DUCK TRACKS

By ELBERT HAWKINS

Tex Oliver Saturday inherited : tradition that has withstood the assault of time-that of Oregon football teams ALWAYS rising to are champs or chumps, it matters Pacific slope has seen this fall.

fied even the change of coaches witnessed the spectacle. and systems. From 1928 through Those Huskies were the then the jinx fell and the tradition fornia Trojans from the top of the even grew shaky.

the toe of Jimmy Nicholson to But one thing was certain, the beat Washington—a team which boys in green weren't the seme beat Washington-a team which boys in green weren't the same had outplayed the 31 to 7 conquer- Webfoots who had been beaten in or of Oregon the week before- four of their last five starts. They there was little doubt of its exist- were a fiercely driving, hard blockence. From '28 through '33 the ing, and a vicious tackling aggrescoreless jinx kept warm under gation of men in green who yielded three different coaches, John J. not an inch during the opening McEwan, Dock Spears, and Prink minutes of the game, and who Callison. Now after four years, were pushing the huge Huskies during which Oregon won only one around at its close. game, it looks like Smiling Tex has come along to start a spell of his own.

good football-beat Washington that was a toss up. ens wouldn't fall if they lost. On son, and the Webfoots began to of darkness Wednesday of last week, usually a spark. Nicholson faded back from The Canadians' game was day for pre-game preparations, his own 22, and fired a diagonal marked by hard drives and excelthey had a complete rest.

Giovanini, regular guard, was out galloped another 14 yards to the after only three minutes. Jay Washington 44. Graybeal, Tex's trump card, played less than that. Elroy Jensen, regular tackle was on the shelf. So before the end of the half, and their tenth season of play. The pa, Campbell coop, and Sigma Chi was Guard Mel Passolt. And the question was whether or not group is composed of students, were "B" league winners. Blocking Quarterback Hank Nil- Oregon wold have time to place business girls, and teachers, all of Two "A" league games were sen wasn't in perfect shape.

Guard Ernie Robertson, who took there to spoil the effect. over after Giovanini was hurt. Don't forget the steady play of *Cece Walden, regular guard, either. than in came Quarterback Chet several years. over at blocking quarterback, and Haliski talked in the huddle, and "played great football all the way, then the big green team lined up, member on the present team, atdirecting Oregon's offense. Cen- It was a place-kick formation, tends the University of British "ter "Cat" Cadenasso found himself Smith holding, Nicholson kicking. Columbia. She was impressed by

"recting them all. Then there were Oregon's ends boy kicked and the ball sailed be-Robertson-who rushed Washing- victory. "ton passers so savagely their aerial | Coach Tex Oliver had no great attempts, nine out of ten, were individual stars on the field. Racovered like a blanket by Web- ther he had 11 stars out there at Bert s for Elk Bout foot backs. That feature of Ore- once. Three of the regulars, Jimmy gon's defense, which was riddled Cadenasso, Guard Cece Walden. by Grenny Lansdell of USC and and Tackle Jim Stuart played 60 several others, became a bulwark, minutes of sterling football. Ends "yielding one little completion of Larry Lance and Vic Reginato and one yard. Oregon's line kept its Tackle Bill Foskett were tough defensive average below the allot- men to handle in the line. The line. Phelan as instrumental in Oregon's "win. Jimmy Nicholson, Frank Emmons, and Marsh Stenstrom also received plaudits. So did Tackle Bill Foskett. Just call it a 21-man Huskies, and Ernie Robertson. "performance, for that's how many -Oregons played.

Washington State, UCLA, Idaho, and Washington so their season is right now a credit to Tex Oli-"ver. But at present the Webfoots maren't thinking about what's behind them. That can come later. Last night they dismissed thoughts the press coop . . . Ed Walker, competing with Woods for the 149 of the happy Washington encounticket manager; Paul Washke, in spot. Francis Nicherson, 139ter and went to work. They play tramural athletics head, Bobby pounder is favored at the light-

Oregon State Saturday. Progress of both Oregon and track star, and Frosh Coach John Smallwood, heavyweight; Jim Washington was well followed Warren . . . Oregon gained 142 Manley, 179, John McCarthy, 159, Saturday . . . Lon Stiner, Jim Dix- yards from scrimmage as against and Bob Calkins, Martin Schedler, on, and Hal Moe, Oregon State's 96 for Washington . . . the Huskies Herb Anderson, and Karl Zimmer-Brain-busters, all eyed and dia- had four passes intercepted . . . man, 149, and George Nickachos, grammed Oregon's progress . . . Oliver's crew gained 52 yards via 119, complete the frosh squad. Babe Hollingbery and Buck Bailey, the aerial channels . . . standouts In the bone-crushing section Babe Hollingbery and Buck Bailey, for Washington were Sophomore Willie Williams, heavyweight; "Washington in a traditional game Center Rudy Mucha, who played Dale Peterson, 178; Harry Spence, *at Seattle a week from Saturday, great defensive ball, and Chuck 168; Myers, 148; Bill Lauderback. analyzed the Huskies . . . Babe Newton, veteran blocking quarter- Burt Drake, and Jim Mountain, used the eye glasses and watched back, who upheld his honor of be- 138, round out the list of varsity Washington, while Buck, who has ing the greatest blocker Coach men. seen Oregon at least five times Jim Phelan says he has ever seen Dan Mahoney, 178, is the only

Oregon Shocks Gridiron World With Shutout Victory

Washington Victimized in Stunning Gridiron Upset By Much-Alive Webfoots

By GEORGE PASERO

By the narrow margin of a field goal, Oregon's battered but batterheights against Washington. ing Webfoots humbled the mighty University of Washington Husky on Whether the particular Huskies Multnomah stadium field Saturday in as stunning an upset as the

The score was only 3 to 0, but it was not so much the score as the It's a tradition which has de- manner in which the Webfoots played that astonished 20,000 fans who able Webfoots rose to heights in kies whom opponents have feared

Punting Duel

Psychology-and a lot of darn Huskies tangle in a punting duel All the points were scored in the Injuries meant little. They were van who was camping all by him- was good but their forward line destined to win anyway. Nello self on the Oregon 42. Donovan was slow and inadequate.

The Ducks reached the four.

the ball back of the end zone. Take a peek at the list of so- Coach Oliver rushed Hank Nil- "ex-high school" teams. Their from Delta Upsilon, and Sigma called reserves, or men who have- sen into the ball game with in- play starts in September and con- Alpha Epsilon defeated Phi Sigma n't been starters all season, re- structions, and the tow-headed Vik- tinues through March. Games are Kappa to remain undefeated in the member what they did, and you've ing from Astoria called for a pass, played on Saturdays, usually with "A" division. got a clue to Oregon's "surprise." Nicholson throwing. The pass, in- one of the other two British Co-There was husky Jim Stuart who tended for Yerby, hit its mark, but lumbia team or an occasional tourso ably relieved Elroy Jensen at Jimmy Johnston of the Huskies ing team. tackle. Witness the great play of was Johnny-on-the-spot, and was

"Irish Denny" Donovan, took Haliski to take Nilsen's plays.

and was a bearcat for pouncing The pass from center was per- the University campus. Their camon fumbles and passes. The 200- fect, Smith placed the ball on the pus, she says, has few buildings pound junior overcame his bugaboo strip of tape taken off the back and no dormitories or sororities. of bad passes to the backfield, di- of the goalposts and lined in front There are a few fraternity houses of Nicholson. The stocky Salem -Reginato, Lance, Yerby, and L. tween the uprights for an Oregon .

-ment of 100 yards per game. It whole backfield was consistent in was 60 full minutes of steady foot- its pass defense and defensive ball that kept Washington from tackling. getting any closer than the 43-yard come through for Coach Oliver. fighters in a match on November Ted Gebhardt was praised by End John Yerby played his best 30. game in a month. End Bud Robertson was credited with the most The Ducks have now whipped jured in the opening minutes, fired team. up the Webfoot defense.

wears a size 14 dress.

Parke, ex-Webfoot football and weight position. this season, diagrammed the plays . . . when Newton tackled the standout frosh wrestler. on paper as Babe described them. Ducks they stayed tackled . . . he No wrestling matches will be Here are a few others who got finally hurt himself by blocking scheduled until the beginning of bird's-eye views of the game from too viciously.

1933 there was a jinx when Wash- Washingtonians who last week ington couldn't even score. Since dumped the mighty Southern Caliven grew shaky. But when Oregon's unpredictCoast standings by a 7 to 6 score. They were the same tough Hus-

Touring Vancouver Club Triumphs 10-0 In Exhibition

By ADELAIDE ZWEIFEL

On their way to Palo Alto for the Pacific coast hockey tourna ment, the Vancouver, British The first period saw Ted Geb- Columbia, women's hockey club dehardt, Oregon's triple-threat half- feated University coeds Monday back, and Jimmy Johnston of the night, 10 to 0, on Gerlinger field.

first half. The Oregon team, Saturday. Call it just an extra little twist to the "Oliver Twist." But in the second period, Coach oliver sent in Jimmy Nicholson familiar with team play, held their the work went into that game and a win of head black of the components secondes in the less that the less than the Saturday. Call it just an extra But in the second period, Coach though less experienced and not as The Webfoots went into that game and a pair of hard-blocking, fresh opponents scoreless in the last half rested, and feeling that the heav- ends, John Yerby and Bud Robert- until the game was called because pass to Quarterback Dennis Dono- lent teamwork. Oregon's backfield the lower mainland's women's championship in volleyball yester-But only a half minute remained grass hockey association. This is day. Canard club, Phi Sigma Kapwhom are members of the so-called played-Omega hall won by forfeit

Canadian captain, is a physical and came back to annex the third, education instructor and played 15 to 11. Phi Sigma Kappa turned No sooner had the play ended and taught hockey in England for back Sigma Phi Epsilon, 15 to 6,

One Student Plays

(Please turn to page three)

UO Glovemen Eye

Whitfield, Ferris, Good Material

This afternoon in the physical education building, frosh and varsity glove tossers will battle for But it remained for the subs to the right to engage the local Elks

Around Bob Whitfield, 159-pound vicious tackle of the day when he 169-pound captain of the Mitt and up-ended Chuck Bechtol of the Mat club, and John Woods, 149guard, who took Nello Giovanini's boxing and wrestling mentor, will pound sophomore, Herb Colwell, position when the latter was in-

Among the varsity sluggers, hefty Russ Inskeep, Jim Bailey, According to a University of and Bob Boyd fill in the heavy-Denver survey, the average coed weight berth, Jack Fruit is slated to make the 179-pound class. Cam Collier and Ferris O'Brien are both ' the winter term.

'Irish Denny' Almost Clutched This One

Here's a scene from Saturday's bitterly fought Oregon-Washington classic which the Webfoots won 3 ot 0. Dennis Donovan, Webfoot quarterback, made a desperate effort to catch this pass, but the ball bounded away from his arms.

Umega and SAE Advance in 'A'

Canard, Campbell, Sigma Chi, and Phi Sigs Win 'B' Tilts

By JIMMIE LEONARD Here's what happened in the

The traveling team is a part of narrowing race for the intramural Canard's "B" team had to play hard to down a struggling SAE team. Canard won the first game, Catherine Horn, tall, blonde 15 to 6, dropped the next, 12 to 15, and 15 to 7.

Campbells Triumph

It looked bad at the start for Campbell coop, because they dropped the first game, 15 to 1, to Omega hall. In the second game Campbell got out its winning tomahawk and scalped the dormiteers, son, Cougill, Johnson, Thompson, course. 15 to 10. The cooperators kept Swanson, Bromley, and Harmon. going to take the third-and the victory-15 to 7.

Sigma Chi trounced Theta Chi and Reynolds. in two straight, 15 to 2, and 15 to | Campbell coop "B": Brubaker, two-mile course twice. 4, to climax the day's "B" league Bell, Chandler, Barker, Lee, Green,

In the two "A" league games SAE's undefeated squad kept their Anderson, Nickachos, Sherman, record clean by knocking out a Jandral, and Duckwall. win over Phi Sigma Kappa in two Theta Chi "B": Heustis, White, games, 15 to 13, and 15 to 2. Delta Lorence, Anderson, Mc Burney, Woods Considered Upsilon defaulted to Omega hall. Auld, Bryant, and Shellenberger.

and Dubois. Canard "B": Christy, Barrett, Tichy, Manning, Wyatt, Blankin- Reilly, Hockley, Ellis, Lowell, Lu-

ship, and Marsee. Phi Sigs "B": Plummer, Ander-

NEA Picks Gebhardt on All-Coast 2nd

Vallejo Ted Gebhardt, Webfoot triple-threater, who got an all-America card of merit early in the season, becomes No. 1 Oregon footballer to get all-star rating as time for all-this-andthat teams draws near.

Tex Oliver's handy man was chosen second team quarterback on NEA's all-coast team of 1938, which was announced Sunday. Tony Knap, Idaho end. wno was injured in the Oregon game a couple of weeks ago, and Prescott Hutchins, Oregon State's stellar guard, were northwest stars making the first team. Joe Wendlick and Jim Kisselburgh, Oregon State end and fullback, respectively, drew second team berths with Oregon's Ted Gebhardt. NEA's all-coast first team included: ends-Knap, Idaho, and Telesmanic, San Francisco; tackles-Wolff, Santa Clara, and Zagar, Stanford; guards-Smith, Southern Cal, Hutchins, Oregon State; center Schiechl, Santa Clara; quarterback - Landsdell, Southern Cal; halfbacks-Bottari, California, and Hoffman, Southern California; fullback-Anderson, Cal-

SPE "B": Gray, Frye, Mitchell,

Rolfe, and Shedler.

Omega hall "B": Seifert, Kurtz,

Sigma Chi "B": Thompson, SAE "B": Butler, Jellick, Cardi- Bradshaw, Hanson, Parsons, Lee, nal, Conger, Dessler, Lowe, Heilig, Hamilton, Hanen, Surles, and SAE "A": Marney, Belloni, O'- > kowski, and Hearn. (Please turn to page three)

> > Beaver"

Get tickets from Rally

ommittee members or

"Beat that

PARAMOUNT THEATER

Portland

Friday Night, Nov. 25

Stage Show and Rally start at 11 p. m. followed by regular screen program.

Six Harriers Enter Hill Race In Portland

Webfoot Team Will Run Against Coast Competition

With two months of intensive training behind them, six University of Oregon harriers, accompanied by Coach Bill Hayward and Trainer Bob Parke, will leave this afternoon for Portland where they will enter the Pacific coast intercollegiate cross-country championships tomorrow.

The six Webfoot distance men are Kirman Storli, Don Barker, Jim Schriver, Bob Mitchell, Galen Morey, and Don Tower.

Nine northwest colleges -- Oregon, Oregon State, Washington, Idaho, Portland, Willamette, Linfield, British Columbia, and Pacific-have sent in their entries for the race which will be run over the Rocky Butte course at Hill Military academy in Portland.

Preppers Run Too

The intercollegiate race will be first away in the day's running program, starting at 2:30. An hour later, the high school championships will be decided over the same

Jimmy Richardson, Multnomah stadium manager, will be starter. Matlock, Fourier, Kalina, Hutchins, The college runners will race four miles, touring the up-hill, down-hill

> Kirman Storli, long-winded half-(Please turn to page three)

Classified Ads

Phone 3300 Local 354

Packard Roto

SEE THE PACKARD Roto Shaver at Keith Fennel's University Drug Store. Reduced from $18.75 to $12.50.

• Picture Framing PICTURE FRAMING for all kinds pictures and certificates. Oriental Art Shop, 122 E. Broadway. Laundry

Mrs. Scals, 1600 Moss. Shirts 10c. AGENT, Red Anderson.

Omega hall. Ph. 3300, ext. 275 Student Service FELLOWS . . . Bring your car to Jim Smith's Richfield Station at 13th and Willamette for A-1 service.

Lost

PAIR OF GOLD-rimmed glasse Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 16 between library and 20th and Potter. Reward. Call Emerald or Erros Penland. 1946-W.

Wanted

PASSENGERS to share expenses to Bend and Burns for Thanksgiving. Phone Hayden 2612-J.

Trojans and Bears Eye Rose Bowl Bid

Coast Conference Standings

	W.	L.	Pct.	Pts.	Opp
California	6	1	.857	107	37
Southern California	5	1	.833	89	29
Oregon State	3	2	.600	33	32
UCLA	3	2	.600	33	32
Oregon	3	3	.500	50	92
Washington	2	4	.333	30	56
Stanford	2	5	.286	44	57
Washington State	0	6	.000	17	92

Thanksgiving day will be a historic day for California and Southern Cal. It is then that the turkey will arrive for one of them. Should Southern Cal lose its game with UCLA, the Golden Bears will gnaw at the drumstick and break the wish bone hoping for their second successive win in the Rose Bowl. However, a win for the Trojans will give them the opportunity to grasp at the other drumstick and wait for Washington Cougars. the committee to decide if they will get the wishbone also.

The major upset of Saturday's classics was the inspired victory gained by Oregon over Washington. The underdog Webfoot met the Huskies in their thirty-third traditional encounter.

tabulated, Oregon and Washington each held fourteen victories with annual meetings of Oregon and four games ending in a tie. But Oregon State, and that of Washthe 3-0 win by the Webfoots gave ington and Washington State. The them the deciding edge in their gain this distinction, but they also with Stanford, while the Oregon toppled the Huskies into fifth posi-

Striving desperately for that New Year's day bid, the California Bears vanquished the Stanford Indians to the tune of 6-0. They boosted themselves up to the initial position and now hold the lead by a single victory. Stanford's steady decline continued and they now hold the notch above the last-place

The Berkeley club will warm the bench Saturday, as they wait for the outcome of the USC-UCLA encounter. There are only four remaining games in the coast conference schedule. However, the Trojan-Uclan clash will be the most important. The other games Before the final results were which shall conclude the dizziest season in loop history, will be the Dartmouth Indians invade the meetings. Not only did Oregon town of Palo Alto to match plays

COEDS NOTICE!

State-UCLA clash on December 10 will wind up the season.

Women's volleyball finals will be played tonight at 5 o'clock with Susan Campbell hall matched against Kappa Kappa

CELEBRATE IN EUGENE!

if you are not going home come to our

GALA THANKSGIVING PARTY WED. EVENING, NOV. 23rd

DANCING 9 to 12 . . . . TURKEY PLATE FOR TWO DOOR PRIZES . .

.... FUN FOR EVERYONE $1.00 per Couple JEFFERSON BEACH BALLROOM

New Management . . . . . . . . . . Foot of Jefferson Street

Skiing Is Here

Buy your ski equipment and save at Hendershott

• SKIS • BINDINGS

• BOOTS • SOX

O POLES • MITTS • WAXES • CAPS

We also rent skis and ski racks

ENDERSHOTT

770 Willamette St. Telephone 151

THANKSGIVING SPECIAL to PORTLAND AND OREGON - O.S.C. GAME

> ROUNDTRIP Special Train Leaves Eugene Wednesday, Nov. 23 at 3:30 P.M. Tickets also good on regular trains leaving Eugene Wednesday, at 12:25 P.M. and 4:45 P.M.

RETURNING 2 Special Trains Leave Portland Sunday, Nov. 27 at 3 P.M. and 6:30 P.M.

Tickets also good in coaches on regular trains returning by midnight Monday. Buy tickets early at Ticket Booth on 15th St., between Oregon and Commerce Buildings.

SPONSORED BY ASSOCIATED STUDENTS

University of Oregon