

Softball Wins Taken By SPE, Omega Hall Delta Upsilon Teams

Sigma Nus, Chi Psis, and Phi Gamma Delta Drop Tight Contests; Bill Jones Pitches Three-Hit Ball for Delta Upsilon

By BILL PHELPS

One fact is becoming increasingly apparent in the intramural softball race this year, and that is that there are two darn good pitchers in the race. One is Wally McKenzie, and the other is Bill Jones, the pride of Delta Upsilon.

Jones demonstrated his superiority yesterday by pitching Delta Upsilon to a 4 to 1 victory over Sigma Nu. In doing so, he allowed three hits, two in the fifth inning, and fanned 15 of 24 men to face him, to take strikeout honors for the season.

The victory was no cinch, as Irv Bahlberg was doing a little chucking himself for the losing team. He allowed only five hits for the Thirteenth street boys, and fanned 10, but it wasn't quite enough to win.

Not a man reached first base for the Sigma Nus until the fourth inning but John Dick singled in the fifth, advanced on a putout, and scored on Bun Hodgen's single. Hodgen was the last man to see first base.

Delta Upsilon scored in the second when Bill Jones hit safely, and scored, on Dave Silven's single. They added a pair in the third on successive hits by Dwight Nott, Bill Zimmerman, and Jones, and wound it up in the fifth when Bob Morris walked and scored on Nott's single.

Batteries: Bahlberg and Bun Hodgen; Jones and Silven.

SPEs 5, Fijis 3

Bearing down in the pinches, "Porky" Andrews pitched Sigma Phi Epsilon to a 5 to 3 win over Phi Gamma Delta yesterday.

Although the Fijis outthit the SPEs seven to six, and were always threatening, the capable Andrews, backed by near perfect play, held them in check. He fanned five of them, but was rather wild, walking the same number.

The Fijis handed the game to the Sig Eps in the first inning when they put three errors with two hits for three runs. They added another in the third, and pushed across another in the fourth.

The Fijis scored a pair in the first on three hits and two walks, but did not threaten again until

Omega Hall 7, Chi Psis 2
Omega hall drifted through three innings of scoreless ball yesterday, then suddenly went wild to pound in seven runs in three innings and take a 7 to 2 victory over the Chi Psis.

Keith Osborne pitched hitless ball for the lodgemen until the fifth, but in the fourth he walked two men, and one of them scored on a wild pitch. In the fifth the hallmen put three hits and three walks together for five runs, and then polished it off with a pair in the final sixth.

Ken Dell pitched stellar ball for the hallmen, allowing only four hits, two of which were grouped in the sixth for the Chi Psis' lone run. He walked two men, but struck out 12.

Batteries: Dell and Meyer; Osborne and Williams.

the fourth. Then Andrews got into hot water when he walked Earl Sandness and Phil Bladine. Ted Olsen singled, but Sandness was out trying to score. Hal Adams walked to fill the bases, and Andrews forced in a run when he passed Chuck Coate, but he retired the next man to end the inning.

Batteries: Andrews and Cauller; Adams and Coate.

In the only other scheduled game, the Yeomen forfeited to Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Note: The boy who pitched a no-hit game for the Theta Chis Monday, an a one-hit one a few days before, was Wally McKenzie, not Bill, as was recorded on a score-sheet and reported in an Emerald story.—B.P.

Bill Hayward's Jubilant Cinder Squad Prepares For Meet With Staters

Team Needs Only to Hurdle Oregon State In Clash at Corvallis Saturday to Gain Mythical Conference Honors

By GEORGE PASERO

Colonel Bill Hayward's championship-bound Oregon trackmen brushed recollections of last Saturday's conquest of the mighty Washington State Cougars from their minds yesterday, launching a three-day training siege in preparation for their last dual meet of the season, with Oregon State.

Safely over two of the toughest track powers in the northwest, Washington's Huskies and the Cougars, Oregon's thinclads will return from Corvallis Saturday with the mythical dual-meet title in their possession, if they whip the Beavers.

Last Saturday, Grant Swan's staters were able to capture only two first places against the Huskies, losing a 99 to 31 decision at Seattle.

Several Changes

Hayward said yesterday that he would make a number of changes in his regular lineup in order to give some of his ace point-gatherers a comparative rest this weekend. Next weekend the Ducks travel to Seattle for the annual northern division track and field meet, and Colonel Bill wants to have his men ready.

Frosh Nine to Play State League Team

Igoe on Bench After Three-Hit Game in Corvallis Tilt

Coach John Warren's slugging Oregon freshman baseballers travel to Swimmer's Delight tomorrow to tangle with the Hills Creek nine in a game to start at 5:45 o'clock.

Lanny Allegretto will start in the box with Jim Rathbun catching. Hills Creek had a strong team last year, defeating the Eugene Drakes in their series in the state league.

Pete Igoe will probably rest on the bench tomorrow after pitching Saturday's three-hitter against the Oregon State rooks. He registered 12 strikeouts in the game which the frosh won, 9 to 1. Numerous errors on the part of the rook squad led to their defeat. It was the first game of the annual "civil war series."

Saturday on Howe field the yearlings play the second game of the rook series.

All-Campus Athletic Competition in First Round of Progress

Tennis, Singles and Doubles; Golf, Singles And Doubles; Archery, and Handball Are Events Scheduled for Play

First rounds in all-campus sports events should be completed by Friday, and second rounds should be finished by next Tuesday, according to Paul Washke, physical education instructor. The schedules have been posted on the bulletin board in the PE building.

Twenty-five participants are entered in the all-campus tennis singles, and play is now under way. In the first round, Bill Campbell will play Christopher Madera, Ray Logan will meet Fred Razor, and Bob Taylor will play Mel Johnson. John Nelson is pitted against Douglas Simms, Ed Robbins meets Russel Guiss, and Ken Leatherman plays Wes Galloway. Paul McBride vies with Walt Wood, Blair Harner will meet Woody Slater, and Ray Jewell is listed against Orest Houghton.

Five Draw Byes

Don Good, Phi Bladine, Hal Faunt, Art Stipe, and L. Bean all draw byes in the first round.

In the doubles matches, Razor and Madera will open against Faunt and Simms, and Robbins and Bean will meet Bladine and Coate. Good and Miller, Hannigan and Nelson, Corbett and Shipley, McBride and Horning, Calloway and Wood, and Stanick and Johnson all draw byes.

Archery competition will open at the same time, eight men at the post in the elimination tourney. Opening matches will see Stan Staiger against Pat Dolan, and Jim Eacutt meeting Don Good. In the other starting pair, John Martin takes on John Nelson and Bob Hardy meet Karl Koch.

Golf Singles Listed

Golf singles will bring George Smith and Mel Johnson together in the first round. Pat Dolan meets Bill Goodwin, Ken Shipley fights it out with George Pasero, and Hal Duden plays John Nelson. J. Cosley, George Schweiger, L. Davis, and Ray Houghton all draw byes.

The golf doubles will match the team of Smith and Schweiger against Duden and H. Houghton, while S. Smith and Cosley meet Shipley and Nelson.

Already under way is the handball tournament, with first round matches completed and one second
