Bailey's Washington Staters Check Winning Streak

Duck's Road Journey Ends Today

On the night of December 16, 1939, University of Oregon's defending national basketball champions will scamper onto the boards of Madison Square Garden, New York, for their second appearance there in two years.

Long Island, you'll recall, won a lot of games last year and took some wind out of Oregon's sails by claiming a mythical national championship.

Nevertheless some bitter remarks came out of the East about our basketball greats. For instance, Tom Meaney of the New York World Telegram wrote, "Oregon's victory over Ohio State in the basketball finals is a long distance boost for NY teams. C.C.N.Y. found several of the locals tougher than Oregon."

Oregon lost to City College of New York in last year's Madison Square Garden opener by a two-point margin in a game which coaches later agreed was officiated purely from a home town viewpoint.

Anyway, it'll be Long Island in Madison Square Garden on December 16. Three other games are definitely billed for the Webfoots: Temple at Philadelphia on December 18.

Purdue at Lafayette on December 23.

DePaul at Chicago on December 25.

A game with Wayne university in Detroit is also a virtual certainty, and some team in the deep South will probably be added as a warm-up game for the Garden appearance. All in all, Hobby Hobson plans on playing a seven or eight-game schedule.

Presenting, the 1939 all-coast basketball team. The conference moguls are usually pretty secret about announcing the quintet and it's often seen for the first time in the next year's rule book.

Ralph Vaughn, USC, forward Laddie Gale, Oregon, forward Slim Wintermute, UO, forward Bob Chalmers, Cal, guard George Ziegenfuss, Wash., guard The Oregon pair, Laddie and Slim, made just about every all-star team possible during the year, including all opponents, northern division, coast, and western play-off. Gale made NEA's All-American besides.

One of Bill Hayward's fondest dreams will come true this weekend on the campus and the Oregon track coach won't be here to see it realized. Dozens and dozens of Oregon state prep cindermen will be here for their annual state meet, but Colonel Bill has to be in Seattle for the coast track and field championships with his own varsity Webfoots.

Bill exclaimed this spring, "I like to have this field full of kids... the more the better... I like to see them run." The more he sees here the happier he is.

Hayward field has seen its share of prep track meets this spring too, with the second annual Hayward relays, (Bill's own idea), the Lane county high schoolers, etc., but the biggest show of 'em all will be the state meet which comes to Eugene bi-annually.

Where will the preppers be housed? Right where they always are, in the campus fraternity

Two more Cougars crossed the plate in the sixth when Butts tripled, Branfors doubled, Dosskey singled, and Hooper doubled.

The eighth saw the Cougars make their hitting spree good for three runs. Single by Kinnaman, Angelo, Butts, an error by White, and a sacrifice fly by Branfors did the damage.

Final pair of Washington State runs, tallied in the eighth, were the direct result of singles by Kinnaman and Angelo, and an error committed by Quinn.

Leading hitters of Buck Bailey's circus were Butts and Angelo, each with three, and Hooper and Kinnaman with two apiece.

Nine Cinder Stars Picked For Coast Go

Hayward Takes Squad to Seattle On Friday

Colonel Bill Hayward announced Wednesday evening he will take a nine-man squad to the coast conference meet this weekend on the University of Washington field in Seattle.

Boyd Brown, javelin thrower; George Varoff and Rod Hansen, pole vaulters; Ehle Reber, broad jumper; Kirm Stori, half-miler; Bob Mitchell, miler; Don Barker, two-miler; and Jim Schriver, 440 man, are eight members Hayward has already nominated to the squad.

Diez or Dod

Before leaving Friday, Hayward will select either Bob Diez, dusky sprinter, or Lloyd Dod, hurdler, for the ninth position on the team.

Brown, Varoff, and Reber took championships in their events at the Pullman and are all conceded points in the coast meet. Both Varoff and Brown will put in strong bids for first place honors.

Stori, strong second place winner in the northern division meet, and Don Barker, who has bettered the winning time at the Pullman meet six seconds or more, will also figure in the scoring.

Rod Hansen, Varoff's vaulting mate, is a strong contender in the pole vault and may come through with a long-expected upset by defeating his famous twin, Varoff. Both Varoff and Hansen as well as Southern Cal's Loring Day have done 14 feet 4 inches or better.

Frosh Baseballers Meet Rooks Today

Warren's Nine Seeks Revenge For 7 to 3 Defeat; Bill Musselman And Elliott Start on Mound

By JACK LEE

A determined frosh baseball nine will attempt to even matters with the Oregon State rooks this afternoon at 3 o'clock on Howe field.

Warren is expected to shoot the works against Bud Forrester's nine today and Bill Musselman will probably be his choice for the starting pitcher.

Grant high school of Portland, winners of the District 8 qualifying meet by an overwhelming margin, is the outstanding favorite to cop the 13th annual Oregon high school track and field championships to be held here on Hayward field Friday and Saturday.

Only weaknesses on the Grant squad, numbering 16 strong, are in the mile run and the discus. In the 12 other events, the Grantians show tremendous cinder power.

Bend 15 Bend high defending champions and winners the past two years, will field the second largest delegation, 15 men. However, judging from their performances this year, they are not given much of a chance of repeating or even taking second-place honors.

University of Oregon officials have completed plans for welcoming the 220 prepsters Friday. Joe Huston has been named director and referee in the absence of Bill Hayward, who will be with his Webfoot squad at Seattle for the coast conference meet.

All official entry lists from the eight districts were received yesterday and housing plans were being completed. Drawings for heats and lanes for the preliminary races will be made Friday morning.

The shot put is the only event in which a new state record seems certain. Both Chuck Elliott of Eugene and Ed Stamm of Grant can exceed the 52 foot 2 3/4 inch mark set by Blackledge of Corvallis several years ago. Elliott's qualifying heave went 53 feet 3 inches.

The remainder of the rook line-up will probably include Johnny Leovich at catcher, Halverson, Perryman, Weber, and Rankin in the infield, and Schlegle, Durden and Ballin will form the outfield combination.

No reports have been forthcoming from Beaverville as to their starting lineup but it is a certainty that Elliott will start as the pitcher. Bud Forrester, tobacco-chewing rook coach, claims that Elliott is just as good a pitcher right now as there is in the northern division.

Eric Waldorf, outstanding football coach of Jefferson high school in Portland, was named graduate assistant in physical education and an assistant in athletics here for the coming year.

Waldorf, who has a year's leave of absence from Jeff, will serve both in the school of physical education and on the Webfoot coaching staff while seeking his master's degree.

Waldorf will assist "Honest" John Warren next fall with frosh football.

Hulten enters Golf Finals

Charles Hulten, assistant professor of journalism at Oregon went into the championship flight finals last Sunday at Eugene Country club after defeating C. L. Huffaker, 4 and 3 in the high-handicap division final match.

Hulten will meet the winner of the low-handicap division finals between Winsor Calkins and Earl Thompson for the president's trophy won last year by Coach Tex Oliver.

Tri Deltas and Orides Settle Title Today

Coed Softball Flag At Stake in Big Game at Gerlinger

By MARGARET YOUNG

Beautifully placed along the third base line, a homer, smashed by Betty Giddings, put Orides in today's championship contest as they edged out a 9 to 8 win from Kappa in the extra inning of yesterday's coed softball semifinal match.

The Orides started out with a bang as three runs crossed the plate in the first, then two more tallied in the third, and in the fifth the score stood at eight runs for the independent girls.

More consistent were the Kappas, who sent one run in in each of the first four frames. Then on convenient last ups, they rallied with four to tie the game up and send the hungry players into a sixth inning.

It was Oride's five firsts on errors and a few muffed plays by novice Kappas that left Orides with a chance at the Tri Deltas and the crown today.

Today's game between a rested Vadnais, Hobbs battery and yesterday's victorious Louise Pursley, Lewis combination merits an even larger assemblage of snickering males and loyal sisters, for both clubs will be out for blood and are sure to make it a good show. It starts at 5 o'clock.

Score by innings: R H E Orides 302 031-9 7 5 Kappa 111 140-8 10 3 Batteries: Pursley and Lewis; D. Bates and Brown. Official: War-rine Eastburn.

Varsity Netmen and Frosh Meet Today

By JIMMIE LEONARD

The Oregon varsity tennis team is swinging down the home stretch. They have one more whirl of competition before leaving for the northern division tournament in Pullman Saturday, May 27.

The frosh will leave Eugene for Corvallis Saturday morning, May 20 at 8:30 o'clock for a match with the Oregon State rooks at 10 o'clock.

The varsity netmen swept all five singles matches and one doubles match Tuesday, as they won from the visiting Western Washington College of Education, 6 to 1. Captain Les Werschkul played three sets before winning from Western Washington's Fisher, 6-2, 4-6, 6-4.

Leonard Clark, No. 2 man who is undefeated this year, kept his record clean in defeating the Ellensburgers' Lounsedale, 6-4, 6-3. The Duck's Dick Phillippi went the long way to win from Fowler, 5-7, 6-4, and 6-1. Dick Williams really got up steam in rolling over Bauman and play Alpha hall Friday.

If they win and Theta Chi loses, a three-way tie will result.

Silverwood Is Net Finalist

Kermit Silverwood reached the finals of all-campus tennis singles this week after defeating Don McEachern, 6-0, 6-0, in a semi-final round match.

Ed Robbins is in one semi-final bracket, as a result of a 6-2, 6-4 win scored over Dwight McFaddin last week. Russ Guiss and Al Greenberg are in the lower bracket, with the winner meeting Robbins.

Hal Faunt and Silverwood are in the all-campus tennis doubles final, having won from Dick Kahn and Woody Slater, 6-1, 6-4. In the other bracket, Jim Davidson and Conrad Carman will play Hank Stevens and Guiss for the right to meet Faunt and Silverwood.

Exams Scheduled For History Students

Two final examinations for masters degrees are scheduled for this weekend, Dr. R. C. Clark, head of the history department, announced yesterday.

On Saturday Marion Morton Stehn will take her examination. Her thesis is entitled "The Relation of Dr. John McLoughlin with Missionaries and Early American Settlers." Also scheduled for her final, Miss Elizabeth Wahl has written her thesis on "The History of Japan's 21 Demands on China, 1915 to 1923."
