

Ensemble Program Will Begin at 8:15

Several Instruments Will Be Featured At Recital

An unusual ensemble program, featuring several instruments, will be presented in the University music auditorium, tonight at 8:15 p. m., under the supervision of Mrs. Lora Ware, professor of cello, and John Stehn, assistant professor of music.

The ensemble program will begin with the Brahms sonata for the clarinet and piano, in which Phoebe Breyman and Mrs. A. C. Breyman will participate.

A second feature on the concert will be a group of selections by Mayo Sorenson, flutist; Charlotte Plummer, a clarinetist; and Wendell Gilfry, who will play the bassoon. The group of numbers will include the Mozart "Minuet."

A Brahms trio for the clarinet, cello, and piano will be given by Charlotte Plummer, Madge Conaway, and Edith Farr.

The concluding selections of the ensemble recital will be the Vivaldi concerto for the cello with string quintet accompaniment. Howard Jones will be featured with the cello, and the quintet will consist of Audrey Aesen, Jack Powers, James Bailey, Mary Booth, and Norman Gaeden.

The wood-wind department is one of the strongest in the entire group, with Mayo Sorenson, who has been on the campus four years, and Miss Plummer, Gilfry, and Miss Breyman.

The public is invited.

University Business Manager Is Author

The inventory system at the University is dealt with in an article "Inventory Procedure for Capital Equipment," written by J. O. Lindstrom, University business manager, for the April edition of "The Educational Business Manager and Buyer."

Mr. Lindstrom has described how the University system is set up and administered, together with an explanation of the procedures followed in maintaining up-to-the-minute data. Budget items, also, are carefully considered.

The Carnegie corporation has given more than $1,500,000 to the University of Chicago graduate library school for research.

Fewer Withdrawals

(Continued from page one)

Health was given as a reason for withdrawal more than any other. The next greater number of requests listed finances as the withdrawal cause. Other reasons included lack of interest, employment, changing courses, and one this year gave too much absence from school on account of football as the cause.

The spread of withdrawals, Constance said, is entirely logical, since people who come to school on very limited means will be forced to leave at the end of a term or two, and those who stick it out till spring term are much more apt to finish, although a large number of withdrawals are usually noted near the end of the term, he said.

Kemler Will

(Continued from page one)

of Oregon has sent a representative to the conference.

In addition to the discussion of problems, the student leaders will visit the Boeing factory in Seattle, where the flying clippers are built. They will visit Mt. Rainier and other points of interest in the vicinity.

Other features scheduled for the delegates are the University of

Young Chinese Learn Three R's in a New Tongue

In addition to learning the three R's in their own language, young Shanghai children have a new language to learn. These three young Chinese students are getting an early start in Japanese at a newly established primary school inaugurated by the Japanese in Shanghai, where Japanese instructors are in charge.

Journalism Society Initiates Nine Men

Nine pledges were initiated into Sigma Delta Chi, men's journalism honorary, at a meeting at the Anchorage Sunday morning. Bill Tugman, managing editor of the Register-Guard, and Bill Phipps, Emerald editor in 1934-35, spoke at the following breakfast meeting.

The nine men taken into the society were Dick Litfin, Elbert Hawkins, Bill Norene, George Pasero, Bud Jermain, Homer Graham, Larry Quinlin, Bob Emerson, and Bill Pengra.

Tugman spoke of his "cub reporter days" on the Springfield, Massachusetts, Republican. Phipps, who recently left a position with radio stations KOMO and KJR in Seattle to work on the McMinnville Telephone-Register, told of his work with the United Press bureau in Seattle.

Washington campus carnival, and two dances in Seattle. Climax of the convention will be the election of association officers on a yachting trip on Puget Sound Saturday night.

Kemler will make the trip with Bob Walker, new president of the associated students of Oregon State college.

Mr. McCarthy

(Continued from page one)

Delta Upsilon, "We had nothing but good recommendations from the Northwestern chapter where Charlie lived for several years while working Bergen's way through school there. We heard that he wasn't very sharp, but dummies have been pledged to Delta Upsilon for over 100 years and most of them have turned out all right."

Charlie said in accepting the pledge button, "Well, there are a few boys that I don't like very well, but I'll wear your trinket, because after all I'm just a chip off the old block."

Bergen was a DU at Northwestern, having been graduated in 1927.

'Gripe' Society ...

Junior women at the University of Illinois who are top-notchers but didn't quite make Mortar Board content themselves by being made members of "Shorter Board." The organization originally was formed by three coeds as a "gripe" society. Now, however, the girls join "just for fun" and wear "O" shaped pins which stand for "absolutely nothing."

Suspension Will Face Those Not Paying Fees by 3

Suspension from the University will be the penalty meted out to all students who have not met the final installments on all their University fees, including student body, out of state, and registration charges by 3 o'clock this afternoon, C. K. Stalsberg, University cashier, announced yesterday.

Matt Kramer Wins $25 Essay Prize

Matt Kramer, senior in social science, was winner of first prize in the annual Philo Sherman Bennett essay contest.

Subject of the essays was "An Armament Policy for the United States."

Judges of the contest were: Karl Onthank, dean of personnel, Percy M. Collier, English professor in the Portland extension center, and Philip H. Parrish, editorial writer on the Oregonian.

Second and third in the competition were Donald Sorell, junior in law, and Gordon Ridgeway, freshman in journalism.

Prizes of $25 and $15 were offered in the contest.

A hundred couples attired in sweaters (and other clothes, of course) attended the annual Rensselaer Polytechnic institute sweater dance.

Hal Young to Sing In Concert May 24

One of the final recitals of the year to be given on the school of music auditorium will be the vocal concert of Hal Young, professor of voice, at the University, who will sing several groups of selections, May 24 at 8:15 p.m.

Hal Young, before his entrance on the University faculty, was a performer on the New York stage, starring in light opera and musical comedies.

Mr. Young's accompanist will be Aurora Potter Underwood, assistant professor of music. The musical honoraries will be represented, with members of Phi Mu Alpha acting as ushers, and Phi Beta and Mu Phi Epsilon members as hostesses.

The public is invited to attend the concert.

SUMMER ROOMS SOUGHT

Mrs. Alice B. Macduff, assistant dean of women, reports that there are many inquiries concerning housing for the summer months.

A list is being made of rooms available for students for the summer. Anyone wishing to see about housing for the summer months may contact Mrs. Macduff at the dean of women's office.

PAYMASTER ENDS TRIP

E. S. Tuttle, University paymaster, is again in his Johnson hall office, having returned to Eugene Sunday from a three week vacation in Chicago.

Riddlesbarger's Son Dies Unexpectedly

Wilbur Paul Riddlesbarger, eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Riddlesbarger, died Sunday, at the Sacred Heart hospital. The death resulted from a blood clot in the boy's broken arm.

Mr. Riddlesbarger is an associate professor of business administration at the University.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. in the Poole chapel. Dr. Victor P. Morris, dean of the school of business administration, will officiate at the services and interment will be in Rest Haven Memorial park.

He was born February 3, 1930, in Corvallis and had lived in Eugene for six years. He was in the sixth grade at Condon school. Survivors are his parents, a sister, a half-sister, a half-brother, and a grandmother.

GRAD VISITS MOTHER

Gilbert Wellington, Portland, class of '35, visited Friday with his mother, Mrs. Earl Wellington, assistant at the dean of women's office.

There will be an important Phi Chi Theta meeting at 4:30 in 105 Commerce.

IRVIN & IRVIN

CLEANING, PRESSING, REPAIRING

643 13th St. Phone 317

Do You Want to Dispose of an Overcoat, Suit or Slacks?

You will do best on a trade-in or otherwise to first

See the

UNIVERSITY TAILOR

Alder bet. 11th and 12th

Today's Emerald

IS made possible by the following advertisers

Consequently they deserve your support!

Man's Shop

Dr. Elliott

University Tailor

Medo Land

Irvin

Off. Mach. & Sup.

Washburne's

Eugene Hotel

University Theater

Kuykendall

Chesterfield

PATRONIZE THEM

COLORFUL

ROMANTIC

DON'T MISS IT! Shakespeare's Comedy

"THE TWO GENTLEMEN OF VERONA"

Produced under the stars in the NEW GARDEN THEATER (Back of Music Building)

by combined University and Very Little Theaters

MAY 19, 20, 21

Make reservations early at the boxoffice in Johnson hall

THE TERM'S GOING FAST

Better Get Those Papers TYPED

RENT A TYPEWRITER—

PUT IT TO WORK

We have the kind you like

Office Machinery and Supply Co. 1047 Willamette Phone 148