

Oregon Quintet Sweeps California Series for Coast Honors

Bears Beaten Twice At Igloo in Thrillers

Championship Is First for University Since 1919 Season—Twenty Long Years; Scores Are 54 to 49 and 53 to 47

Twenty long years! That's exactly how long the University of Oregon has had to wait for a second coast conference championship in basketball. And Friday night, as the final gun clinched the coast title for the Webfoots, McArthur court was a bedlam. Over 6,000 wild fans "broke" an uproar that told a story of a deep satisfaction, of a great desire, and of delirious joy.

The Ducks had done it. They had battered a gallant California team that found it hard-pressed indeed to keep up with the dashing Ducks for two nights, winning 54 to 49 and 53 to 47.

Priestly Insults 'Em

They had answered California's graduate manager, Ken Priestly, who said during the playoff mix, "It looks like Oregon doesn't want to play us." And they had become the first Webfoot team to win the coast tiara since Dean Walker coached Eddie Durio, Nish Chapman and the rest of the 1919 "Immortals" to a coast crown.

What's more, they scored over 50 points twice against California, the first time this year that an opponent has been able to do so against the tall Bears who average better than the 6-foot 3-inch mark.

The first game saw both teams jittery at the start, with Oregon leading 20 to 19 at halftime. But in the second period, the Ducks bewildered the Bears with a driving, whirlwind attack that literally swept the California representatives off their feet.

Stage Big Spree

From a tie at 21 to 21 after three quarters of a minute of play in the second half, the Oregon boys, suddenly displaying the driving fire they had lacked in the first half, in 7 1/2 minutes rolled up to a 16-point advantage.

The Bears kept threatening after that, but the damage was done, and Oregon coasted in.

In this game, Laddie Gale, displaying his scoring form of last year, rang up 18 points to lead the Ducks.

California's Golden Bears wasted no time in going to work the second night, running up a 9 to 3 lead on beautifully timed plays. The Ducks' captain, Bobby Anet, called a time out, and the tall first settled, down to their task. At halftime, they led 25 to 23, and never were headed after that.

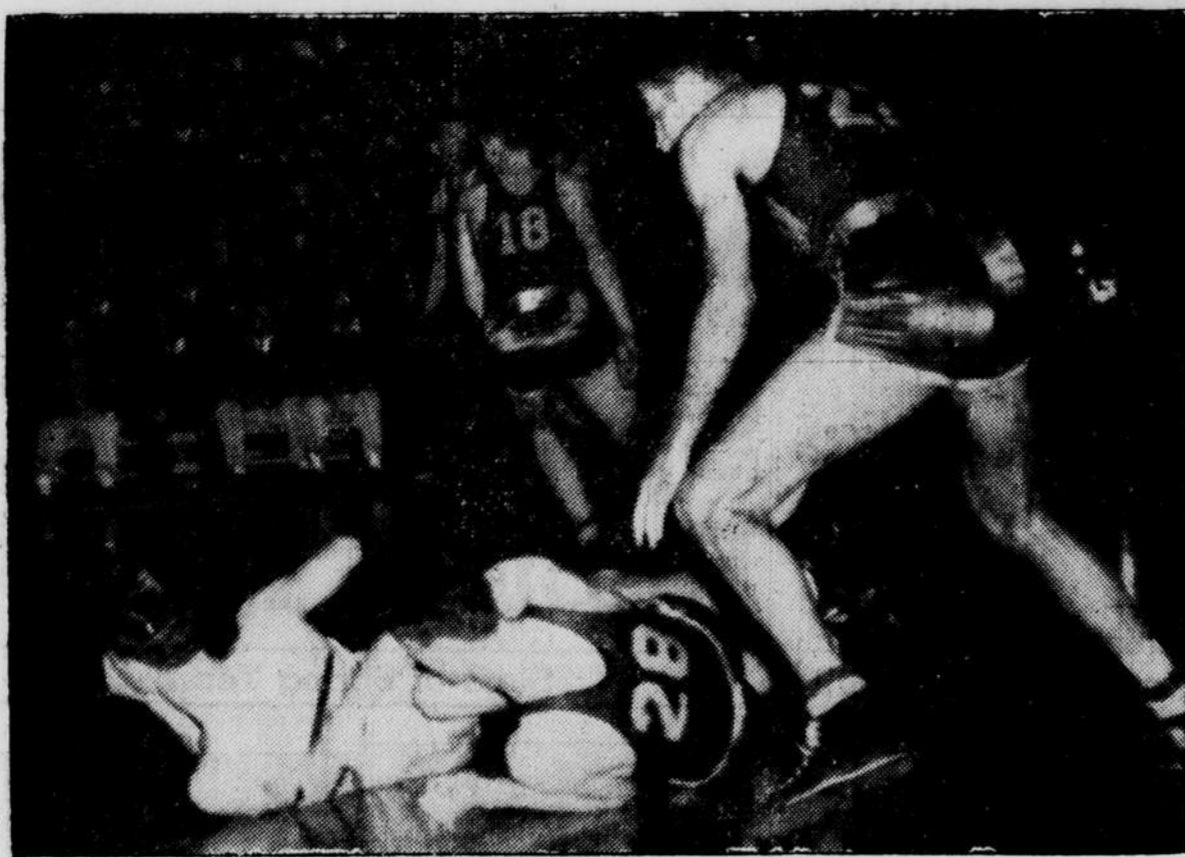

John Dick and Slim Wintermute led the Duck scoring parade with 16 points each.
