitchers Alvin Anderson, Orlando Allègreto, and Pete Igoe held the Uni-Hi hitters to but two safe blows. These were by Perin in the first innig and Lyons in the second.

The Duckling pitchers struck out nine of the Tide's hitters, while the Uni-Hi pitchers whiffed eight yearlings. Leonard Gard led the Tide's pitchers with five strikeouts, while Anderson of the Ducklings whiffed four Tidemen.

The University high team showed many flashes of power, but was weak in the pitching staff. The three pitchers, Procknow, Gard and Bullion hurled brilliant ball but tired after an innig or two.

To Elmer Mallory, Junction City's hard-hitting shortstop went the honor of getting the first Duckling blow of the season, a hard hit single past third base in the first innig.

Quentin Earl, centerfielder of the frosh team led the hitting with two hits out of three trips to the plate.

The much-publicized battle between Frosh Coach "Smoky" John Warren and Ray "Dizzy Dean" Hendrickson failed to materialize. Warren was out of town, on purpose, Hendrickson claims.

*Score	R	H	E
Uni-Hi	0	2	5
Frosh	13	8	0

Batteries: for Uni-Hi, Procknow, Gard, Bullion and Emmons; for frosh, Anderson, Allègreto, Igoe and Rathbun, Hufford, Collier.

*Game called after six innings because of darkness.

OLIVER IN PORTLAND

Head Coach G. A. "Tex" Oliver yesterday traveled to Portland for his third speaking appearance there since he was appointed to his present position. This time he addressed the Washington High School Dad's council and the associated students.

He is expected to resume duties early today.

UO GRADS ON PAPER

The University of Oregon is well represented on the staffs of the two newspapers in Twin Falls, Idaho, where these grads are employed: Algot Westergren, Varvin Lupton, Bob Warner, and Gerald Chrisman.

Sun Beams as Bill Bears Down; Sophs Big Cinder Camp 'If'

With champions studding an otherwise sophomore-dominated track roll, Colonel Bill Hayward ordered martial law in the Duck cinder camp for the season's duration yesterday as he began putting the edge on the Webfoot track tqaud for the opening of the regular season April 16.

While a beaming sun peeped out of the Oregon sky to loosen stiff and sore muscles, Hayward sent his entire track troupe through one of their hardest workouts to date.

Holland Returns

Although strengthened by the return of big Len "Dutch" Holland, coast champion discus thrower to school, the Webfoots will be an uncertainty as far as championship caliber is concerned until the many sophomores on the squad have proven themselves under fire, the leathery-visaged Haywar indicated.

Sigma Chi Churners Squeeze Out 25 to 24 Win Over Phi Delts

Short Breast Stroke Race Proves Costly as Winners Take First Two Places; Annex Donut Championship

By EUGENE SNYDER

The Sigma Chi boys sent up a cheer yesterday afternoon at the men's pool when their intramural swimming team splashed out a close 25-24 win over Phi Delta Theta for the donut tank title.

The Phi Delts started out with a win in the 40-yard free style, when Magill did the stretch in 0:20.5. Hanson, Sigma Chi, was second, and Lewman, Phi Delt, third, making the score 6 to 3. McKeown of Sigma Chi won the 40-yard back stroke in 10:25.7, but Hickson and Magill of Phi Delts took second and third to maintain the lead, 10 to 8.

Short Race Costly

It was the breast-stroke 40-yard race that the Phi Delts met their Waterloo, taking only third place. E. Hansen placed first and Hannifin second for the Sweethearts, time 0:28. Score was then Sigma Chi, 16 to 11.

The 120-yard medley relay team from the barn made the six laps in 1:13 to make the score 18 to 16 for Sigma Chi. Holmes, Magill, and Lewman were the winning trio.

Sigma Chi cinched the title in the 60-yard individual medley, Hannifin winning over Holmes by less than a length. The score was now 23-19, the game sewed up.

Lewman, Hickson, and Holmes from Phi Delta Theta won the 120-yard free style relay in 1:05.2. Score: Sigma Chi 25, Phi Delta Theta 24.

Holland's return jumps the list of champions on Colonel Bill's team to three. The other two are dusky Mack Robinson and George Varoff. Varoff holds the world's indoor pole vault record at 14 feet 4 1/2 inches and once held the outdoor record at the 14 foot, 6 inch ceiling.

Robinson, the lithe negro Olympian, is just about the nearest thing to a one-man track team in the books. He has run the century in 9.7 seconds; the 220 in 21; the 440 in less than 50; the 220 low hurdles in 24 flat; and can run the high hurdles if necessary. In addition to his prowess on the cinder lanes, he has broad-jumped 25 feet, 5 inches and high jumped the 6-foot mark.

Then the Sophs

Right there the parade of champions ends, and Haywards sophomores begins, mingled with a smattering of lettermen. Out of six distance men, four are sophomores and rated comers by Colonel Bill.

Don Barker, Bob Mitchell and Bob Neese, all sophomores head the mile corps, while Wayne Mackin will be one of the two milers along with Letterman Crawford Lyle and Reserve Jack Davidson, a senior.

The half-mile will be another race where a sophomore holds sway. Kirman Storli, who has run the two laps in 2:01, is a powerful runner who can run any race from a quarter up.

Aiding the "Dusky Dynamo" in the sprints will be Jim Buck and Dean Ellis, sophomores, and Bob Fitchard, a one-year letterman.
