

'Shy Panthino' Huntington

C. A. "Shy" Huntington . . . Eugene businessman and graduate of the University who plays the role of "Panthino" in tomorrow night's play "Two Gentlemen from Verona" at the Garden theater behind the music school building.

VLT, University Theater Players Cast in Next Play

The initial garden theater play, "Two Gentlemen of Verona" which will open at 9 o'clock tomorrow night, is to be representative of the combined efforts of members of the Eugene Very Little Theater and the University theater, under the direction of Mrs. Otilie Seybolt of the Oregon drama department.

C. A. "Shy" Huntington, VLT member, will take the part of Panthino, secretary to Antonio, Proteus' father, played by Bill Tugman, also of the Eugene group.

'Shakes' Free

Gilde Gray, who shook and "shimmied" her way to fame, shown in a Los Angeles court when she shook off a husband. She divorced Hector Briceno on desertion grounds.

TO MAKE FIELD TRIP

Approximately twenty members of James C. Stovall's field geography class will make a field trip to the coast Sunday.

The trip, an annual event, will serve as an opportunity to compare physiographic features of land near Eugene with that along the seashore. The class plans to go from Newport to Reedsport and come back by the Umpqua river.

Four Alexanders—a father and three sons—are enrolled in the University of Toledo.

Huntington has been seen by local audiences in "A Sunny Morning," and other productions. Tugman will be remembered for his portrayal of the governor in "The Fox Laughs."

Professor Has Part
Professor Robert Horn, who is to play the part of the Duke of Milan, father of Silvia, was unforgettable as "Begriffenfeld" in Horace Robinson's presentation of "Peer Gynt" last month in the Igloo.

Gene Edwards, Thurio in the play, who is the rival of Valentine for Silvia's hand, is another member of the Very Little theater, as is Wilfred Roadman, who has the part of Speed, a lively, pun-loving servant to Valentine, who furnishes the lighter notes of the comedy.

Opening Hour Is Late
The late hour of the opening—9 o'clock—has been set in acknowledgment of a special feature at the music building immediately preceding the performance—an organ recital by William McKinney and Janet Felt, graduating seniors of the school of music.

Horace Robinson will handle lighting arrangements for the production, which is to be given under typical Elizabethan stage facilities. The "theater" itself is the product of landscaping done by Professor F. A. Cuthbert of the school of architecture.

In case of rain on the dates of the performance, May 19, 20, and 21, the entire production will move to Guild theater in Johnson hall.

Graduates Take Master's Exams

Two University students, Lyle L. Small and Frank Learned, are taking final oral examinations for master's degrees this week.

Mr. Small, Eugene high school teacher, majored in education. He took his examination Tuesday afternoon. His thesis was titled "Democratic Ideals of Certain Eighteenth Century States and Implications Thereof Having Meaning for Modern Education."

Mr. Learned had his major in economics and history as his minor subject.

Green Goose May Postpone Publication

At an emergency meeting called for 10 o'clock tonight members of the Green Goose staff will be faced with the possibility of postponing their publication date in order to be able to cover the last big story of the term on the campus, staff members revealed yesterday.

The original date set for the edition was May 25, but due to an extra "clean" story that will "break" next Wednesday night, the scandal sheet may come out Thursday of next week.

Promise of the latest in campus photos of "hotshots" was made due to the fact that special engravings can easily be made due to the fact that spe-equipment secured by staff reporters are thick fur earmuffs to shut out the many veiled and unveiled threats received.

Sigma Omega Chi To Hear Speech On Public Welfare

Peter Sullivan, administrator of the Lane county committee, will address the members of Sigma Omega Chi, social science honorary, Wednesday evening in the umni hall at 8 o'clock. His talk on "Public Welfare in Lane County" will be illustrated with various forms and applications which persons seeking relief are required to fill out. Mr. Sullivan graduated from the University of Oregon law school in 1930.

Following the address will be a brief business meeting, it was announced by Chandler Stevens, president of Sigma Omega Chi.

Jake Frederickson earns his way through the University of Minnesota by catching rats in university buildings.
