

Weekend Society

By MARY K. RIORDAN

Taking advantage of one of the few weekends of the year when the majority of Oregon mothers are on the campus, fraternities, sororities, and halls will squeeze in special parent-honoring affairs of their own in the full weekend to augment the Junior Weekend slate.

A number of luncheons and dinners have been arranged for over the weekend by various living organizations. Every house has planned to entertain the mothers at Sunday dinner in their respective houses at 1 o'clock.

Alpha Tau Omega freshmen will enact the year's big activities in a skit at the special dinner Sunday. The main events of the year which have affected the lives of the different members of that fraternity will be reviewed.

The Delta Tau Delta house will be open for the inspection of mothers Saturday and Sunday. Transportation will be provided for the visitors to show them the campus.

A bridge party has been arranged by Sigma Nus from 3 to 5 this afternoon. They recently vied with other fraternities for the title of "the most bridge playing men on the campus."

Eugene Kappa Alpha Theta mothers are entertaining all mothers and friends after the canoe fete Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. H. Gordon at 1063 21st avenue east.

Phi Kappa Psi is planning their Sunday dinner on the lawn by the millrace. Sigma Chi members will entertain their mothers at dinner with a pantomime, after which they will offer several special musical arrangements.

Many mothers staying at sorority houses over the weekend will be guests at firesides arranged tonight and Saturday nights after closing hours. Favorite songs, especially individual house songs and Oregon tunes, will be sung in special arrangements for them.

One of the largest affairs planned for Saturday afternoon is the open house to be held at the Susan Campbell dormitory. Members of Orides, Yeomen, Hendricks hall, and the six men's dormitories have been invited to attend with their mothers. Spring flowers will decorate the rooms. The entire dormitory will be open for inspection.

Kappa Kappa Gamma Eugene mothers are planning a luncheon for all other visiting Kappa mothers Saturday at 1 o'clock at the Episcopal church, Thirteenth and Pearl streets.

Alpha Omicron Pi has made extensive plans for its mothers. This evening a dinner is scheduled at 6 o'clock. A luncheon Saturday and a buffet dinner Saturday night is also listed. Sunday morning mothers will be guests at a breakfast when they will be presented with corsages.

Theta Chi Eugene mothers will have a luncheon at Mrs. H. C.

Mothers Wisecrack in Letters to Sons, Daughters

By SALLY MITCHELL

Snatches of letters from Oregon mothers accepting their sons' and daughters' invitations to the Junior Weekend festivities reveal both wit and maternal understanding.

"You won't have to bother about getting me a date," one mother wrote, "because daddy has decided to go down with me."

"Don't forget to meet me at the station," another parent wrote. "You'll be able to recognize me because I'll be the good lookingest one there."

'It Might Snow'

From a California mother came the reply, "I'd really like to be there for your Junior Weekend, but I'd be afraid to gamble against Oregon weather. It might even snow."

Auld's home for out of town mothers visiting the campus Saturday.

"Your invitation was very nice," replied one mother. "Your father and I were particularly pleased that you omitted your usual p.s. You know—money!"

"I'll be expecting you to show me all the sights," said another lady, "and, oh yes, I'll get a chance to see that cemetery that some of your fraternity brothers have told me about."

"Is the millrace too cold to swim in," queried one coed's mother, "or will I have to be content with a "Every Junior Weekend I expect big things," said another parent, "and I've never yet been disappointed."

FROM 'WAY BACK—
THEY'VE GOT MILDNESS AND GOOD TASTE, TOO!

POPULAR JIMMY FOXX—winner of the 1938 American League batting crown, and voted the most valuable player in the League last year—greet the new 1939 baseball season with a confident smile and a Camel! Camels rate high with Jimmy. "I gave a lot of thought to the subject of cigarettes—made experiments too—before I settled down to Camels for keeps! Camels are better tasting—and they're milder." Be curious enough to try Camels yourself. Smoke six packs—and you'll see why Camels are the most popular cigarette in the world. Appealing flavor—pleasing aroma—call it what you will, but there's no mistaking the fact that Camels give the supreme thrill of smoking pleasure at its best.
