DUCK TRACKS

By ELBERT HAWKINS

Colonel Bill Hayward issues a statement which ought to thrill every aspiring American boy who wants to be a cinderman. Colonel Bill's edict: "Any kid who is tall, and has a stride, can make a track team." To that he adds, "I like

Whitman Tops Frosh Batsmen

Team Hitting Mark Is .325 for Eleven Games to Date

Dick Whitman, slugging frosh outfielder, leads his teammates in batting with a neat .490 average. Whitman has collected 25 hits in 51 times at bat to lead his nearest competitor, "Whitey" Austin, by 105 percentage points.

The frosh have a "murderers row," consisting of Whitman, Austin, Lee Carrilho, and Bill Carney. All four of these lads are hitting well over .300 and constitute the main batting punch on Warren's team. Jim Goodhew, lanky first baseman from Los Angeles, has found his batting eye and is now within striking distance of the four

In the eleven games this season the frosh have amassed a total of 125 hits in 385 times at bat for a 46 team average of .325. The Duck-38 lings have also accounted for 120 runs for an average of over 11 runs to the game. Frosh opponents have scored 83 runs for an av-.61 erage of over 7 runs to the game. .59 Warren's crew has committed 35 56 miscues thus far in season's play.

There is a possibility of a game 49 with Milwaukie this afternoon on 18 Howe field. John Warren has been 48 out of town due to his mother's ..48 illness, and the tilt may be post-(Continued from page two)
