

Buy Books During Freshman Week And SAVE MONEY

Last Spring the 'CO-OP' Paid Oregon Students Thousands of Dollars for Good Used Text Books. Early Comers this Fall Will Get These at Far Less than New Prices and SAVE MONEY.

The "Co-op" Is the Student-Owned Shopping Center, Operated Entirely for the Benefit of Oregon Students. Always Try at the "Co-op" First---It Pays.

We Offer to Oregon Students This Fall the Finest Line of Loose-Leaf Binders Ever Shown in Eugene

Large size, leather zippers, many styles and prices—from $2.00 up. Large size canvas binders, plain or with special "Oregon" imprint—75c. New "Luggage Cloth" binder—a "hot" number with "Oregon" imprint—$1.25.

MANY OTHER STYLES OF BINDERS. WE HAVE JUST THE ONE YOU WANT

High Quality Paper at Cheap Paper Prices

Together with twenty-three other college stores on the West Coast we carry the high-grade "C. B. A." notebook and typing paper. Look for the "C. B. A." watermark—it assures you the best grade of paper made on the Pacific Coast.

IT COSTS NO MORE

We Have the Popular "HOOD" Line of Shoes for Tennis, Basketball or Gym---Posture Foundation, Hygienic Insole. Priced Low for Student Purses.

LAUNDRY CASES
OREGON PENNANTS, PILLOWS
OREGON CREST JEWELRY
FINE SOCIAL STATIONERY
FRATERNITY STATIONERY
FRAT CREST AND GREEK
LETTER DECALCS

The UNIVERSITY
'CO-OP'
Campus Entrance at Thirteenth & Kincaid

JOIN OUR RENT LIBRARY. READ ALL THE NEW BOOKS FOR ONE DOLLAR

A TERM
$1.00

THE "CO-OP" BOARD

JACK LOCKRIDGE, Senior, President

GORDON BENSON, Junior, Vice-President

CHARLES SKINNER, Junior, Secretary

STANLEY STAIGER, Sophomore

PHYLLIS GARDNER, Senior

These five students, together with two faculty members, Dean James H. Gilbert and Dr. Orlando John Hollis, constitute the governing board of the "Co-op" and with the manager, formulate its policies.

There are two separate and distinct corporations on the Oregon campus. The A.S.U.O. manages and controls athletics, publications, concerts, lectures, and similar activities.

The "Co-op" store is the merchandising corporation. Its duty is to distribute textbooks and all classroom supplies at the lowest prices possible.

JOIN THE A.S.U.O.
PATRONIZE
THE "CO-OP"