

Retailers to Meet May 2-3 For Institute

McArthur Court to Be Scene of Meetings, Displays, Speeches, Says Comish

Retail merchants from every section of Oregon will find their interest divided between actual experiences and real money-making ideas, presented by Oregon merchants, and expert's opinions on retail topics, when they meet on the University campus May 2 and 3. The program for the session, known as the second annual meeting of the Oregon Retail Distributors' Institute, is expected to attract a record attendance, it is declared by Dr. N. H. Comish, professor of business administration, and secretary of the organization.

The very latest in office equipment will be on display during the session, along with charts, graphs and tables on various phases of retailing, and part of the afternoon of the first day has been set aside for viewing the exhibit for which spacious quarters in McArthur court have been provided.

Banquet Will Be Highlight

High light of the session will be the annual banquet Tuesday evening, at which the Oregon Commercial Secretaries' organization will join with members of the institute. Three widely varied topics, each presented by outstanding speakers, will be on the program. Dr. Donald M. Erb, University president; John Moriarity, of the U. S. Department of Commerce; and W. B. D. Dodson, manager of the Portland chamber of commerce, will deliver addresses.

Prominent retailers in the state who will take part in the event include Harold Wendel, manager of Lipman, Wolfe, and company, of Portland, and president of the Retail Institute; Paul D. Green, T. W. Hickson, Ronald W. Blanton, H. R. Stroud, Arthur Hendershott, all of Eugene; Eric M. Stanford, Will Knight, Al Herndabler, E. N. Weinbaum, James Baker, G. R.

De Molays Will Make Tour of UO Library

De Molay convention delegates will make a tour of the new University of Oregon library on Saturday afternoon before attending the track meet.

Arrangements were made yesterday with M. H. Douglass, librarian, and Willis Warren, reserve librarian, for the group to see each department of the new structure with the exception of the Nash collection, which will not be opened to the public until May 3.

Walker, S. D. Buell, all of Portland; Deo McClain, Albany; Edward Bissell, Salem; and C. C. Farr, of Coquille.

Election of officers and other business will also be transacted by institute members during the session.

New Appointments For UO Employees Passed by Board

Four new appointments and advancements in positions among the faculty of the University were made Wednesday at the meeting of the state board of higher education.

Among the 81 new appointments in the state system of higher education, the following were given positions at the University of Oregon: Vera Powers, chief records clerk of the alumni association; Ruth Orrick, assistant records clerk in the alumni association;

Robert M. Lyon, professor of military science and tactics; Russel W. Barthell, assistant director in the bureau of municipal research.

SELLING JOBS TO OPEN

All college men interested in selling Realsilk hosiery during the summer, will be interviewed by appointment by Mr. Clem Brice, national college sales manager, at the employment office May 3.

A "war and peace" library numbering approximately 1,000 volumes has been given to Iowa State college by Carrie Chapman Catt, world famous woman suffragist.

Tonight's the NITE

Class of '41 Presents

Frosh Glee

with

DICK JURGEN'S ORCHESTRA

Tonight

CHESTERFIELD and PAUL WHITEMAN bring you preview coast-to-coast broadcast from New York '39 World's Fair

"Rhapsody in Blue"... thousands of happy dancers... a blaze of color... flags and costumes of every nation...

Light up your Chesterfield and join us in the preview of the New York 1939 World's Fair.

When it's Swing time at this great opening ball it'll be Chesterfield Time all over the country.

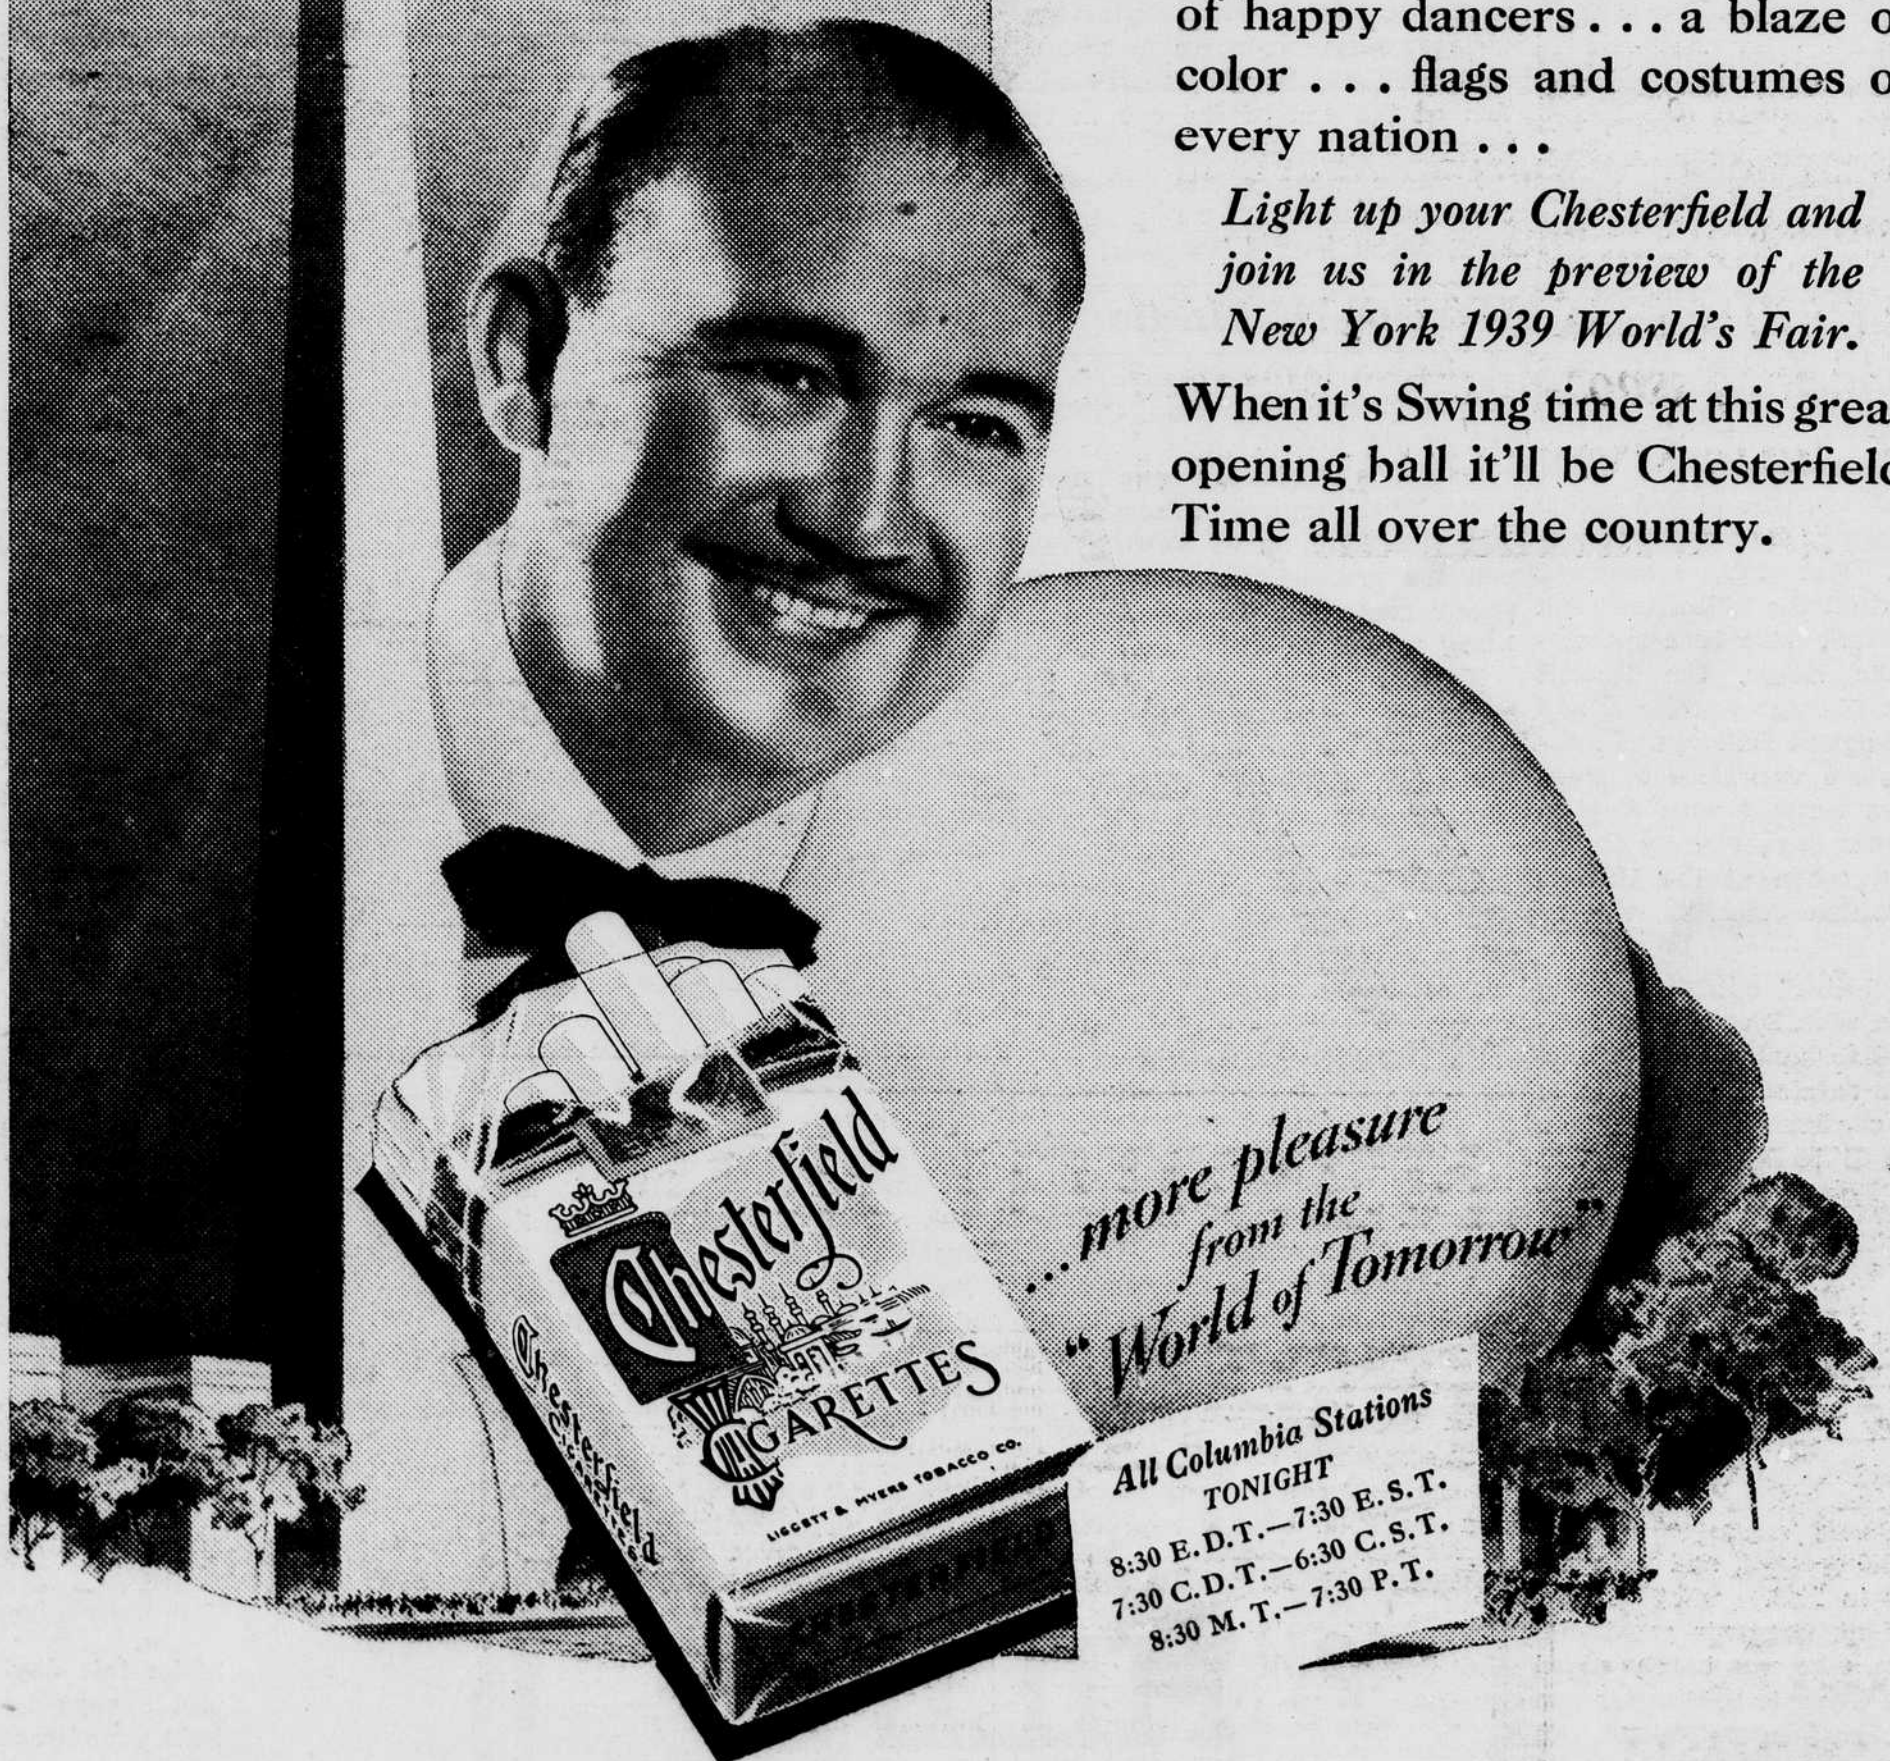

Save Your Eyes

Save Your 'Looks'

We observe a double responsibility to our patrons. First, we specify and provide glasses optically meeting your vision's needs. And then — we fashion the Glasses in Frames that augment the patron's appearance. And that is very important these days when appearance does mean so very much.

ELLA C. MEADE
OPTOMETRIST

14 W. Eighth St.

for more smoking pleasure everywhere
Chesterfield is the right cigarette... They Satisfy

Copyright 1938, LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.