

Helen Jepson Sings Tomorrow in Igloo At End of Weekend

Streamlined Soprano

Helen Jepson . . . star of opera, radio, and the screen . . . whose concert at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon will be the last event of Junior weekend.

Mothers' Day Event To Have $1 Section Saved for Mothers And Students

Cleanup position in the three-day Junior weekend program this year goes to Helen Jepson, songbird of opera, radio, and the screen, whose concert Sunday afternoon will be the final event on the list.

Known all over the United States for her work in three fields, Miss Jepson will be no new voice and personality to her audience. She will be remembered for her years of regular weekly radio programs with Paul Whiteman, and for her Metropolitan and Chicago opera work. Also, she appeared recently in the "Goldwyn Follies," a motion picture.

Arrives Tonight

The blonde soprano will arrive on the campus tonight on the 9 o'clock train. She will be met at the station and escorted to the canoe fete by a picked committee of greeters. This will be the first canoe fete Miss Jepson has witnessed, and on the other hand, this will be the first Helen Jepson a canoe fete crowd has seen.

The concert Sunday begins at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, with the concert stage of McArthur court the center of attraction. A special section of the Igloo will be reserved for mother-student combinations in order that students may sit with their mothers and still benefit from their ASUO cards.

Special Section Reserved

The special section will sell at $1 for the mothers, ASUO cards for the students. None of the seats in this section will be reserved, but the section will be set aside for students and their mothers. The special section was arranged in response to many requests by both students and mothers.

Although a brisk demand has been evidenced for tickets, there are still plenty of good seats available for the concert, the ASUO ticket offices announced yesterday. Three prices are listed, the reserved sections selling at $1 and $1.25 and general admission 50 cents.

The end of Sunday's concert will see the beginning of the homeward trek of the hundreds of mothers and other visitors who spent the weekend on the campus.

Nations of the World Is Theme of Canoe Fete This Evening

Queen Virginia's Float Will Lead Spectacle; Program Scheduled to Start at 8:30; Few Seats Left in Reserved Sections

Nations of the world on parade, bits of nine nations built onto floats and sailing down the millrace, is the spectacle which will unfold before crowded stands at tonight's canoe fete.

The program begins at 8:30 as the queen's float bears Queen Virginia and her four princesses to the throne across the millrace from the stands, after which the other floats will come past the crowd at intervals.

This year's fete marks the first use of four-dimensional floats, built with all sides complete. Former years have seen floats in the fete which were presentable from only one side, the side toward the audience.

Program Listed

The complete program, including the floats, their titles and builders follows, as announced by Ed Thomas, fete chairman:

- Queen's float—Yeomen.
- Robin Hood, England—Phi Sigma Kappa, Delta Gamma.
- Love Song of the Nile, Egypt—Pi Kappa Alpha, Alpha Chi Omega.
- Toreador song, Spain—Phi Kappa Psi, Alpha Omicron Pi.
- Taho Wahu and Alaka Falls—Hui Kameana singers.
- The Moon of Manakoora, South Sea islands—Delta Upsilon, Delta Delta Delta.
- In a Chinese Temple Garden, China—Theta Chi, Alpha Xi Delta.
- Neapolitan Nights, Italy—Phi Delta Theta, Gamma Phi Beta.

Tandem Swimming—Amphibian swimming groups.

Little Dutch Mill, Holland—Beta Theta Pi, Alpha Phi.

Russian National anthem, Russia—Sigma Alpha Mu, Kappa Alpha Theta.

The Echo Song, Switzerland—Delta Tau Delta, Sigma Kappa.

Other Events Offered

In addition, the program lists other entertainment features such as Fred Beardsley, tenor, singing a new song, "Campus Melody," written especially for this year's canoe fete by Wilfred Roadman, University student. Bruce McIntosh and Barbara Ward will sing a group of popular selections.

The Hawaiian number will be a group of native songs by the Hui Kameana singers. The Amphibian swimming group, in conjunction with the varsity swimmers, will give an exhibition similar to the program they gave in their recent men's pool demonstration.

A prospective sellout of the stands was indicated last night with the announcement by the ASUO ticket offices that only single seats were left in the reserved sections. General admissions, placed on sale yesterday afternoon, were going fast at 50 cents.

A special section was announced last night by the ticket offices with 350 seats on sale at 75 cents, with reservations as to section but not to specific seat. The special section is directly in front of the stage. This year's fete will have 400 more seats than in previous years.

11th at Ferry. Rev. Herbert Higginbotham.

10, Adult forum. "Intimate Glimpses of Japan," Dr. A. R. Moore.

11, "What Is Due to Motherhood."

Central Presbyterian

10th at Pearl. Dr. Norman K. Tully.

9:45, Bible school.
11, "Jesus and His Mother."
6:30, Christian Endeavor.
7:30, Gospel service. "Give Me Thine Heart."

Dr. Walter D. Howell comes this Wednesday. Also a conference in the chapel at 3 for officers and workers. General meeting at 7:30.

Westminster House

Kincaid at 14th. Mrs. J. D. Bryant.

9:45, Special meetings for students and mothers with Mrs. George Winchell speaking.
6, Social tea.
Luncheon on Wednesday with Dr. Walter D. Howell, guest.
