Robinson Stars as UCLA Topples Olivermen, 16 to 6

Defeat Nips Duck Title Dreams

Webfoots Fumble Away Scoring Chances

the two-foot line, on a first down, but this time Bob Smith got across the line apparently, only to have the ball slip out from his hands. A Bruin recovered on the two, and the best chance to score was over.

Berry Loses Ball

Still another time John Berry was down on the Bruin 15, in the clear, when someone caught him, so hard, he dropped the ball, and lost possession. And that isn't all either, for twice Vic Reginato was behind the fleet Robinson, but he dropped the ball with the only thing between him and the goal a lot of vacant space.

Although Jackie Robinson scored the points and was the spectacular player on the field, it was Oregon's Buck Berry who got the biggest ovation from the stands. Not only because he was a local boy, for sometimes the home fans resent this fact, but because he was the outstanding defensive man in either backfield, and one of the best men with the ball.

Every man in the Oregon line did his part to crack the UCLA forward wall wide open. Big Jim Stuart and Jim Cadenasso were the names most frequently mentioned by the announcer. Captain Jack Sommers was a standout at the line-backing post for the Bruins, and the other guard, John Frawley, stood out in defense.

Webfoots Mad

The attitude of the Oregon team back in their home grounds was that they had played their hearts out and had still lost, making them mad as wet hens. This Saturday there is a game with the Washington State Cougars on Hayward field. The Olivermen want to get back in the winning column badly, and they feel they will.

Second stringers scrimmaged the freshmen in a practice session yesterday, with both teams looking good on defense. Don Mabee made several nice gains through the line for the varsity. The regulars went through signal drill in their sweat suits.

Four Teams Post 'Polo' Victories

Sigma Chi, SAE, Kappa Sig, Delt Squads Win

In the most thrilling match so far in the intramural water polo tournament, the Sigma Chi team nosed out the Yeomen, 1 to 0, in an overtime affair yesterday in the men's pool.

A furious pace was kept up throughout the entire contest by both teams, but neither was able to score during the regular playing time. However, in the overtime

COMING UP!

No! It's not Don Shephard, it's Jim Shephard. We hereby make amends for past mistakes.
There is a good 10 days of hard roller-skating between here and Jim's home town, White Bear, Minnesota. It was in White Bear high school that Jim first achieved football fame. Jim received his second dose of gridiron fame when he turned out for the frosh team, and Coach Honest John promptly mentioned him as one of the squad standouts.
Besides playing football in high school, Jim was a baseball and ice hockey star. In Minnesota, hockey is a part of the high school curriculum.

Shephard Is Young
Shephard is only 18 years of age and is majoring in physical education. Upon graduation Jim hopes to step into a coaching berth.

"Two or three teams usually dominate the Big Ten, but one of the coast conference's main assets is a balance of power," replied Jim when asked how the two conferences stacked up comparatively.

Jim is a left halfback by trade. This position demands running, passing, and pass-receiving ability combined with a deftness for blocking—in fact left halfbacks have to do just about everything but sell the freshly roasted peanuts to the rosters' section. However, Jim's 150 pounds can be thrown into high gear, or reverse, as the case may be, quickly enough and effectively enough to satisfy all of the above requirements. (Except of course the final one).

Phi Delts Win Over Zetas In Donut Ball

Sammies and Fijis Advance; Omega Ties Campbell

Phi Delta Theta chalked up its second win of the season in touch football with a 6-to-0 shutout over Zeta hall yesterday.

In other contests, Sigma Alpha Mu walked over the Scotch Terriers to finish with 14 points to the independents' zero; the Fiji nine trimmed Alpha hall, 6-0; and Campbell co-op wound up in a scoreless tie with Omega hall.

Ray Dickson took a pass on the ten-yard line from J. Blanchard to score the Phi Delts' six points, late in the first half. The hall boys threatened twice in the last half. Harry Burdick intercepted a Zeta pass on his own 30 and returned it to the 50 to halt the first Zeta rush. In the last two minutes of the game, the Zetas lost the ball on downs on the Phi Delta 15.

Sammies Are Impressive
The Scotch Terriers fought a losing battle with a seven-man lineup against an impressive Sammy nine.

After four minutes of play, the Sammies were on the independent 4-yard line. Davis passed to Sanders for a touchdown and rifled to Vic Nudelman for the conversion. Two plays after the following kickoff, the Sammies had thrown the Terriers for losses to put the ball on the Scotchmen's 30, from where the independents punted to the midfield stripe.

Herzog to Davis
Late in the closing half, B. Herzog passed to Davis for another touchdown, the play being good for (Please turn to page three)

Beavers, Trojans Win Conference Clashes

PACIFIC COAST CONFERENCE

	W	T	L	Pts.	Opp.	Pct.
Oregon State	3	0	0	38	7	1.000
Southern Cal	2	1	0	60	7	1.000
UCLA	2	1	0	44	27	1.000
Oregon	2	1	1	29	23	.667
California	1	0	2	13	39	.333
Washington State	1	0	3	13	53	.250
Washington	1	0	3	22	38	.250
Stanford	0	1	3	19	44	.000

At the end of the fifth week of conference play, Oregon State is still leading the pack, with the mighty Trojans of Southern California hot on the Beaver's heels.

Following Saturday's victory over Washington State, Oregon State travels to Portland to battle the men of Troy next weekend. The Orange team is one of the best defensive eleven on the coast this year, and the game with the high-scoring southern aggregation should provide plenty of fireworks for the customers.

The winner will be in line for a Bose Bowl bid later in the year. Southern California last met the Beavers in Portland in 1933, when the famous "Iron Men" came through with a 0-to-0 upset.

Ducks Fall
Oregon performed like champions between the ten-yard lines, but lost their punch in the shadow of the goal line and bowed out of the undefeated class to UCLA. The Bruins, sparked by their Negro stars, Kenny Washington and Jackie Robinson, won the game by virtue of a 66-yard pass and an 82-yard run.

Two drives were stopped on the one-yard line when Oregon backs fumbled. The second tumble paved the way for Robinson's long run. . .

Trojans Pour It On
Southern California's Trojans, last year's Rose Bowl winners, gave notice that they will not give up without a fight, when they walloped a fair California team, 26 to 0.

The Washington Huskies, beaten in three starts this season, finally turned on their haunches and nipped Stanford by the unusual score of 8 to 5. Washington scored a safety and a touchdown while Stanford tallied a safety and field goal.

Portland university, non-conference member, pulled an upset of national note Sunday when the Pilots defeated the highly favored St. Mary's Gaels, 14 to 12.

Santa Clara upset the dope with a 13-to-6 win over Purdue in an inter-sectional game at San Francisco.

Injuries Hit Frosh Again

Gridders Suffer Lime Burns in Babe Contest

For plain, out and out hard luck those Oregon frosh just can't be beaten—they seem to have a habit of "taking it on the chin."

Here is their record up to the Babes' game last Friday night: First of all Chuck Elliott, ace tackle prospect, was lost for the season following an emergency appendectomy; next, the Ducklings, in their college opener, took a 19-to-0 skunking from Oregon State's rooks.

Thirdly, there followed for two weeks a series of injuries that at one time or another had more than half of the first string eleven out of practice; and finally, Friday night's result, a second 19-to-0 drubbing, this time from the University of Washington Babes.

Wrong Lime Used

That, alone, sounds bad enough. But now, up strikes the climax to this toughest of tough luck stories. Through someone's error, plain lime, instead of the dehydrated kind, was spread on Hayward field for last week's game.

It happens that this kind of plain lime has strong burning qualities when moistened. The result is that now six first string Ducklings are on the injured list from burns received against the Babes.

Ashcom Badly Hurt

Susies, Chi Os Take Contests

Susan Campbell I pulled the surprise of the volleyball season yesterday by upsetting Alpha Delta Pi pledges' apperant by a score of 32 to 27.

ADPI, one of the expected survivors in league III, made a determined comeback toward the end of the game, but the large margin which the Susies had piled up proved sufficient.

Chi Omega triumphed over Alpha Chi Omega, 36 to 22, in an evenly matched contest. The exciting incident of both games came when the lights flickered out, and players were forced to play in semi-darkness for several minutes.
