Oregon Mermen Tip San Jose Staters, 54 to 21

Winners Garner Six First Places; Losers Get Three

The Ducks "went a slummin'" Saturday night, which means in effect that they took a night off. Nobody would dispute that. A sport adage of long ago, "you can't win 'em all" goes for the 50 to 31 rout suffered at the hands of Oregon State.

The Webfoot swimming team ended its California invasion Saturday afternoon by waxing San Jose State college, 54 to 21. The Oregon men copped six first places, while Coach Charlie Walker's Spartans garnered three.

Two of San Jose's wins were the result of stellar performances of Captain Martin Wempe. Wempe, barely recovered from a mid-winter illness, won the 200-yard free-style and the 440-yard free-style. The other Spartan winner was Martin, who took top diving honors away from Oregon's Ralph Cathey.

Three Straight

The Ducks' 300-yard medley relay team made it three straight for their southern jaunt, as Jack Levy, Jack Dallas, and Pierce Mallory cutran the Spartans, posting the time of 3:15. Levy replaced Wetmore, who swam against both California and Stanford tankmen.

Jack Dallas and Sherman Wetmore won their events—200-yard breast stroke and 150-yard backstroke—in each of the three dual meets. Ralph Lafferty posted a second against the San Jose men. Levy, Duck captain, also aided in the Ducks' landslide of points, when he came in second to Wetmore.

Defeated by Stanford and California, the Webfoot 400-yard free-style squad surpassed San Jose State.

Summary:
300-yard medley relay—Won by Oregon (Levy, Dallas, and Mallory). Time, 3:15.
200-yard free-style—Won by M. Wempe, San Jose; second, Wetmore, Oregon; third, Goodwin, San Jose. Time, 2:22.5.
50-yard free-style—Starbuck and Marnie, Oregon, tied for first; third, A. Wempe, San Jose. Time, 2:56.

100-yard free-style—Won by Starbuck, Oregon; second, Mallory, Oregon; third, Birlem, San Jose. Time, 5:77.
150-yard backstroke—Won by Wetmore, Oregon; second, Levy, Oregon; third, Walker, San Jose. Time, 1:46.
200-yard breast stroke—Won by Dallas, Oregon; second, Lafferty, Oregon; third, Ofstad, San Jose. Time, 2:33.

Diving—Won by Martin, San Jose, 136.04 points; second, Cathey, Oregon, 112.05 points; third, E. Mallory, Oregon, 111.95 points.
440-yard free-style—Won by M. Wempe, San Jose; second, Levy, Oregon; third, Goodwin, San Jose. Time, 5:30.2.
400-yard relay—Won by Oregon (Marnie, Wetmore, Mallory, and Starbuck); second, San Jose (Birlem, Baehr, A. Wempe, and M. Wempe). Time, 3:53.2.

The Beavers were hot (they admit that) and the Webfoots were cold (everyone admits that). When two such factors combine in one game you've got something.

How badly "off" the Ducks were in shooting alone may be gleaned from shooting averages kept by a Webfoot statistician. Figuring that Oregon took 53 shots and Oregon State 55, their comparative shooting averages are .164 and .396. And that is not a misprint. It shows Oregon State over twice as effective in floor shooting. Field baskets were Oregon 9, Oregon State 21.

The Webfoots are starting from scratch this week. Hobby has demoted his first stringers to the status of the rest of his squad, pointing out that the "off" part of Oregon's basketball against Oregon State was more than just a five-man slump. So for this Friday's return game against the Staters he promises to send his five most efficient men on the floor.

Northern Division Scoring Lead. Laddie Gale's three points against Oregon State constituted pretty much of a record for himself. Discounting his sophomore year, 1937, when he was handicapped with a broken hand and was trying to break into the Oregon lineup, he has in four years done worse only once.

As a freshman under John Warren in '36, Laddie got into 18 of the Duckling's 19 games and posted a record total of 219 points. Wally Johansen, second, was far behind with 137. It was early in his first year that Laddie Gale scored a single point as the frosh trimmed Wendling by a 41 to 34 score. Laddie played center and forward and it's very possible he wasn't in that game very long.

In a 43 to 16 rout against Tillamook during that same year he was held to two field goals and four points. In his other games he averaged a bit over 12.5 points per. That pace against Oregon State and Washington in Oregon's last three games would net Laddie Gale a new 16-game northern division scoring mark with over a field goal to spare.

For defeating Theta Chi in a donut basketball game, the ATOs offered the Sammies a keg of beer. . . . The Sammies carried not very long in one place and won their game from the Theta Chis. . . . Oregon's varsity swimmers, back from their three-meet invasion of California report that San Francisco is a mad-house what with the fair crowd running amuck. . . . Ned Johns' mermen defeated University of California and San Jose on their journey, losing to Stanford.

Betas Defeat ATOs In Donut Handball

Beta Theta Pi won a 2 to 1 victory over Alpha Tau Omega yesterday in intramural handball. George Corey won his singles match from Jack Stafford, ATO, 21-17 and 21-14.

Tom Robertson and Karl Koch, Beta doubles team, defeated Leonard Isberg and Len Eaton, 21-11, 21-19.

Only ATO winner was Johnny Davis who beat Hal Duden, 9-21, 21-17, and 22-20.

The Best Skiers Are Grateful for

Here's a group of University of Nevada students taking time out for lunch and rest after a busy morning of skiing. They played host at Reno to a recent intercollegiate ski carnival which Oregon's four-man team participated in.

All Champs Must Lose; Webfoots Do, 50 to 31

Oregon Win Streak Checked at Ten Consecutive Games by Oregon State In Bewildering Scoring Avalanche

Even the best must lose once in a while! Oregon's tall basketballers found that out much to their dismay Saturday night when a reformed Oregon State club dropped the Ducks by a huge 50-31 score.

After 10 straight wins, the Ducks had one coming, but the tragedy was that they should suffer their letdown just when Oregon State was having one of those "on" nights. The Ducks couldn't do anything right. They couldn't hang on to the ball, they couldn't hit the bucket, and they couldn't even dribble.

The Beavers, for their part, were hotter than a proverbial four alarm blaze. They ran right through Oregon's defense, and they hit 21 out of 55 shots at the basket.

Miss Plenty
Oregon got only 9 baskets in 53 attempts.

Then too, the Webfoots failed to check one Elmer Kolberg, former star football player, close enough. Large Elmer potted 17 points, and almost single handedly ruined the Ducks. Elmer hit them from all angles. Long and short shots all meant baskets when Kolberg let fly. In fact, the only way Oregon could have stopped the very torrid Mr. Kolberg would have been to wrap a blanket around him to put out the flame, he was that hot.

While this was going on, Laddie Gale, Oregon's high scoring forward, was having a terrible time. He couldn't seem to find the range and wound up his night's work with only three points. Tall Laddie now must average 12 points a game in the final three contests to top Wally Palmberg's mark of 137 points. Gale has 152.

Washington Close Second

The defeat left the Ducks with 11 wins and two setbacks. Washington, in second place, has won 10 and lost 3.

Yesterday afternoon the Ducks and Coach Hobson held a council of war and then began preparation for Friday's fourth and final encounter with the Beavers, at McArthur court this time.

Revenge will be the keynote of practices this week. Scrimmage is due, and all positions are wide open, Coach Hobson declared last night.

Laddie Gale and Wally Johansen both received injuries in the Oregon State game and both will not report for practice for a couple of days. Gale is expected to be ready to play by Friday, but it is doubtful if Johansen will be available.

Coach Hobson indicated that several reserves, notably Bob Hardy, Matt Pavalunas, Ted Sarpola, and Ford Mullen, may crash the Duck starting lineup.

Susies were leading and gave the Greek letter hoopsters no chance to rally.

Tiny Pat Lawson, shining axample of forward on the dorm team, was high scorer with four field goals.

Lucky Aces, "A" champions, stopped the Theta sextet Saturday afternoon, 23 to 5. Betty Giddings ran wild to score nine points and Mary Rear was right behind her for high-scoring honors with eight points.

Pi Phi fell before an Orides onslaught led by Lois Neilson, 33-3.

Emerald Team Bows To Barometer, 22-21

The strong Emerald quintet was forced to bow to a mighty onslaught of Barometer strength at Corvallis Saturday afternoon. The score ended with the Staters having just one more point than the Emeralds at 22 to 21.

Seldom have the maple boards of the Oregon State gym seen such an array of talent, perhaps not basketball, that blessed the team and benches of the rival dailies. The Emerald defeated the Barometer here by 32 to 28.

The play-off of this series, considered in sport circles one of the most grueling contests waged by man, will be played here Friday afternoon at McArthur court.

The Emerald led the game's scoring until the last few minutes when "Handlebar Hank" Garnjobst sank a couple of one-handed shots to help the mighty Beavers forge ahead. Hansen and Shipley turned in good games at the backboard for Oregon.

Gale Maintains Scoring Lead With 152 Points

Center Wintermute Has 137 Tallies For Second Spot

Laddie Gale, the northern division's big chief in scoring, had his basket-slinging practically stopped by Oregon State Saturday, but a field goal and a free throw boosted his total to 152. Totals do not include last night's Idaho-Washington game.

In second place is Webfoot Center Slim Wintermute with 137 tallies, and in the third spot is Roy Williamson of Washington with a 126 total. John Dick is in seventh for Oregon with 87 tallies, and Wally Johansen's 70 are enough to hold the Webfoot guard in position No. 13.

Is Still Close

Gale's 152 total is still within hailing distance of Wally Palmberg's 1936 record of 187. To crash the Oregon Stater's three-year-old 16-game mark, the rangy Oregon forward needs an average of 12 for his last three games against Oregon State and Washington (two against the Huskies a week from Friday and Saturday).

Fizzed Quintet Captures 'B' Hoop Championship From SAE Club, 49 to 25

Winners Come From Behind in Second Period to Grab Lead in Rough Scrap; Boroughs High With 11 Points

By JACK LEE

A high-scoring Fizzed quintet won the "B" championship yesterday afternoon by outscoring a scrappy Sigma Alpha Epsilon ball club, 49 to 25. This tilt was the last of the intramural basketball season.

Starting slowly, the Fizzeds gained momentum as the game progressed. SAE scored six points before the Fizzeds were able to garner a single encounter. The score at the end of the first period favored SAE, 6 to 1.

Fizzeds Take Over

The second quarter saw the Fizzeds overtake their opponents and gain an 11-to-10 lead at half time. The game was a real thriller during the entire first two periods with each team playing clever ball.

After the Fizzeds gained the lead, it was just a matter of time. Harry Lowe and Bill Cardinal succeeded in holding the score down for the first half but in the second half it was all Fizzed. With Denny Donovan, versatile quarterback on Tex Oliver's grid machine, and Burton Boroughs leading the way the Fizzeds built up a 25-to-15 margin at the end of the third period.

Rough and Tough

Both teams got a little toward the rough side in the last quarter, and as a result three men were ousted from the tilt on four personal fouls. A peculiar oddity in this game was the fact that all three players who had four personal fouls on them were football players. Ernie Robertson was the first to leave the contest, being closely followed by "Curly" Beckner and Al Samuelson. While both teams were fouling the Fizzeds managed to run up a few counters to win.

For the Fizzeds, Boroughs and Donovan were the shining lights, while Lowe and Cardinal stood out for SAE.

Webfoot, Beaver Boxers to Engage

Dual Affair Set for UO Gymnasium Saturday Night

In a long-awaited match, University of Oregon boxers and wrestlers encounter the Oregon State gladiators Saturday night in the men's gymnasium.

As in all Oregon-Oregon State encounters, this will be no exception and will be a bitterly contested affair.

Webfoot grapplers, ready to go after a tie with Washington and a win over Linfield, will field a strong team.

The Duck newly-found boxing strength has been in intensive training and will take on a more highly rated team in the mele.

WRESTLERS NOTICE!

Dale Peterson, Mitt and Mat club president, announces a meeting for all grapplers and leather-pushers at the men's gymnasium tonight at 7:15.

Coed Hoop Play Nears Final Round

Semi-finals in the coed intramural basketball tourney will be played today. Hendricks hall will meet the Chi Os at 4 p.m. in the indoor gym, then at 5 p.m. the Lucky Aces will face the Co-op hoopers.

The winners of these two tilts will meet in the finals at 4:30 p.m. on Wednesday.

Gamma Phi and Theta are playing a make-up game in the outdoor gym at 4 p.m.
