Victors Annex Donut Softball Honors, 6-1

Bill Jones, DU's top flight hurler, was in top form yesterday as he hurled his second no-hit, no-run game of the season, while striking out 17 Theta Chis to win the intramural softball championship, 6 to 0.

It was all Bill Jones as the husky hurler completely dominated the fray with his sizzling fast ball. Jones struck out the first ten men to face him. He walked the eleventh, and then struck out the next five in order.

Just 22 men faced Jones during the seven-inning affair, with 21 the lowest number possible.

Meanwhile the DUs were jumping on Wally McKenzie, Theta Chi pitcher, for three runs in the second, two in the fourth and the sixth, and a final tally in the fifth.

Zimmerman Homes

Bill Zimmerman, Oregon tennis star, led off in the second inning with a long home run. Bill Jones and Jack Weber, third baseman, both scored a little later on Connie Grabb's double.

In the fourth, Jones started the rally which netted two runs. Bill McInturff and Jim Timmins followed Jones with hits to score two more runs for the DUs. Zimmerman scored the other run in the fifth after he had tripled.

It was the DU's third straight play-off victory. Friday he limited Gamma hall to three hits and won, 4 to 0. Monday he gave up four hits as the DUs defeated the Phi Sigs, 8 to 1.

Theta Chi, 5, SPE 4

In the semi-final round on Monday the Theta Chis defeated the Sigma Phi Epsilon softballers, 5 to 4.

McKenzie struck out 15 SPE batters and allowed four hits, but the Sig Eps were able to stretch all these hits into runs.

Porky Andrews, the Sig Ep's mainstay in the pitcher's role, allowed the Theta Chi's six hits, but issued nine walks.

All-Campus Sports Nears Final Round

Two Enter Net Semis; Archery and Golf Move Toward End

Only a few days remain for all-campus events to be played off. Gym equipment must be turned in by May 27, according to announcement from the physical education department.

Phil Bladine and Paul McBride entered the semi-finals of the tennis singles. Bladine won easily from Fred Razor by scores of 6-1, 6-2. McBride defeated Bob Horning, 6-3, 6-2. Russell Guiss moved into the third round by turning back Owen Miller, 7-9, 10-12. L. Bean defeated Don Good and thus advanced to the semi-finals where he will meet Paul McBride.

Don Good and Owen Miller will oppose Scott Corbett and Ken Shipley for a position in the finals. Paul McBride and Bob Horning, who defeated Galen Robbins and L. Bean, 6-2, 6-0, will meet the doubles team of Calloway and Wood in the other semi-finals bracket.

R. Hardie entered the semi-finals of all-campus archery by defeat-

Duck Golfers Enter Conference Show

A four-man varsity golf team will journey to Moscow, Idaho, Thursday to get a crack at the northwest conference championship.

The golfing Ducks won the crown when the meet was held in Seattle last year. Games played during the season have no bearing on the championship as it is settled with the tournament. The tournament is a 72-hole contest of medal play for the entire team.

The four-man team that will play for Oregon will be Bill Watson, Walt Cline, Doc Near, and Kirk Eldridge.

Teams playing for the northwest crown will be: Washington, Washington State, Idaho, Oregon State, and the University of Oregon.

Norma T. Johnson was announced as the student having the highest GPA in the freshman class.

Coed Rifle Team Organizes and Draws up Plans

Club Will Function as Separate Unit; New Officers Chosen

University of Oregon women's rifle team was officially organized as a separate club at a meeting held last week with the election of officers for next year and permanent plans for the group drawn up.

The team organized officially this year and as a governing body will organize the club next fall by throwing the membership of the club open to an unlimited amount of members who would be allowed to wear the official emblem of the rifle club.

15 Members

The team which will be composed of 15 members in its full capacity will reserve the right of wearing the official uniform, sweater and team emblem adopted by the team at the meeting.

Officers elected for the coming year are captain and president of the club, Ruth Ketchum; lieutenant or vice-president of the club and manager of the varsity team, Dorothy Burke; publicity director, Barbara Stallcup. Miss Ruth Russell is the faculty adviser for the club.

A return match with the University of Washington is scheduled for the team next year and plans for meets with other schools are being made. In addition to these, many postal matches will be shot with leading colleges and universities of the United States.

George Varoff Picked 1939 Cinder Captain

On the eve of his departure for the University of California campus where he and seven other Webfoot trackmen compete in the Pacific coast conference track and field meet at Berkeley this Friday and Saturday, pole vaulter George Varoff was elected Oregon's 1939 captain by his team mates yesterday afternoon.

An Oregon trackman must be a two-year letterman to be eligible for the captaincy of the squad, so only two Webfoots, George Varoff and Crawford Lyle, were considered.

Varoff came to Oregon as a freshman from California four years ago. He showed great promise as a vaulter during his frosh year, but failed to return to school the following year.

It was during this "leave of absence" that Varoff achieved national recognition. During the summer of 1936 he competed for the Olympic club of San Francisco, setting a new world's record of 14 feet 6 inches. This record was later broken by Earle Meadows and Bill Sefton of California.

Varoff returned to school in 1937 and won every Northwest event in addition to breaking the world's indoor record. His mark of 14 feet

4 5-8 inches still stands.

This year, the blonde Russian from San Francisco has been bothered by a bad leg and until Saturday failed to touch 14 feet. In the northern division meet, he regained his stride, jumping 13 feet 11 1/4 inches, and barely missing at 14 feet 6.

FRENCH COURSE PLANNED

A two-term course in first year French for students entering the University winter term will be offered next year by the romance languages department for the first time in three years.

The course offers six hours of credits each term.

THANK you for the privilege of serving you during the past year.
