

For Women Only

By MARGE FINNEGAN

What to do about open house— that is the question. Campus comments, pro and con, have been going around all week, but up till now it remains "campus comment."

THEY SAY:

The "pro" group contends that open house is a very democratic affair at which everyone meets everyone else and dances until they are worn out—but it's all in the spirit of good fun.

AND THEY SAY!

The "con" side maintains that open house is a farce and the sooner it is abandoned the better for all concerned.

Titian-Haired Helen Angell Is Coed of the Week

By BETTY JANE THOMPSON

Ten o'clock at night should find most students with a little free time on their hands. But not so for our attractive blue-eyed, red-haired coed of the week, who is known as the "Emerald's Angell."

HELEN ANGELL

Self-possessed, knowing what she wants to say, and having the ability to get it across, she was introduced to prospective Emerald reporters as their "boss" for the year.

Entering as a freshman with a two-year editorship of her eastern Oregon high school paper behind her, she "with fear and trembling" asked for a beat on the paper.

In spite of the fact that Emerald workers practically live at the shack, Helen became one of the active workers in other campus activities.

Poetry

By MARY KAY BOOTH

Pin Pricks

She took his fraternity pin, And with sparkling eyes she descended To eat her pie under the table, But all did not go as intended.

He took his fraternity pin, And with sorrowful sighs she descended Back to the world of mundane things And bridge with the girls—it was ended.

Memo on Muscles

O tell me, did you ever fall In love with a pair of shoulders? Muscular, massive, powerful, passive, Swaggering pair of shoulders?

They're seen together a couple of times, And love first flares, then smoulders.

And you can bet that she's found out There's nothing above those shoulders.

Disillusion

Sorority life is a wonderful thing, And your pledging will never cause sorrow Till your roommate returns with a spot on the dress She had not asked permission to borrow.

Dress of the Week

Virginia Doten—the lady in red—stoptight red alpaca—stole the show this week with her lively campus dress. Made along shirt waist lines but with a full flared skirt, Virginia's dress is ideal both for classes and for dressier occasions.

every little thing when it would have come out all right in the end without any worry, she declared. Down at the shack after midnight, writing stories, getting her reporters to write their stories right, several times rushing down after social functions in a formal, Helen is a student as well. Studying during the hours after midnight, she has kept her grades up to a three-point average.

Gold Seen In Fall Idea Of Jewelry

By DORIS MURPHY

It's been years since jewelry was so important and so much a part of fashion as it is this fall. . . . period jewelry is predominant. . . . must be the "Gone With the Wind" influence. . . . in fact copies of the pieces worn by Vivien Leigh in that picture can be obtained at one of the local stores and it's lovely. . . . all pearls, turquoises, and antique gold effect. . . . gold is seen everywhere almost to the exclusion of silver. . . . crystals are being revived and shades of grandmother's day are the jet necklaces which are shown in colors as well as black. . . . one of the newest ideas is the cuff bracelet. . . . these are seen in one of the better magazines worn in pairs, one on each arm. . . . for sportswear on sweaters and the like are the unusual grapes and leaves, each a separate piece, and strung together on a gold chain. . . . then there are the necklaces of links which can be worn on any type of dress or sweater. . . . we saw gold and green shell, bracelets. . . . after much walking something that wasn't gold. . . . no, we couldn't believe it either. . . . but red and green beads are displayed. . . . on that simple black dress you wear a pin with dangles. . . . to be different don't place it at the neck, but over on one side. . . . for evening are mesh bibs and also bows of gold and velvet combination. . . . rings are mostly large with cameo popular. . . .

Casual Outfit

This pleasing outfit will blend beautifully into winter days. The attractive blouse is in green, beige and dark red stripes with the green shade repeated in the single-pleated skirt.

ma Alpha Epsilon had desserts Wednesday.

Those scheduled for this evening are Alpha Tau Omega-Delta Delta Delta; Delta Gamma-Phi Gamma Delta; and Kappa Kappa Gamma freshmen-Sigma Chi freshmen.

Hendricks and Sigma Alpha Epsilon held an exchange dessert Tuesday night; Omega hall was host at a preference dinner-dance

First Fall Dances, Tibbett Concert Set for Weekend

By MARY KAY RIORDAN

A concert by Lawrence Tibbett, the first of the fall house dances, the Gonzaga football game, and visitors on the campus for the annual high school press conference—all have their place in the varied social calendar offered this weekend.

WAA HOLDS TEA

WAA was hostess Wednesday for a tea in Alumni room of Geringer hall from 4 to 5 o'clock honoring freshman women. The informal affair was one of the first sponsored by organizations to help freshmen get acquainted.

HEADED FOR WAR

Suggesting the present situation in Europe, Delta Tau Delta's pledge dance Saturday night will have "A Night in Wary England" as its theme. Surrounded by sandbags, the door will lead into a blackout cellar with warnings about the walls.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon's fall pledge dance Friday night will be informal with Karl Roehn's orchestra playing. Decorations will carry (Please turn to page four)
