

DUCK TRACKS

By ELBERT HAWKINS

There's going to be dynamite wrapped up in today's dual track meet between Colonel Bill Hayward's Ducks and Washington State college.

Besides probably settling northern division dual meet honors, it's going to have a lot of personal fire.

Watch for anything to happen in the sprints where five possible first place men will compete. For Oregon Mack Robinson and Jim Buck will be pitted against Lee Orr, Mel Pettichord, and Carl Ledford of the Cougars.

The winner in the 100 and 220-yard dashes will probably have to beat 9.8 and 21 seconds to beat that mob.

"Lee Orr will beat Mack Robinson in the 440," said Washington State's Coach Karl Schlademan recently when told the Oregon negro flash might enter the longer dash.

"Furthermore," he added, "I'd be willing to put up money on that, if I had any. Robinson is no superman. Anyone who thinks he's going to mop up the northwest by taking first in the 100, 220, and 440 is crazy."

Which probably only makes Colonel Bill and his boy Mack laugh inwardly because they know that Schlademan is a worried coach.

George "The Mad Russian" Varoff gets another chance to earn his much-needed haircut. If he cracks the 14-foot ceiling you'll know that a two-week vow has been fulfilled.

If Colonel Bill Hayward's prognostications are to be taken on their merits (they should after his razor edge predictions of final scores) today's half-mile will be a scrap.

Hayward says it's fifty-fifty, and bets on Kerman Storli, husky Benson Tcheman, to come through for Oregon. Watch sophomore Boyd Brown, who throws the javelin minus a thumb. He beat Washington last Saturday with 190 feet, 5 inches, and is now threatening to crash 200 feet despite the handicap.

Railbirds who are asking whether Oregon and Tex Oliver will have a first division football team next fall may have that mystery partially or wholly answered today at 4:30 p.m. when varsity meets alumni.

Line Coach Bill Cole's statement, "We're not pleased with the line situation," probably expresses Oliver's opinion too, but maybe they'll spring a surprise. Oregon has enough A-1 backs to supply two or three college teams.

Besides being a good preview of Oregon prospects, the All-Star game will give Junior weekend "friends of the University" (only friends have been invited) a glimpse at such performers as Butch Morse, Stan Riordan, ends; Del Bjork, Bill Morgan, tackles; Ross Carter, Joe Huston, guards; Berge Hughes, center; Bill Bowerman, Jerry Donnell, Maury Van Vleet, and Romey De Pittard.

Some of the alumni will be soft, but several are fresh from the pro ranks, and should give Tex Oliver's 1938 edition of Oregon football a fustle.

Cougar Track Team Meets Oregon Today

Great Sprint Battle Expected to Develop as Webfoots Challenge Northern Division Champions on Hayward Field at 1:30

By GEORGE PASERO

Northern division dual meet honors will be at stake this afternoon when the powerful track and field forces of the University of Oregon and Washington State college clash on Hayward field. The opening event will get under way at 1:30.

Oregon's surprising sophomore-manned outfit which last week turned back Washington's Huskies by a 67 to 64 scores, faces even tougher competition today in the Cougar pack.

Last year Coach Karl Schlademan's boys from the Palouse country drubbed Oregon, 90-41, and then went on to capture the northern division title by totaling 56 points in the conference meet. The Cougars finished third in the Pacific coast conference meet and fifth in the national collegiate carnival.

Headed by three of the best sprinters in the nation—Mel Pettichord, Lee Orr, and Curt Ledford—the Cougar entourage arrived in Eugene at noon yesterday, and sat back to await the bark of the starter's gun.

Sprint Battle Royal

One of the greatest sprint battle royals in Hayward field is expected to develop when the three Cougar stars flash down the cinders along with Mack Robinson, Oregon's colored cyclone, and lithe Jim Buck.

Every one of these sprinters has hit around the 9.8 second mark in the century and has touched close to 21 flat in the furlong. In addition, all three of the Cougars think nothing of running the 440 under 50 seconds. Orr has recorded 47.6 seconds in this event.

Coach Bill Hayward of the Webfoots has refused to pick the exact score, but he said that his boys can score 66 points and win the meet if his sophomores come through again. But if the first-year men falter, he sees only 48 points on the Webfoots' score card.

Three Are Even

Canny Colonel Bill gives Oregon an edge in five events—pole vault, discus, two-mile, broad jump, and low hurdles—and calls three of them, the two sprints and half-mile, even. He concedes the advantage in the other seven events to the Cougars.

The Webfoots mentor is counting upon Len Holland, Pacific coast discus champ and Webfoot captain; George Varoff or Rod Hansen, Oregon's top-flight vaulters; Crawford Lyle, veteran two-miler, and Mack Robinson for first place points.

Robinson looks to have no peer in the low hurdles and broad jump, but will have to turn loose all his speed to cop either of the sprints.

The half-mile is another event which should bring spectators to their feet. Kirman Storli, Oregon's powerful ace, will hook up with Washington State's Les Long, a middle-distance man who has bettered 1:58. In addition, quarter-miler Jim Schriver will switch over to the half.

Distance Races Count

In Hayward's opinion, much depends on the outcome of the distance races in which the crack northern division champion in two-which is playing a two-game series here this weekend against Hobby Hobson's club is virtually a new outfit compared to last year. Al Plummer, shortstop, Bud Pripp, rightfielder, and George Zeigenfuss, first base, are about the only regulars Tubby Graves has back.

Pitcher Warren Sierer, who opened yesterday's game for Washington, was the boy who shut out Idaho in Seattle last Saturday with one hit, 8 to 0.

Other Cougar threats are George Nelson, javelin thrower whose best mark is 194 feet 7 inches; Clint Decker and Bob Wagner, hurdle caes; Clayton Stotts, a broad-jumper who leaps close to 23 feet; and Eldred Ramos, a pole-vaulter who has cleared the bar at 12 feet 9 inches.

The meet will be run off according to the new national collegiate order of events.

OSC Hands Oregon First Tennis Defeat

Oregon's varsity tennis team received its first loss of the season yesterday when the invading Beavers from OSC edged out a 4 to 3 win over Washke's men in a conference match.

Oregon held a 3 to 2 advantage at the conclusion of the singles matches, but the two strong doubles teams from Corvallis had too much for the Webfoots to handle and took both contests to give OSC its victory.

Every match was hard fought and the majority of the battles were stretched into three sets. Larry Crane and Les Werschkul lost the singles matches for the Ducks, and both doubles teams were defeated in three set affairs.

Summary, singles:
Hockly, OSC, defeated Crane, Oregon, 6-4, 10-8.
Trouten, OSC, defeated Werschkul, Oregon, 8-6, 6-4.
Ellis, Oregon, defeated McComb, OSC, 3-6, 6-2, 6-1.
Zimmerman, Oregon, defeated Dietrich, OSC, 6-0, 6-2.

Crawford, Oregon, defeated Goddard, OSC, 8-6, 3-6, 6-3.

Doubles:
Hockley and McDougal, OSC, defeated Crane and Zimmerman, Oregon, 9-7, 4-6, 6-3.

Trouten and McComb, OSC, defeated Werschkul and Ellis, Oregon, 7-5, 2-6, 6-1.

This afternoon the varsity will attempt to even the score with the Beavers when they meet the OSC lads in a return match on the Corvallis "glass-top" courts. Washke's frosh will attempt to repeat their 7-0 win over the rooks this morning in Corvallis.

Ducklings Ready For Contest With OSC Rooks Today

Orange Babe Squad Favored for First Tilt in Corvallis

With the first game of the annual "little civil war" baseball series slated for 10 o'clock this morning in Corvallis, John Warren, Duckling coach, last night put his squad through a long hard practice session.

Hitting received the major attention of the frosh mentor as he attempted to iron out defects in the batting of the team. The Ducklings have been in a slump lately and unless their hitting shows great improvement, the hopes of winning the game are very faint, Warren said.

Most of the regular lineup will start the rook game, Warren said, with either Pete Igoe or Bob Reider starting on the mound for the yearlings.

Behind the bat for Warren's team will be big James Rathbun, who appears to have his hitting eye in condition.

No change was announced by Warren in the infield with Herbert Hamer holding down the first sack job, Jack Shimshak at second, Elmer Mallory at short, and Tim Smith at third. This combination has worked together all year and should prove effective against the rook batters.

In the outfield Coach Warren will have "Whizzer" White, Quintin Earl, and Evert McNeeley.

Meanwhile in Corvallis the rooks are resting after winning most of their pre-season games, and are heavy favorites to take the frosh in the annual four-game series.

HITS FIRST DODO

Frank Evans, genial University Press linotype operator, entered golf's hall of fame yesterday by sinking his tee shot on the 13th green at Laurelwood course. Like most golfers, Mr. Evans searched for the ball off the green. He was rather dazed when someone found it in the cup. "Well, it's the first one in eight years," he said last night.
