

DUCK TRACKS

By ELBERT HAWKINS

Moaning Grant Swan, Oregon State's perpetually broken-hearted track coach, fails to even threaten Colonel Bill Hayward's reputation as a track meet prognosticator.

In fact he doesn't even come close. Saturday against Oregon in Corvallis Swan's Orangemen more than doubled the pessimistic mentor's hopeful prediction of 27 points for his team. The Beavers got 57 1/2 to Oregon 73 1/2.

Swan can say "I wuz robbed" too because canny Colonel Bill didn't let his boys runs their hearts and legs ragged for a victory they were virtually conceded by everyone.

So moaning Grant Swan goes down in history as the northern division's worst track coach "prog-gie" just because Bill Hayward got generous and didn't field his team at full strength.

Roaring Mack Robinson, Oregon's sprint start, who thinks nothing of winning three events a meet, set the only dual meet record Saturday by running a :09.7 hundred yard dash.

But compare Mack's :09.7 seconds, his best of the year with the unusual :09.6 stepped off by Washington State's Lee Orr against Washington Saturday.

Coach Hayward is worried about the unknown Montana track squad which is reputed to have a :09.6 sprinter. Oregon and Mack Robinson will tackle boys and more too in the coming conference meet.

The much-advertised Orr-Robinson century duel never developed in Eugene, as you'll remember, because Robinson disqualified. Orr ran the 100 in :09.8 that day.

Oregon State cut in for two places out of three in the high jump where Beaver Coach Grant Swan, "felt sure" they had a chance but unceremoniously scored a nine-point sweep of all three places in the 440, Oregon's sore spot.

Jim Schriver, Colonel Bill's 440 specialist, "made hay" again in the longer 880-yard run by tallying powerful Kerman Storli across the finish line for a second place.

Honest John Warren, guider of frosh baseball destinies, is beginning to slip into his moody ways of last year.

His Ducklings scored their second win of the season over Bud Forrester's Oregon State rooks Saturday, 14 to 7. A week ago it was 9 to 1.

But Honest John turned up with his reply which would have been more appropriate a year ago than now, "we didn't win that game, they lost it—just naturally handed it to us." Which is very much unlike the Honest John Warren of 1938.

Apologies to columnist (From Where I Sit) Clare Igoe and her stooge (?) John Yerby. The sports staff, it seems, terribly neglected Mr. Yerby, who reads Emeralds in search of his name until the print melts.

So Writer Igoe, not the sports staff, came through last week and wrote a column about John Yerby. Apologies again. It takes open-minded women to take care of suppressed Yerbys.

Hobby's Men Tip WSC; Gain Second

Five Hits Given WSC By LeRoy Mattingly, Burly Bob Creighton

Jack Gordon Paces 14-Hit Attack With Two Homers, Triple, Single; Linde Homes, and Triples; Mullen Also Triples

PULLMAN, May 16—(Special to The Emerald)—Jack Gordon, whose brother Joe plays with the New York Yankees, paced Oregon to a 14-hit 12 to 0 victory over WSC's Cougars here today with two home runs, a triple, and a single.

The victory, the sixth straight for Coach Howard Hobson's traveling Ducks, and the third of the present road trip, puts the Ducks in second place, dropping the Cougars into third spot in the standings. Oregon State's Beavers are in first place.

Varsity Netmen Win From Bearcats, 7-0

Ducks Post Second Victory of Season Over Salem Lads

Oregon's varsity netmen made a clean sweep of their annual series with Willamette university Saturday when they defeated the greatly improved Bearcat squad, 4 to 2, on the Salem courts.

Two freshman members of the Bearcat team gained credit for the Salem club's points when they posted wins in the singles matches. Bud Gilmore turned in a surprisingly one-sided victory over Les Werschkul, Duck No. 2 singles man by 6-1, 6-2 scores, and George Gutenkurst, No. 5 singles man for the Bearcats defeated Jack Crawford of the Ducks, 6-3, 8-6.

Summary: Summary, singles: Crane, Oregon, beat Bennet, Willamette, 6-2, 6-3. scarp, nbepot- Singles: Mofthe Gilmore, Willamette, beat Werschkul, Oregon, 6-1, 6-2. Ellis, Oregon, beat Clemes, Willamette, 6-2, 0-6, 6-2. Zimmerman, Oregon, beat Estes, Willamette, 6-1, 2-6, 6-3. Gutekunst, Willamette, beat Crawford, Oregon, 6-3, 8-6.

Doubles: Crane and Zimmerman, Oregon, beat Bennett and Gilmore, Willamette, 6-4, 6-4. Estes and Clemes, Willamette, tied with Werschkul and Ellis, Oregon, 2-6, 14-12.

Winning tomorrow will give the Ducks a chance to divide the four-game series with the Cougars.

Linde Contributes Gordon's long distance clouting was supplemented with Outfielder-Pitcher John Linde's four-ply wallop with triples by Linde and Catcher Ford Mullen.

Two WSC pitchers, Al Branfors and Roy Anderson, couldn't stop the Oregon onslaught. The Ducks opened with five runs in the first inning, three men scoring on Gordon's first homer. Two scored in the third on Linde's circuit clout—his second of the present road trip. Captain Mullen's triple in the sixth accounted for three more runs. Another scored in the seventh, and the last one came in the eighth on Gordon's second home run.

Anderson Triples Bob Creighton allowed three hits in the six innings he worked. LeRoy Mattingly gave up two hits in the last three cantos. Relief Pitcher Anderson tripled in the fifth to lead the Cougars' only serious scoring threat. Anderson died on third.

Summary: Oregon ..... R H E 12 14 0 WSC ..... 0 5 0 Creighton, Mattingly and Mullen; Branfors, Anderson and Eastman.

SICK LIST SMALLER The infirmary list is getting smaller and smaller now that school is almost over. The list includes Edna Smith, Patsey Smith, John Lockridge, Joseph McCoal, Bill Cardinal, Bob Black, Bob Duncan.

Medley Swim Champions

The senior national medley swim championship changed hands recently in Los Angeles when this trio of Los Angeles A. C. mermaids outspurred the Washington Athletic club in the fast time of 3 minutes and 37.5 seconds. Left to right: Virginia Hopkins, Iris Cummings, and Billie Steitz.

Hendricks, Co-op Meet in Donut Tilt As Semi-Finalists

The Women's co-op will attempt to make it their fourth straight win when they met Hendricks hall at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon on Gerlinger field for the semifinal game in coed softball.

Although neither team has been defeated so far the Women's co-op has a more experienced team than Hendricks and has Margaret MacDonald, one of Oregon's best coed pitchers.

Rusty Tomlinson, star of Hendricks hall, will take the mound against the co-op. The game promises to be one of the best games played this year.

Frosh Defeat Rooks Second Time, 14-7

Igoe Gives Up 4 Hits; Hurlers Shaw and Miles Allow 12

The Oregon Duckling nine made it two straight over the rooks on Howe field Saturday, winning a 14 to 7 decision.

Pete Igoe hurled four-hit ball in seven innings, but five errors and three walks gave the rooks seven runs. While the rooks were collecting their runs the frosh sluggers pounded out 12 hits off two rook pitchers. The Orange pitchers also gave up five walks and the rook squad committed four errors.

The Ducklings gave Igoe a 5 to 1 lead by the end of the second inning, but the rooks went out into the lead in the third 6 to 5, aided by three of Oregon Babes' five errors, two walks, and a triple.

The Ducklings soon took command of the situation. In the fourth a four run rally put the frosh in a lead that was never again challenged.

Duck Divoteers Tip Oregon State In Home Match

Kirk Eldridge Blasts Sub-Par Round to Lead Webfoots

Shooting some of their best golf of the season, the Oregon varsity golf squad got off to an early morning lead over Oregon State Saturday on the Eugene Country club course to swamp the Beavers, 22 1/2 to 4 1/2.

Phenomenal scoring by Kirk Eldridge, Oregon's dark horse No. 3 player, gave him a 69, three under par, for the morning best-ball foursomes and a 73 in the afternoon singles. The other five Oregon golfers followed closely behind Eldridge in the morning matches to give Oregon an 8 1/2 to 1/2 lead at lunch time.

Three Shutouts Although a still breeze in the afternoon sent all scores higher, the Webfoots were still hot enough to score three 3-point shutouts in the six matches.

The Webfoots wind up their match play season next Saturday when they meet Oregon State in a return match at Corvallis. On May 29, the Saturday following, the Webfoots go to Moscow to defend their northwest conference championship against the field in a four-man, 36-hole medal play round:

Saturday's results: Oregon 22 1/2, Oregon State 4 1/2 Cline 1 1/2, Stafford 1 1/2. Near 3, Blasen 0. Eldridge 3, Much 0. Watson 3, Hampson 0. Golden 2, Sires 1. Speer 1 1/2, Skibinski 1 1/2. Best-ball foursomes: Cline-Eldridge 3, Stafford-Blasen 0; Near-Watson 3, Hampson-Sires 0; Golden-Speer 2 1/2, Murch-Skibinski 1/2.

McBride's Netmen Meet Varsity Today

By CHUCK VAN SCOYOC

The greatest grade tennis match in the history of the University of Oregon will be hashed out on the local battlefields this afternoon when Paul "P.U." McBride's mighty aggregation of has-beens inc. will attempt to annihilate Coach Paul R. Washke's varsity racqueteers. The slaughter is slated to start at 2 p.m. school time.

McBride's mob, who have been itching to take a crack at the varsity all season, are all prepared to give the varsity "dubs" (according to the "mob" members) the drubbing of their career. Betting odds at the College Side last night favored the challengers by 10 to 1 odds with Charlie "Bilge" Eaton doing all the betting.

McBride Leads Leading the super-varsity squad will be the coach, manager, and president, Paul R. McBride of Portland University fame who is scheduled to oppose Larry Crane, Paul R. Washke's great captain and No. 1 singles player. Due to the fact that Crane has an engagement selling shoes today, that affair has been postponed until Thursday.

Playing No. 2 for the "mob" will be Chuck Eaton, Newt's best customer, who will hash it out with Les Werschkul, varsity No. 2 man. Eaton has been on the outside looking on this season, and a chance to play a varsity man is an answer to his prayers.

No. 3 on McBride's side will be Rexford "Applebox" Applegate, No. 8 on the varsity this year, who is scheduled to crack racquets with Ellsworth "Hill Billy" Ellis, varsity No. 3 singles man.

As a No. 4 singles player, Coach McBride has enlisted the services of Ex-letterman Norman "was-once" Winslow to play ball with Bill Zimmerman, varsity No. 4 man. In the No. 5 singles scrap Bob Vaughn will play for the super-varsity against Karl Mann or Jack Crawford. Washke will toss a coin to decide who will draw the assignment.

Just to give all of his men a chance, Washke has requested a No. 6 singles contest, so McBride consented by calling on Maury Binford's melodious Bob Horning to do the honors.

The doubles matches will consist of the McBride and Eaton combination in the No. 1 spot, with Norman Winslow and Bob Vaughn completing the roster.
