

Professor Howard Will Speak at Peace Forums To Be Held on Campus

Final preparations were made yesterday for the program of constructive peace education that has grown out of the youth peace movement at the University of Oregon with the securing of Charles G. Howard, law school professor, as one of the faculty speakers on armament budgets.

All students at the University who wish to discuss or join the attempt to find methods of peace education may attend the series of forums on America's international policy, raw material and population pressure, and peace and war propaganda, to be held in Gerlinger hall beginning at 3 o'clock in the afternoon next Tuesday and Wednesday.

Assembly Speaker Contributes

Lieutenant-Commander Bryant, who is to speak at the ASUO assembly at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, will contribute the last phase of this united effort toward peace when he presents his observations on "The Far Eastern Conflict, the Causes, Consequences and Our Defense."

Tentative plans of the committee in charge of the movement provided for the addition of Dr. Calvin Crumbaker, economics professor, to the group for the consideration of armaments budgets.

Other faculty members who will take part with students in the conference are Dr. E. Hargis, Dr. Charles G. Howard, Dr. Calvin Crumbaker, Dr. James D. Barnett, Dr. Waldo Schumacher, Dr. E. H. Moore, Dr. W. D. Smith, A. L. Lomax, Dean Eric W. Allen, and Professor S. Stephenson Smith.

Marion DeKoning is chairman of the committee. Mrs. John Stark Evans, adviser of the YWCA; Francis Beck, YMCA adviser, and Dr. Victor P. Morris of the law school are assisting committee members.

Radio Comedienne Gracie Allen is offering a bearskin prize as an Award of Ingenuity to the man graduating from college with the lowest marks.

Beta Alpha Psi Will Hold Reunion Today

A reunion of the alumni and undergraduate members of Beta Alpha Psi, accounting honorary society, will be held on the campus today.

At a business meeting today at 4 o'clock, 14 undergraduates will be pledged to the honorary. They are: Garland Ganger, Leo Young, William Zimmerman, Carl Bryan, Wilson Siegmund, Hideo Kajikawa, Henry Spivak, DeLos Shinn, John Shiley, Karl Wester, Kenneth Reeves, Wade Hanson, Harold Faunt, and Roy McKnight.

Tonight at 5:30 the group will hold a banquet at McCrady's cafe with Calvin Crumbaker, professor of economics, as speaker. Professor Crumbaker will speak on "The Economic Effects of the Proposed Tax on Federal Employees and Federal Bonds."

San Diego State college has extension courses in navigation and nautical astronomy. Sailors, ahoy!

College handball players in Oregon have organized an Oregon State Intercollegiate handball league, one of the first of its kind in the United States.

Ex-Student Draws Fellowship Award

William Hall, graduate, '36, has won a preservice fellowship in public administration at the University of Minnesota for the school year 1938-39.

Hall was very prominent on the Oregon campus as an undergraduate. He was winner of the Albert and Koyl cups, was a Phi Beta Kappa, Friar, and is a brother of the present student body president, Barnard Hall. He has been a research assistant for the Bureau of Municipal Research since graduation.
