Revenge is Keynote Of Hoop Preparation

Reserves Spark in Close Tilt Against Varsity; Hobson Threatens Shakeup For Friday's Starting Lineup

By GEORGE PASERO

Revenge (with a capital R) was the "battle anthem" of Oregon's Ducks yesterday as Coach Hobby Hobson held a shakeup stick over his entire squad in a long scrimmage session at McArthur court. Issuing an ultimatum to his first stringers to either play ball or take a seat on the bench, the Duck mentor, far from satisfied with the showing of his men, announced that "all positions are wide open." And with this threat hanging over their heads, the Duck "first ten" battled long and hard to down a spirited team of "yellows" by only seven points.

In the role of the Orangemen, the "yellows" — Earl Sandness, Toivvo Pippo, Porky Andrews, Archie Marshik, Gib Wiley, Tini Smith, and Red McNeely—showed surprising strength in the face of the "first team" fire. And it was not until the final few minutes of the long scrimmage game, that Hobby's Ducks managed to beat the super-varsity.

Against the "yellows," the Ducks had trouble hitting the basket, but nevertheless, it was apparent that they "were out for blood." Still smarting from the beating at OSC's hands, they charged and they battled at the backboards.

Faced with the prospect of meeting Oregon State here Friday without the services of little Wally Johansen, the Duck mentor moved Matt Pavalunas, chubby guard, into a first string guard position. The slippery Astorian was injured in the bruising Oregon State battle at Corvallis last Saturday night, and it is doubtful if he will be ready to play Friday.

In an attempt to find a "clicking" combination, Coach Hobson juggled his lineup in the scrimmage session. The Ducks opened with Slim Wintermute at center, John Dick and Laddie Gale at the forward position, and Matt Pavalunas and Bobby Anet at the guard posts.

It wasn't long, however, before Bob Hardy had gone in at center, Ted Sarpola at a forward berth, and Ford Mullen at a guard slot. At the end of practice, Coach Hobson commented on the work of Substitute Ted Sarpola. Sarpola, Hardy, and Mullen, all are expected to see plenty of action against the Beavers, and one or more may gain a starting berth. More practice is in line for the Webfoots before Friday's crucial game. Until then Coach Hobson will leave nothing undone to prevent a recurrence of last Saturday's catastrophe.

All-Campus Competition Advances Toward Finals; Finishes Within a Week

Henry Spivak Earns Fencing Title; Handball, Ping Pong, and Badminton Competitors Contend for Honors

By PAUL McCARTY

All-campus sports, including handball, ping pong, and badminton singles and doubles, and fencing, the ones that attract competitors for possible all-school championships, are nearing the finals and new campus champions will probably be announced the latter part of this week or the first part of next week.

The only champion to be crowned so far is Henry Spivak, who won the fencing title. Spivak drew a bye in the first round and beat Norman Angell and Fred Raso to win the championship. Ping pong drew 51 contestants, the largest number of competitors in any of the all-campus sports. Ping pong has reached the semi-finals and Bob Stafford, Theta Chi, the only man to reach the finals thus far and who beat Edgar Anderson in the quarter-finals, will meet either John Sherman or M. Pedigo, who will fight it out in the other bracket for the remaining finalist position.

Unbeaten Named Quarter-finalists, besides the ones already named, were Roland Rodman, M. Pedigo, and H. Aylsworth.

Badminton singles has only reached the quarter-finals. The participants have been narrowed to J. Newton, Carl Robertson, Leonard Clark and Dick Barger. In badminton doubles Jim Kurtz and Robertson, who entered the singles, are both in the doubles semi-finals but are paired with different teammates, the former with J. Newton and the latter with Earl Silva. Only four teams were entered in this sport.

Idaho Vandals Invade Eugene For Swim Meet

Oregon Boys Face Moscow Mermen On Saturday

An invasion by the Idaho Vandals Saturday, February 25 is stirring excitement among the Oregon natators. The capabilities of the Inland Empire swimmers is somewhat of a mystery to Coaches Jim Reed and Ned Johns. But Coach Bob Tessier's boys are reported to have potential power.

The mainstay of the Idaho team is Dick Slade, who paced his fellows to a 39 to 29 victory over the University of Montana earlier in the season. Slade is a consistent high point man in the 100-, 220-, and 440-yard free-style events. He has been clocked at 61.3 seconds in the century, and 2:51 in the 220. He receives able assistance from Walton Unness.

Vandals Are Tough Jack LaFavour and Irving Raum are Coach Tessier's hopes in the fancy diving event. LaFavour did not attend school during the first semester. The Vandals will be represented in the 300-yard medley relay by Jay Nungester, Doug Edwards, and Glenn Hunter. This trio posted the time of 3:46.4 in the Idaho-Montana fray. Albert Dodds and Jimmy Johnston specialize in the 50-yard dash and the 100-yard free-style. Backstroke men are Norman Skjersa and Doug Edwards. Oregon's Jack Dallas and Ralph Lafferty will oppose Jensen and Hunter in the 200-yard breast stroke. Unness, Skjersa, Dodds, and Nungester will oppose the Duck 400-yard relay squad, and Graham Walley carries the Vandal colors in the 440-yard free-style.

Coaches Johns and Reed were pleased with the showing of their swimmers in California. Naming the highlights of the California trip, Johns said that the 440-yard free-style event was the feature of the Berkeley meet. Sherman Wetmore, who swam for Tom Starbuck, who was ill, was keeping pace with a California man in second place. Nearing the end of the race, the Webfoot cut loose to pass the leading swimmer and win the event. Mentor Reed commented on the exciting dead-heat finish of Jim Marnie and Tom Starbuck in the 50-yard dash at San Jose. Jack Levy, Duck captain, showed talent in the backstroke.

Victory Hopes Weighed The Oregon coaches regard chances of a win for their tankmen in the Northwest conference meet March 25 in Seattle as good. They will concentrate on improving their free-stylers, who, Coach Johns said, will determine the likelihood of a Duck win. The next scheduled meet for the freshman swimmers is with the Oregon State Rooks, Saturday March 4, when the varsity also tangles with the Orangemen. Negotiations are being made with Bob Fraser, Palo Alto high school coach, for a telegraphic meet with his swimmers. Meets will also be scheduled with University high school and Eugene high school.

Bailey's Loss Hurts Duck Boxing Hopes Mitters, Grapplers Face Oregon State There Saturday Oregon's winning hopes are lessened for their meet with Oregon State boxers and wrestlers set for Saturday evening in the men's gymnasium in Corvallis, with Jim Bailey, rubbery-muscled heavy-weight, out of the boxing picture. Bailey was taken to Portland with a badly infected tooth. Herb Colwell, boxing and wrestling coach, has no man for the 128-pound go. Webfoot chances in the wrestling half of the double-feature are considerably better. Both Oregon and Oregon State have defeated Linfield college by impressive scores. The Beavers defeated Washington's grapplers. Oregon tied the Huskies. The boxing lineup for the Lemon and Green leather-pushers includes: Jack Frick, 175; Pete Thorne, 165; Merle Hanscom, 155; Cam Collier, 145; Wayne Towne, 135; and Jim Greco, 120. Oregon wrestlers are: Willie Williams, heavyweight; Dale Peterson, 175; Ray Foster, 165; A' Conger, 155; Mort Myers, 145; Jim Mountain or Burt Dake, 135; Bill Lauderback, 128; and Wendell Haley, 120.

Trio of Cindermen Depart for South

Varoff, Storli, Dod To Compete in Two California Meets

Setting their compass for San Francisco's Treasure Island, scene of the Golden Gate world's fair, three stellar Oregon trackmen shoved off for California at 6 o'clock this morning.

Headed by Captain George Varoff, former holder of both the outdoor and indoor vaulting records, and including Kirman Storli and Lloyd Dod, the three-man Webfoot contingent will take part in two meets at the pageant site.

Saturday, February 25, the Duck trackmen will compete in the Pacific coast championship, and a week later, on Monday, they will face some of the best athletes in the nation in the Golden Gate Exposition invitational meet.

The Webfoots will work out today on the Redding high school field at Redding, California. Storli will enter the 1,000-yard run at both meets while Dod will enter the 60-yard hurdles. Dod, a transfer from San Mateo junior college, has looked good in early-season workouts, according to Coach Bill Hayward.

Donut Wrestling Begins Today With 26 Battlers

Matches in 145 and 155-Pound Classes To Be Staged

The opening rounds of intramural wrestling in the 145 and 155-pound divisions starts this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Matches will start every five minutes and continue until the 26 contests scheduled for today are finished. Roland Dickie, assistant intramural sports director, advised every contestant to be in suit 15 minutes before wrestling.

Contestants who entered the 145- and 155-pound divisions but are not listed in the pairings were declared ineligible because of failure to turn in heart checks.

Starting at 4 o'clock, the following will wrestle today at five-minute intervals in the order given:

Pairings Named 145-pound division—Bill Cummings vs. Bob Chappel, Galen Moore vs. Carl Little, Rod Hansen vs. Doug Hat, Lorey Putnam vs. Lloyd Johnson, Lloyd Sullivan vs. Norman Angell, Gerald Huestis vs. Bob Payne, John Craig vs. Bob Black, John Wilson vs. Harry Davidson, Herb Anderson vs. George Yeager, Harry Lowe vs. Jim Frickett, Paul Cushing, Cam Collier, Bill Potter, Dick Shannon, Charles Phelps, and Len Eaton drew byes and will not wrestle until the second round.

155-pound division—Jack Christensen vs. Paul Bocci, Ted Steele vs. Frank Grey, Wes Steele vs. Dave Scoggin, Frank Anderson vs. Paul Ackerman, Bill Wygant vs. Dave Atkinson, Verdi Sederstrom vs. Ehrman Guistina, Gene Sharp vs. Ralph Fullerton, Don Tower vs. Roland Rodman, Stan Buck vs. Waldo Canfield, Clark Weaver vs. Dick Edenholm, Hal Ellicott vs. Bill Sanders, Earl Maynard vs. Dick May, Bud Rousseau vs. George Aruckie, Ed Wyatt vs. Bob Clay, Jack Boone vs. Karl Zimmerman, Ray Houghton vs. Jim Hickey.

The 155-pound section had a full quota of entrants, 32, which accounts for there being no byes. Matches in the 145- and 155-pound divisions are being run off first because these sections have the largest number of contestants.

erson, 175; Ray Foster, 165; A' Conger, 155; Mort Myers, 145; Jim Mountain or Burt Dake, 135; Bill Lauderback, 128; and Wendell Haley, 120.

Co-op to Meet Chi Os in Final Coed Hoop Tilt

Hendricks, Lucky Aces Dropped in Semi-Finals

Co-op hoopers stopped the Lucky Aces, 15 to 12, yesterday in the semi-finals of coed intramural basketball. Today they will meet the Chi Os, who defeated Hendricks hall, 24-13, in the other semi-final match for the final play-offs at 4:30 p.m.

The first quarter ended 9 to 2 for the Co-ops, but during the second quarter the Lucky Aces really played basketball. They kept the Co-op scoreless for those eight minutes and ran up their score until it stood 8-9, Co-op, at the half-time whistle.

Close Throughout By the end of another quarter, Meryl Rear had connected on a field goal to put the Independents ahead, 11-10. "Cookie" Schaffer made it 12-10, "Rusty" Tomlinson tied the score, and then "Sis" Swango added one point and Hope Dondero settled it at 15-12.

Lineups: Co-op (15) (12) Lucky Aces Dondero (6) F (1) Giddings Swango (4) F (4) Schaffer Tomlinson (5) F (3) Oldfield Retzlaff G James Donaldson G Winniford Snyder G Kallander Cramer S (4) Rear S Banich Officials: Warrine Eastburn, Ruth Russell.

Chi O 24, Hendricks 13

The Chi O squad had no trouble at all with Hendricks hall as they downed them, 24-13, in yesterday's semi-final round. Both sextets had their eye on the finals today, so it was hard, fast playing. Chi O's Robin Nelson was high scorer with 14 points but Ethel Dixon, dorm captain, was close on her tail with 10 tallies.

Lineups: Chi O (24) (13) Hendricks Nelson (14) F (1) Wodaegge Foster (3) F (10) Dixon Murray (7) F Spies Kurtz C Bamford Hutchins G (2) Frizzell Young G Lindblad Brigham S

Officials: Ruth Russell, Dorthalee Horne, Warrine Eastburn.

Thetas 16, Gamma Phi 13 The Thetas squeezed out a 16-13 victory over the Gamma Phis in a make-up game yesterday. Angie Adesich, Theta forward, was high scorer with 13 points. Gamma Phi's Frances Roth came next with nine points.

Read 'em and weep! Here they are. In the opinion of the Emerald intramural basketball reporters, Wayne Scott, Kerm Silverwood, "Wimpy" Quinn, Stu Marsee, and Rod Hansen stand out as the peer of the donut players in the "A" league and were chosen as the quintet to represent the all-star team.

If these five men could be made into one team they would indeed constitute a powerful quintet. This team possesses height, a bunch of sharpshooters, and a powerful defense. It was a very difficult job to select five players because there were many outstanding players participating in donut basketball.

Wayne Scott, forward, was the pacemaker of the ATO quintet. He was a deadly shot from any angle on the court and was especially adept at making free throws. The Pi Kap game was where "Satchel" was at his peak.

Kermit Silverwood, forward — Teaming with Rudy King, he made a combination that would be hard to beat in any league. These two players made up the bulwark of the Pi Kap quintet. Silverwood, by virtue of his showing in the ATO game won a first team berth.

Wellington "Wimpy" Quinn, center—the elongated center of the Beta quintet was especially strong off the backboards. After every scramble "Wimpy" would usually emerge with the ball. He also possessed a deadly shooting eye.

Stuart Marsee, left guard—the speedy red-thatched guard of the Fizzeds was a bulwark on defense. Any man that Marsee was supposed to check in a game really got checked. He also was able to sink an occasional howitzer from mid-court.

Rod Hansen, right guard—Rod started out the season playing "B" ball but was soon found to be of "A" caliber. From the first of the season Hansen has never experienced a game in which he had an off night. If he was not scoring
