

Gale Leads Pack In Scoring Totals

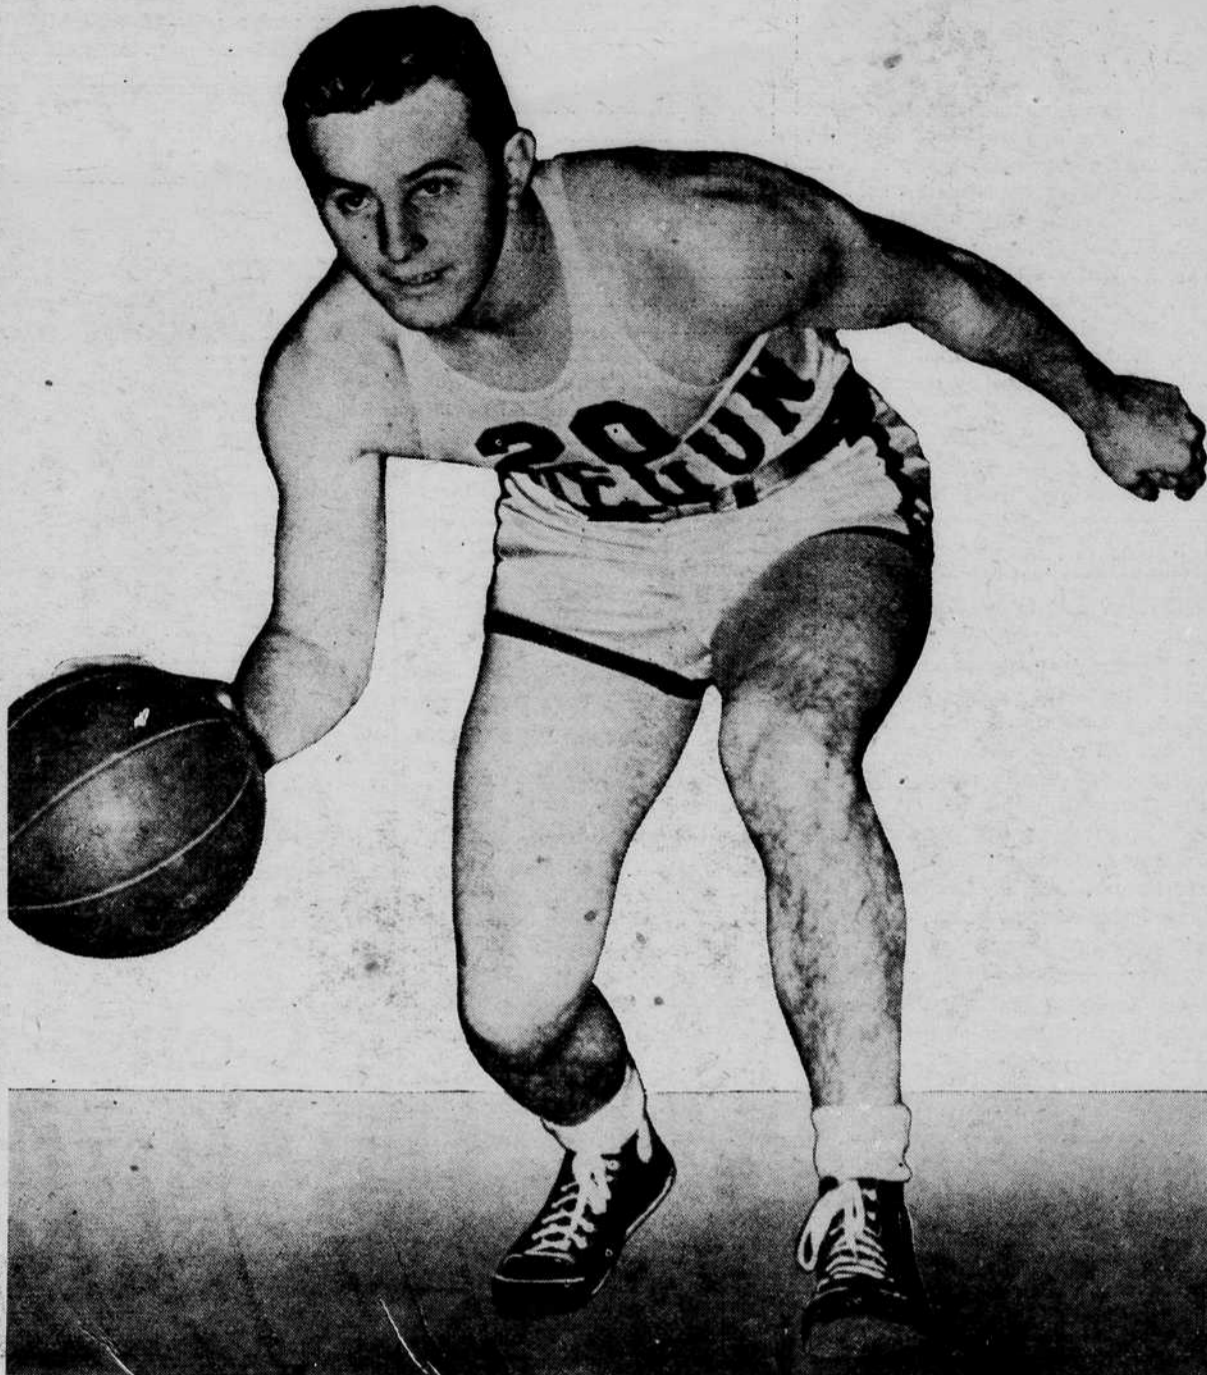

166 Points Chalked Up in 13 Pre-Season Engagements

Laddie Gale, the Oakridge marksman who led coast scorers last year with 408 points, boomed to the front in the scoring totals in pre-season play with 166 counters to his credit in 13 games played.

The big boy who possesses a pair of hands which can cradle a ball with ease has his the hoop for 166 points, an average of nearly 13 a game.

Watch Out Cougars, It's Bobby!

Bobby Anet . . . acting captain of Oregon's varsity basketball machine, ball hawk, court general, and feeder. He'll face Washington State at the Igloo tonight and Saturday.

Acting Captain Anet Boosts Point Total

Leader of the Ducks—that's Bob Anet, Oregon's hard-driving guard. The stocky Anet is one of five Astorians on the Webfoot squad. He starred at Astoria high under John Warren and came to Oregon along with the big frosh mentor.

Last year, he scored 178 points and gained a reputation in the northwest for his ball-handling and "feeding" ability.

This year, as a senior, Anet is set to make it his biggest year. Already, he has scored nearly half of his last season's total, totaling 87 points in 13 pre-season games.

Colorful and steady, Anet captained last year's team, and although no official leader has been named by the Ducks this year, Anet has been conspicuous in his work as acting Webfoot floor captain.
