

Jeffmen Bunch Hits To Defeat Warren's Frosh by 7-2 Score

By BILL PHELPS

Behind the seven-hit pitching of Jack Richards, Jefferson high, Portland's defending champs, defeated the University frosh nine, yesterday, 7 to 2.

The preppers jumped the boat early, and in the first inning put a walk, an error by Haug, and singles by Clifford and Walker together for a pair of runs. They added two more in the second on successive doubles by Burns and Martenson, and Shimshak's fumble of Davis' grounder.

Warren's boys reached Richards in the first inning when Shimshak and Smith singled. Hamer sacrificed, but Shimshak was out at the plate on an attempted double steal. Knight singled to score Smith, and Yoshitomi was safe on an error, but the rally was cut short when he was thrown out attempting to take second.

Richard Tightens

Again in the third the Ducklings scored on a walk to Shimshak and singles by Smith and Hamer, but from there on Richards tightened up and allowed only one more hit in the last six innings.

In the seventh Jefferson scored again when singles by Richards and Clifford, and a triple by Kellenberger accounted for a pair. They added their other counter in the eighth on a double by Burns and Hamer's bobble of Allegretto's easy throw.

Poor base running cost the frosh at least a pair of runs, and loose fielding, coupled with four walks, kept Allegretto in hot water. He yielded ten hits to the Jeffmen, but seven were bunched for six runs in three big innings.

Burns was the big gun in the prep batting attack, getting two doubles in three trips to the plate. Hamer got a double and single in three trips for the frosh, and Smith collected a pair of base hits in four trips. The two teams tangle here today at 2 o'clock.

Summary: R. H. E.
Jefferson .....220 000 210—7 10 3
Frosh .....101 000 000—2 7 3
Batteries: Richards and Butenschein; Allegretto and Haug, Rathbun.

Frosh Netmen Meet Grant Hi in Opener

After three weeks of patient waiting and intensive practice, members of the Oregon freshman tennis team will get their first chance to blow off accumulated steam this afternoon, when they meet the Grant high school netmen from Portland on the campus courts at 2:30.

The starting lineup for the match is fairly certain, although the possibility of Dick Williams not playing in the No. 3 singles position became apparent yesterday when the swarthy Los Angeles lad lost a playoff match to Dick Phillipi. Williams stated that he did not wish to play today, but nothing definite was decided.

Duck Trackmen Hold 5 to 3 Edge Over Orangemen

Beavers Fail to Win Over Oregon Relay Team Since 1933

Colonel Bill Hayward's varsity cinder crew will carry a 5 to 3 advantage in meets won into the eleventh annual Oregon-Oregon State relays Saturday. The relays will be held on Hayward field.

In 1928 Oregon State copped the first relay meet between the two schools, but since then the track and field Beavers have been able to beat the Webfoots only twice.

Oregon captured its first win in 1929 only to have the Orangemen reverse proceedings the following year. Then came a two year Oregon tenure, with the Beavers breaking up the monopoly in 1933, the year of the NRA.

Orange Drought

Not since then have the Orangemen been able to crack the Oregon supremacy, although twice the two schools have tied.

The year 1934 saw the two schools split the relays, each team taking four races. Oregon won five out of the eight events in 1935, and seven out of ten in 1936.

Last year the two schools called it quits with each one in possession of five wins.

Originally only eight events, including the distance and sprint medley relays, were scheduled for the relays, but in 1936, officials added the shot put and high jump relays to give the field men something to work on.

This year the distance and medley relays have been scratched from the books because of danger of over-taxing athletes who were forced to "double up" in these races.

tions, Coach-manager George Humphreys, who is pinch-hitting for Washke, will probably start Len Clerk as No. 1 singles man, Dick Phillipi as No. 2, Bob Engelke, No. 4, and Lee Rennolds in the No. 5 spot.

In case Williams does not play, Engelke and Rennolds will probably be moved up a notch, and Estley Schick will assume the No. 5 position.

Challengers Cinch Cinder Squad Berths

Two challengers, Jim Schriver and Crawford Lyle, copped team places, and one of the challenged, Jack Davidson, retained his contested position on the "action-squad" yesterday as Coach Hayward finished lining up his track and field men for the 11th annual Oregon-Oregon State relays to be held on Hayward field Saturday.

Schriver who challenged Dean Ellis to a race for a place on the mile relay team, turned in his best performance of the year. He took command of the race from the start and finished strong to cover the 440-yards in 51.3 seconds.

Don Tower, challenged by Lyle, to a half-mile duel, gave the "bird-legged" letterman a battle all the way but lost his chance to run against Oregon State by five yards.

The only flat-racer able to withstand his challengers was Jack Davidson. The dark-haired miler paced a 4:42 mile to beat stocky Bob Neese.

Fourth man in the hurdles will still be Big Tim Eacutt, the red-haired transfer from Pasadena junior college. He sped over the high sticks to beat off the challenges of Bob Hochuli and Ted Gary.

Surprise of the day was the reversal of form of three of Bill Hayward's high jumpers. Stan Short, Bob Fitchard, and George Varoff earned the right to compete Saturday when they beat out Rod Hansen and Dutch Holland. Johnny Lindblom, husky transfer from California, was the only one of Saturday's four winners to retain his place. He cleared 5 feet 9 inches along with Short to lead the "airmen."
