

Radio Group Hits Problem Of Extension

Investigate Facilities, Angles of Future Broadcasts Over Network

Hammering at problems incidental to the extension of KOAC facilities here next year, the general radio committee of the University met Tuesday to investigate new angles and consider further some of the aspects of the new arrangement.

Naming a curriculum committee to plan the courses which will add nine new hours to the University course list next year, W. A. Dahlberg, chairman of the general committee, also announced another committee to plan the building of the programs which will be produced from the campus next year.

Curriculum Group Named

The curriculum committee will be headed by John L. Casteel of the speech department, and lists as other members Mrs. Ottilie Turnbull Seybolt, drama; Louis P. Artau, music; Charles M. Hulsten, journalism; A. L. Lomax, business administration, and D. E. Hargis, speech.

Chairman of the program building committee will be Paul Kiepe, instructor in speech and drama.

A line drive from a bunt,
The fellows on the field
Were ready to punt.
And now that I grasp
"Third down—two to go!"
The player is getting
What?—A free throw!

Contest Opens for Queen 'Snow White'

Saturday Is Last Day For Registration of Contestants

All candidates for "Snow White," queen of the freshman class, must be registered with Eddie Adams, Kappa Sigma, or Buzz Renick, Sigma Nu, co-chairmen of the popularity contest, not later than Saturday night, Dick Williams, co-chairman of the dance announced last night.

Each sorority and the two women's dorms are to pick one freshman girl from their organization and send or phone the name to Rennick or Adams, he said.

A group picture of all the queen candidates will be taken Monday by George Godfrey of the University news bureau. All contestants are requested to meet in his office in Friendly hall at 4 o'clock.

The candidates will be presented to the dancers at the Frosh Glee on April 29 and the one receiving the most votes will be chosen as "Snow White."

Ducks Open Against OSC Today; Official Ceremonies Planned

Queen Virginia Will Pitch the First Ball In Ducks' Opening Defense of Crown

Howard Hobson's boys are ready; so are Ralph Coleman's Staters. The chancellor, President Peavy of Oregon State college, Mayor Large of Eugene, Queen Virginia Regan of Junior weekend and her princesses—in fact, just about everyone in Eugene who can get away is lined up and waiting for the zero hour to begin the 1938 conference season on Howe field this afternoon.

All the usual colorful opening day ceremonies have been arranged for the opening of the annual gonfalon quest, with a parade through town, Order of the O initiation, and pitching of the first ball with an all-star battery.

Parade to Be Held

Parading through town in a caravan of cars will be both teams, Chancellor Frederick M. Hunter, President Peavy of Oregon State, Mayor Large, and Queen Virginia with her royal court. The procession will be headed by the marching University band, and will begin at the depot down town, go up Willamette, and wind up at Howe field. The parade begins at 2 o'clock and will be directed by Skull and Dagger.

Queen Virginia Opens Game

At Howe field a program of pre-game activities will lead up to the game, with the dedication of the memorial gates to the field in a brief speech by Chancellor Hunter holding honor position. The Order of the O will initiate before the game in a baseball questionnaire.

Chucks Today

Queen Virginia . . . follows in Roosevelt's footsteps, throws the first ball in today's game at Howe field.

SCAVENGER HUNT TONIGHT

A scavenger hunt will be held by Westminster club tonight at 8. Committee for the hunt includes Hazel Lewis, chairman, Edna Carlsen, and Laura Bryant.

Five cents will be charged for refreshments.

Strong Beaver Outfit To Face Creighton; UO Men Ready for Title Defense

By GEORGE PASERO

Game time is 3:30. Following pre-game hullabaloo and opening day festivities, University of Oregon's northern division baseball champions will open the defense of their title today against the Oregon State Beavers on Howe field.

On the broad shoulders of burly Bob Creighton, husky transfer from Marin junior college, will fall the task of subduing what is termed as the best Orange club in years. In pre-season games this year, the Staters, under their new coach, Ralph Coleman, have been undefeated.

Beavers Start Takami

Ralph Takami, Japanese curveball expert, will walk out to the mound for Oregon State as the Ducks and the Beavers steal a five-day march on other northern division clubs.

Sporting new red and gray uniforms, the Ducks will be a favorite to break into the win column mainly because of the "million dollar" infield which Coach Hobby, Hobson will field.

Infield Named

Gale "Bush" Smith will be on the initial sack with Jack Coleman holding down second base; Jack Gordon at short; and Wellington "Wimpy" Quinn (he of the home run fame) at the hot corner.

Ford Mullen, versatile infielder, will take over his new duties behind the plate.

The outfield will be decidedly strengthened by the addition of three outfielders—John Yerby, Jimmy Nicholson, and Bob Smith—who will probably open in the outer gardens.

Belles of Eldorado

The twenty "best dates on the campus" . . . to be auctioned off at the AWS carnival tomorrow night.

Second Moot Court Frees Sid Milligan

A verdict for the defendant, Sid Milligan, was found by the jury of the University court last night in the second case of the law school's series of moot court trials. The jury had voted nine to three in favor of exoneration.

Milligan was defendant in a suit for damages to the extent of $600 brought by John Thomas, third year law student. Thomas claimed that he had suffered mental and physical injury as the result of a bat slipping from Milligan's hands during a softball game and striking him, Thomas, in the head.

Thomas was represented by neophyte attorneys, Alton McCully and Tallant. Greenough; Robert Mulvey and Harrison Winston were counsellors for Milligan.
