

BACK TALK

By EHLE REBER

At last the frosh are holding the reins behind the sports page and after a short deliberation decided to quit panning John Warren and give him a little of the honor he is entitled to.

John has been called everything from the horse, to the ruler of mud flats, the mud flats referring to the field west of the Igloo.

John has a record any coach would be proud to have. In his three years as frosh coach he has won the following games:

	W	L	Pct
Football	13	4	.764
Basketball	45	6	.882
Baseball	35	7	.833

His teams this year haven't lost a game of any kind to the Rooks. Today it will be up to the baseball team to keep that record intact.

Warren's gridiron crew this year compared favorably to his 1936 team. Graybeal was the only difference in the two teams. Hankinson, Mabee, Stenstrom, Haliski, Stewart, White, Schultz, and Samuelson were the stars on his 1937 team.

On his basketball team John named Marshik, Sandness, Pippo, McNeely, and Andrews as his chief canaba tossers.

This year's baseball bests include Igoe, Rathbun, Allegretto, Shimshak, Mallory, Rieder, Smith, Renick, and Hamer.

Ward Wilson, frosh trackster, will give Hayward's cindermen stiff competition next year in the high jump as well as the half-mile. Ward has cleared 5 feet 10 1/2 inches and has just barely missed 6 feet 1/4 inch.

"I'd walk across the street to walk under a ladder," said Bill Hayward, when asked whether he thought it was unlucky taking 13 men to Seattle.

Boyd Brown, varsity javelin tosser, hit the 200-foot mark for the first time in his life. Brown is one of Bill's favorites to come through in the Northwest meet today.

Bob Officer, Igloo athlete, swabber, finally decided to go to Seattle. Bob didn't get to go up with the team this year and for a while was doubtful if he would go at all. Bob hasn't missed a Northwest meet since he's been at the University and this time will be no exception. Look out . . . Seattle, here I come.

"Stoop" Caufield, giant frosh shotputter, is one of the largest men to ever turn out for that event in the school's history. "Stoop" is 6 feet 4 inches tall and weighs a mere 220 pounds. Ken Miller, frosh mentor, states that with a little more experience and practice "Stoop" will be an outstanding weight man.

DUs Win, Go to Semi-Finals; Phi Sigs Beat Comets in Division

Bill Jones Pitches Another Shutout Win; Hobson Defeats Wheelock in Second Contest; Phi Sigs, ATOs Play at 10

The Delta Upsilon softballers behind shut-out pitching of Bill Jones won their way into the semi-finals by defeating Gamma hall, 4 to 0.

In the playoff series of division V, the Phi Sigs in a last inning rally that netted them nine runs defeated the Comets, 14 to 6, for the right to meet the ATOs, to see who plays the DUs in the semi-finals.

The Phi Sigs and the ATOs play at 10 a.m. today.

Jones, pitching in usual form, allowed the Gamma hallers three well scattered hits, Dickie gathering one in the fifth, and DeMeehler and Wilson getting their single blows of the day in the final frame.

DUs 4, Gamma Hall 0

Engelke started out bad by allowing two runs on three hits and a walk in the first inning. In the second the Delta Ups scored their last two runs on three hits and an error by Shortstop Lowe. Engelke shut out the DUs for the remainder of the game, although allowing five more hits. Jones struck out 12 and allowed one walk. Engelke struck out five and gave one walk.

Hobson and Wheelock split their double bill in two days of play, Wheelock winning Thursday's ball game and Hobson winning Friday's. The Comets went out into the lead in the second inning with a 1 to 0 lead. In the fourth the Phi Sigs made it 3 to 1, but in the last half of the fourth frame the Comets scored three runs to go again into a one-run lead. The Comets went farther into the lead with a run in the fifth but the Phi Sigs came right back in the sixth with a two to tie up the old ball game. The Comets again went into a one-run lead in the final half of the sixth. Then came the fatal first half of the seventh. The Phi Sigs started clouting Wheelock's pitches, collected three walks, and scored seven runs to sew up the old ball game. Comets were shut out in the seventh to end the game.

The Phi Sigs smacked Wheelock for a total of 20 hits coupled with three walks. Wheelock struck out one man. Hobson gets credit for the victory allowing 13 hits, walking one and striking out one.

Frosh Tracksters Round Up Season In Rook Dual Meet

Lack of Meet Competition to Prove Costly for Ducklings; Bob Deiz Hurts Leg in Intersquad Cinder Session

Frosh cinder hopefuls began tapering off Monday in preparation for their annual dual clash with the Oregon State Rooks next Saturday afternoon on Hayward field. The Rooks, due to a better balanced squad, are favored to repeat their earlier season relays victory over the Ducklings.

"Lack of competition," says Frosh Coach Miller, "has brought about a let-down on the part of the Frosh team, the emotional results of which may cause serious handicaps to a number of the athletes."

"From past records, the Frosh appear to have only one 'cinch' a let-down on the part of the Frosh team. The emotional results of first place," said Miller in a statement last night. However, he concedes a possibility of as many as seven blue ribbons if all men live up to advance expectations.

Doing a little prognosticating, the coach figures that the Rooks should win by a score of 64-58, but adds that he hopes he's as bad a "picker" as Grant Swan, Oregon State coach.

Deiz Pulls Muscle

Bob Deiz, probably the outstanding sprinter in northwest frosh circles, pulled a muscle in a time trial last week, and is a doubtful starter in the Rook meet. His place in the sprints will be filled by Dwight Nott, Bob Keen, and Leland Lewis.

The mile race will pit two good freshman milers in Galen Morey of the Frosh and Graff of the Rooks. This meeting should provide an outstanding bit of action, possibly leading to a new record. Hugh Simpson and Howard Hall will be Morey's team mates in this race.

Ward Wilson will carry the

Ducklings Win 4 to 1 On Green

Frosh Golf Squad Beat Rooks 4 Times In 5 Meetings

The frosh golf season wound up with the Duckling squad taking four of their five matches and having the distinction of being the first Oregon frosh team with a girl member.

When the qualifying rounds were totaled up the list contained the names and scores of nine boys and one girl. The girl, Ruth Tustin, one time student of Olin Dutra, qualified for the seventh position and ended up at the finish of the season on the team.

Cliff Smith Tops

The 72 qualifying holes were played in rain, mud and hail which did not help the scores. Cliff Smith secured the top position which he held most of the season, and the position he played in all matches. Fred Davis was No. 2 man throughout the season. Chet Keller and Jim Hickey traded the third and fourth position back and forth. Kneeland Stone and Pete Klosterman varied at the fifth and sixth berth, with Ruth Tustin playing in the sixth position the last of the season.

The Ducklings' defeat was handed to them by their big brothers, the varsity. The varsity beat the frosh 20 to 7 but did not have the easy time they expected with Smith surprising the varsity by taking three points from Doc Near.

The frosh nosed out Eugene high by three points to win a four-man three-way match between the Eugene, University and Albany high schools. Fred Davis was medalist with a 73.

During a challenge match with Cliff Smith, Fred Davis sank a hole in one, made an eagle and shot four birdies. The tough part of the situation was that Smith nosed him out to win the match.

Rooks Defeated

The Ducklings took the rooks on their own course as their first big match of the season. Ruth Tustin played a special match with Oregon State's Dorothy Sellers, a member of the rook squad and took three points.

The frosh played a four-man three-way match at Laurelwood with the Eugene and University highs. The frosh came out on top with 21 1/2 of the 36 possible points. Davis was medalist with a 71, one under par.

The rooks lost to the Ducklings when they played their return match here. The frosh were only two points in the lead, 10 to 8, after the morning singles, but came back strong in the doubles to take the match 16 to 11.

strongest event. Lee Lewis who placed in the state meet last year, and Dwight Nott round out the Frosh entrants.

Reber will team with miler Hugh Simpson in an attempt to outvault Rukhala and Caffall of the Rooks in the pole vault event.

The weight events will be handled mainly by football men who have just finished spring practice. The comparatively unknown ability of these men cause Coach Miller's grey hairs no end. Jack Sickel, who put the shot over 50 feet in high school, is expected to come through with points in this event. He will be backed by Wally White and Allan Samuelson.

White and Sickel will likewise attempt to garner points in the discus. In the javelin the Frosh look to Eino Juola to provide the opposition for Hoffman and Land-force of the Rooks.
