

Beavers Conceded Only One First Place Saturday In Dual Meet With Ducks

Benny Dufresne Certain to Take High Jump; Close Races Expected in 440, 880, Relay; Captain Holland Cinch in Discus

By GEORGE PASERO

Given an edge in all but three events, the high jump, 440 and relay, Colonel Bill Hayward's Webfoot track and field forces will invade Corvallis Saturday for the 33rd renewal of Oregon-Oregon State cinder rivalry.

Already holding victories over the Washington Huskies and Washington State Cougars, Hayward's standard bearers will be shooting for their third consecutive victory and the mythical dual meet title of the Northwest when they face Grant Swan's proteges.

The Beavers turned back the Huskies by a 67 to 64 score this season, and last week, the Beavers lost to these same Huskies, 99 to 31, winning only two events.

Dufresne Best

The high jump is the only event in which the Orangemen of Corvallis will have a definite advantage. Benny Dufresne, a sophomore from Roseburg, is rapidly becoming the peer of the Northwest in his specialty. Breaking records in every meet he has entered, the rubber-legged leaper cleared 6 feet 5 inches on one occasion, and last Saturday, hopped over the 6 foot 4 inch mark.

Against the Huskies, Morrison won the only other first place the Beavers were able to salvage. He threw the javelin 184 feet 10 1/2 inches. Saturday, Morrison will have Oregon's Boyd Brown, undefeated in two meets, to contend with. Brown flashed the spear 197 feet to win this event in the Cougar meet.

May Be in 880

Another race in which the Beavers are given a chance to garner first-place points is the half-mile where a great triangular battle looms between Dave Lewis and Oregon's speedy Kirman Storli and Jimmy Schriver. Storli has won every race he has entered this year, but Colonel Bill gives Schriver a very good chance of copping honors Saturday.

Mack Robinson and Jimmy Buck have all the backing in the sprints, as have Bob Mitchell, Don Barker, and Crawford Lyle in the distance races. Chief competition for the Oregon sprinters will come from Bob Leslie who has run the century in around 9.8 seconds.

If Robinson runs the quarter, he will be favored to lope home in front, but if he confines himself to the sprints, this event will be up in the air.

Harry Weston and Bob Goodfellow, Duck high hurdlers, will have to put out to the limit if they hope to beat Frank Mandic, Beaver high sticker.

Holland Has Best Throw

Captain Len Holland looks safe in the discus as no Beaver placed against Washington in the platter throw. Holland will also throw the shot. He hits 44 feet consistently, and this mark is better than any Oregon Stater could do Saturday.

George Varoff, dubbed "cueball" since his haircut, is ready to try for 14 feet. His leg injury, which has bothered him all season, apparently is much better.

The final event, the mile relay, may go to the Beaver quartet if Hayward keeps his aces in individual events.

In an effort to bolster the 440 and the relay, Hayward has entered Frank Van Vliet, a sprinter who has been out all year with a bad leg, in these events. Entry of Van Vliet will leave Dean Ellis free to compete in the low hurdles.

Hobson Picks 15-Man Squad For Journey

Creighton, Mattingly, Hardy, Linde Are Picked for Pitchers; Two Catchers

Oregon's Hobby Hobson finally named his traveling squad for the extended road trip in the present northern division baseball race naming 15 men for the trip.

The team left yesterday afternoon. Friday and Saturday they meet Idaho, Monday and Tuesday they stop for a two-game series at Pullman, and hop up to Seattle Wednesday and Thursday to complete their invasion against the Huskies.

Last year the Ducks apparently were out of the race when they left on this same road trip. They had lost two to Washington State's crew of sluggers on Howe field, although they had won the rest of their games.

Defending Champs

The Cougars were the defending champions with six or seven of their men hitting over .300 and a strong three-man pitching staff, but the Ducks, riding on Bill Sayles' pitching arm, made a clean sweep of the road trip to win the series.

In winning the six straight, the Ducks had to go 14 innings twice and 11 innings once.

This year, however, the Ducks are given little chance to go on such a spree. They are minus their two star pitchers, Johnny Lewis and Bill Sayles, who were the main

Lane Graders Will Monopolize Field

Although no "keep out" signs will be posted on the softball diamond Saturday, University students will still be unable to use the field for practice.

reasons for the Ducks winning the championship.

Coach Hobson selected a four-man pitching staff to make the trip. Bob Creighton and LeRoy Mattingly, right-handers, and Bob Hardy and John Linde, southpaws.

Ford Mullen and Cece Walden, catchers; Gale Smith, Matt Pavalunas, Jack Gordon, Wimpy Quinn, and Jack Coleman, infielders; and Jimmy Nicholson, Bob Beard, Tommy Cox, and Ken Battleson, outfielders; were the other members selected by Hobson.

Football observers hereabouts think Fritz Crisler will be lost at Michigan without the services of that smart gridiron tactician, Tad Wieman, and that the aforesaid Wieman will be handicapped at Princeton without the aid of that shrewd diplomat and handler of men, Mr. Crisler.

Varsity Track

All varsity trackmen are to meet with Coach Bill Hayward on Hayward field at 11 o'clock today.

Frosh Whitewash ONS Netters, 7 to 0

The frosh tennis team whitewashed an Oregon Normal squad of netters at Monmouth Thursday 7 to 0. The Ducklings lost only one set, that by Helikson.

The normal school netters lost a 7 to 0 contest with the varsity, but were expected to take their revenge out on the frosh. They didn't and were beaten by the same score that the varsity overpowered them.

This match wound up the frosh tennis season unless they find a team to play in the near future.

Summary:

Singles: Clark defeated Beall; Philippi defeated Ehrstrom; Engelke defeated Newton; Williams defeated Ickes.

Doubles: Clark and Philippi defeated Beall and Ehrstrom; Engelke and Williams defeated Newton and Ickes.

State Leaguers Drop Ducklings In Error Battle

Oregon's Ducklings kicked away a ball game in the fifth inning of their battle with the Hills Creek State league team yesterday when they erred four times to give the Hillsmen three runs on no hits.

Lanny Allegretto started on the mound for the frosh and later was relieved by Bob Reider.

The affair was air tight until the fifth when the frosh committed four of their seven errors. In the seventh the frosh got one run back when Herb Hamer, talkative first baseman, doubled, took third on a wild pitch, and scored on an infield out.

In the ninth Tini Smith doubled, went to third on an outfield fly, and scored on an error.

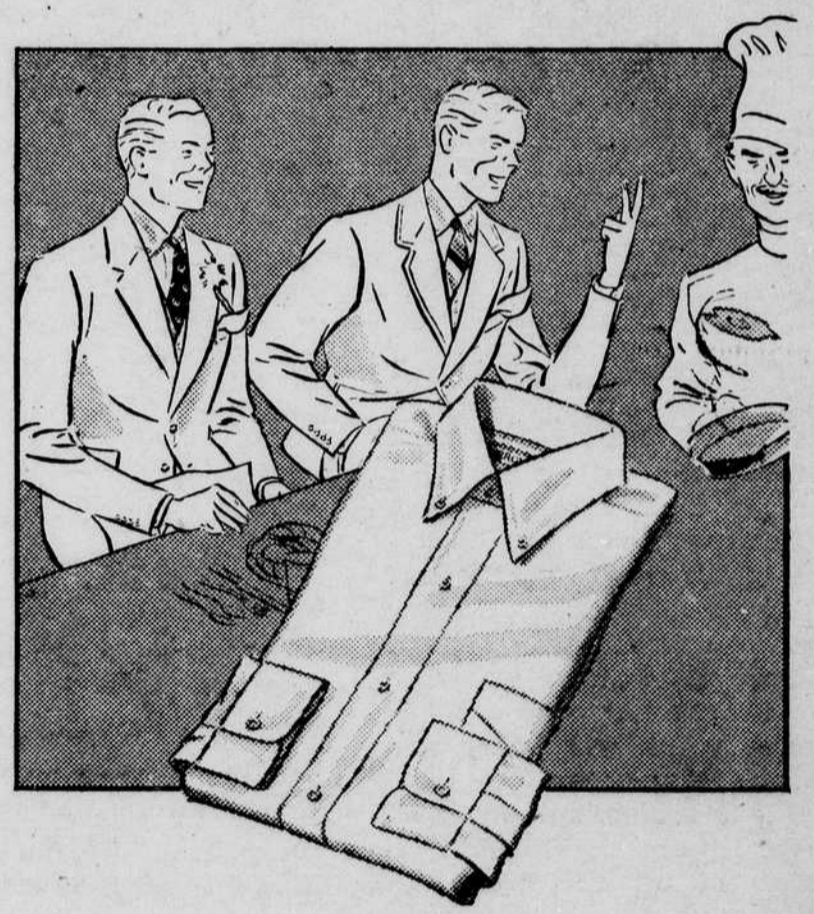

Reider, with a triple, Tini Smith, and Hamer, with their doubles, paced the frosh hitters.

Summary:

Frosh 000 000 101—2 4 7
Hills Creek 000 030 000—3 4 1
Allegretto, Reider, and Rathbun; Dursham and Peebles.
