OREGON DAILY EMERALD

Frosh Battle Rooks Tonight; Ducks In Secret Drill

TRACKS Warren's Gridders Back in 1936, Honest John War-

Revenge Motive Spurs Yearlings:

By DON C. CAWLEY

unfamiliar names: Mel Passolt, The big-little game is here! Jake Jacobsen, Merle Peters, Roy Scheduled to start tonight at 8:15 in Corvallis, the second and final Jensen, Jay Graybeal, Bob Smith, encounter between the two yearling teams of Oregon and OSC should Frankie Emmons, Dennis Dono- prove to be as bitter a battle as the big Webfoot-Beaver game due to, Larry Lance, Steve Anderson,

The starting frosh lineup seems to be set with Davis and Butkovich, Paul Rowe, and a number of oth- ends; Terry and Wendling, tackles; Stromberg and Bodner, guards; Nick Dallas, center; Neil Baumgardner, quarter; Shephard and Bujan, heard no more in coast conference back. football. Paul Rowe left school to play pro rugby in Canada, and Larry Lance dropped out after two years of play for the Web-Unfamiliar No Longer But the others are unfamiliar hard is back in action for the first no longer. They are the stars of time since he was hurt in the inithis year's Oregon varsity, who will play their last home game Saturday, and they will be out to first year men. highlight their final season with a victory over Oregon State.

---- Page Two

DUCK

By GEORGE PASERO Co-Sports Editor

Oregon Daily Emerald

ren's freshman footballers vowed that they would go somewhere in the game before they left the

In that bunch of gridders-the best, according to Warren, in the last five years-were these then

University of Oregon.

ers

foots.

For two years these boys struggled to find themselves in coast has in the past few practices, the play. This year they have turned rooks will be in for one busy evenin a great performance so far. ing. And should they whip the Beavers and Huskies in their final two with the knowledge of having into the backfield, and these two made the vow good, even though boys won't weaken it by any not Pasadena climaxed. What's more, they've stamped er, and Baum is one of the best their personalities in the forefront passers who ever donned an Oreof a University of Oregon genera- gon frosh uniform. tion, for they are a swell bunch The rooks are said to be in the of boys.

Bruin Cubs Toss in Towel John Warren's lot this year has been no easy one, what with inrupting his squad. But he'll be only 21 available men will make able to field a complete team at no difference to them. Corvallis tonight in the second frosh-rook affair, even if Tackles most pulled an "iron man" stunt Dick Ashcom, Duke Marlowe, and and used very few replacements.

Chuck Elliott can't play. And that, folks, is more than and the old saying of "quantity UCLA was able to do the other doesn't make quality" certainly apday when the baby Bruins were plies here. The boys from Beaverscheduled to play the Southern ville are big and rugged, so most Cal frosh. Fact is, the Bruin cubs of them can stand 60 minutes of had to cancel their game with the hard football. Trojan yearlings for lack of players.

Only 30 at the largest, the rooks at Corvallis. Uclan squad dropped to 16 men after two bruising games.

Travel to Corvallis

Starting Lineups Set for Both Teams On Day of Contest

van, Bob Blenkinsop, Vic Regina- the following day.

Today some of these names are halves; and Duke Iverson, full-

Hoop Kings

Get Games

Prepares Men for

Tough Schedule

ball games, no sirree. Take Coach,

Play Varsity

words for it.

Frosh Click This frosh team has been clicking in the last few drills and should prove much tougher than in the first mix-up with the rooks. Shep tial game with the Oregon State The backfield combination has been working very well. And should it click in the game as it Baum, Ell Ready Lou Baum and Roy Ell will be games, they can leave the campus ready at a minute's notice to move means. Ell is a terrific line plung-best of shape, and their line is sure to be a tough nut to crack. This Oregon State team works as over the state and northwest. smoothly as does any varsity. The fact that Orange yearlings have

Oregon varsity, two with the Idaho In the last game the rooks al-Ashland, one with the Washington This game will be no exception, Badgers. a strong Firestone team from Ak-So remember, tonight it is the ron, Ohio. The Oregons coach said Oregon frosh vs. Oregon State

Washington, where wolves have wise, the Oregonians entertain the Line Smasher

Rubenstein's Oregonians, those Frankie Emmons, fast and hard-Webfoot national champs of last hitting fullback, is ready to start year plus a few other stars, aren't having a bit of trouble scheduling against Oregon State Saturday.

NOTICE

Trainer, Manager Bobby Anet's Friday afternoon at 5:00 is the last hour that ASUO card Already the Rubes have tentaholders may exchange their ively listed 17 contests with the tickets for seats to the OSCcream of the northwest amateur UO game tomorrow. All stuhoop squads. And more are in the dents who expect to attend offing if the former Oregons demust present both their ASUO cide to bill them. What's more, card and also an exchange ticthe Rubes will show in cities all ket to get in the gate.

Definitely on the schedule at present are three games with the SAEs Whip Vandals, one with the Washington Huskies, four with the SONS of Sammies

Phi Sig Crew In Only Other Tilt

this week that the series may be By BERNIE ENGEL played in the Willamette valley, if With the schedule shortened to negotiations go through. Othertwo games because the frosh field

Olivermen Near Peak Hockey Slated Co-op Girls For Homecoming Tilt At Festivities Post Win

In All-Campus

3 down at the start of the game.

Anet, after shooting a mediocre first round of 42, came roaring back in the last nine to hang up a par 35 and clinch the match

The honors for the best and most consistent playing went to

Bob Engelke as he routed Jay

5 and 3. Engelke shot a 3-over-

Engelke and Anet will meet in with a final medal of 77.

By RAY FOSTER

Webfoot football practice went on as usual yesterday afternoon down at Hayward field, but no one was there to see it but the players themselves and their coaches.

It was a strictly closed session for the public. Reasons were given from inside sources that the players were a bit jittery before their big game Saturday and wanted no one around that would distract from their last important drill. Another reason might be that Divoteers the coach didn't want anyone in that would be from the other side of the fence. A couple of newsmen Reach Finals from Portland received the same reception that the rest of them did.

Football Gigantic

Nevertheless, the football gigantic of the year will take place on Hayward field tomorrow afternoon at 2 p.m. Both teams are in good of their makeup is what worried the coaches. Oregon may be a bit lax, and Oregon State may feel they really are the underdogs. Win or lose, it will be the last named Bob. home stand for 14 seniors of the Duck squad. They include Jay Graybeal, Steve Anderson, Bob Smith, Denny Donovan, and Frank Emmons, backs; and Vic Reginato, William Reynolds, ends; Merle Peters and Ellroy Jensen, tackles; Ernie Robertson, Melvin Passolt, Francis Nestor, and Cecil Walden, guards; and Jim Cadenasso, center.

Three-Year Man

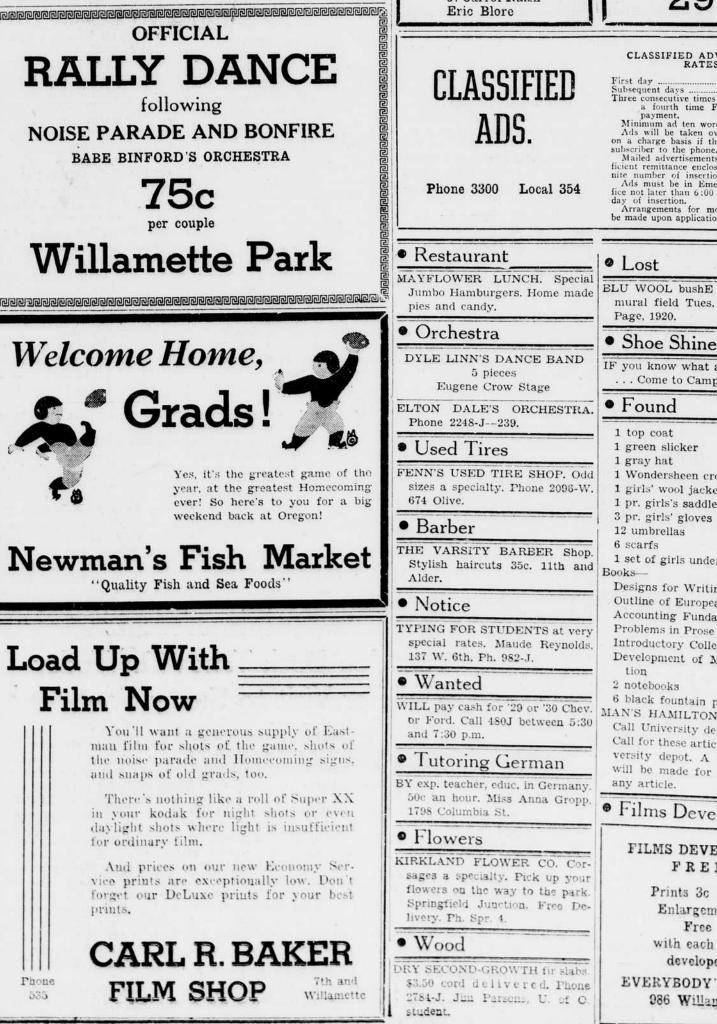

Reginato completes three years as a regular on the varsity, and Stott by the convincing score of Graybeal and Smith have played a good deal of their three years. In par 75 for the match and was looking back to the 1937 homecom- never in trouble at any time. ing game against the Beavers, it comes as a surprise to find that the final round match that prom-the only member of the 14 to ap- ises to produce some of the finest pear in the starting lineup was golf of the year. The winner will Steve Anderson at left half. be named all-campus golf cham-Donovan, hard-blocking quarter, pion.

wlil act as captain in tomorrow's the Stanford game in Portland, As the last day of ticket selling which drew a little more than dawns, only 700 general admission 20,000. seats are available for public distribution. That means that 19,000 Cliff Sexsmith, chubby Sigma seats have gone out to football Nu touch football tackle, protests fans, nearly as large a crowd as that the backs get all the publicity.

Undergrad Coeds Pitted Against Alumni Players

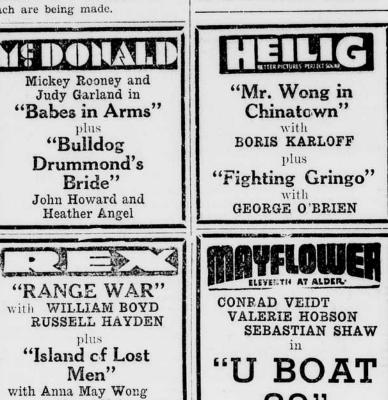

Annual homecoming hockey game, alumni vs. undergraduates, November 11, at 10 o'clock, on Gerlinger field.

The hockey conference, held in Washington Hockey club, will take place at the Grant high field Anet, Engelke Tip Goodwin and Stott luncheon and a discussion will be held after the conference.

Mixed Teams The mixed teams, made up of Bob Anet and Bob Engelke students, graduates, and faculty physical condition. The mental part forced their way into the finals of from each club will meet at the the all-campus golf tournament conference mainly to promote inyesterd y in a semifinal round terest in hockey. Enthusiasts of the game who that was as full of thrills and fine turn out for practice on Tuesday, playing as it was of fellows Wednesday, and Thursday are invited to go, and plans for transportation at a minimum cost to Anet defeated Bob Goodwin by each are being made. a score of 3 and 1 after trailing

Friday, November 10, 1939

University co-op eked out a win over a spirited Chi Omega squad by a narrow margin of 25 to 23 to keep the record clean in its volleyball game yesterday at Gerlinger.

Half-time score gave Chi O a ten point lead over an emergency five-man Co-op team. It was a battle royal when Uni Co-op sent will take place Saturday morning, a full team into the second half. After gaining the lead, the Co-op had a hard time staving off a late Chi O rally. University ninesome Portland for the University of has only dropped one game, to Susan Campbell. Theta took its second shellacksome time in the near future. A ing of the season at the hands of Delta Gamma by a score of 31 to 23 and Alpha Gamma Delta overwhelmed Sigma Kappa, 33 to 23 in Thursday's other two contests.

>

20

-4

can at least trot out a couple of the season and have refused to fair-to-middlin outfits.

Tex Gets Boost

grid squads. Especially is this evi- ies. dent in the Cal papers.

iver quite a boost.

Here's what Al Santoro, sports

they'll light after they get him get away from us." score on the Oregon fronts.

what they have accomplished for of his club are seniors, the ma- and he is sparing no effort. Oregon football.

Ep Tells 'Em

Unfortunately this is not the We Hope They Shine rule in several other sections, par-

From the CURB to the ISLAND Drive up to the new pumps at Domeroy's ASSOCIATED ON THE CAMPUS play. Slim Departs and rooter for the Webfoots is E. (Ep) Palmer Hoyt, publisher of

There seems to be quite a bit the Oregonian, who is already hep joined the pro ranks this week, un- The Sigma Alpha Epsilon crew to say about Oliver and Stiner: about that. We believe Oliver the can; Wally Johansen and Dave spiral heaves.

"While a number of football best coach in the country barring Silver, all-coast stars; will form coaches may be wondering where none, and we're not going to let the nucleus of the squad.

jority still in the sophomore

Honest John Warren's 1940 frosh semi-pro stars now in school don't at McArthur court.

flunk out or break their arms. Just look at this nucleus and ule follows: then see if I'm not right: Don Kirsch, star infielder of Silverton's here. regional semi-pro champs and Jeff Dec. 1-SONS here.

high star; John Bubalo, Silverton outfielder who hails from Lincoln Henry Burns and Quentin Side singer, Jeff of Portland flashes Neal Nichols, Eugene high pitches and infielder who has had his bap tism of state league play; and Jin Partlow, Grant luminary, And John shouldn't be shy pitchers, either, if things work out for they tell me that big Stev Fredericks of Lincoln high of Port land will be dropping down about spring term (he graduates in Jan uary). Fredericks has pitched for about four years in the Orego sushes, for St. Helens, Albany, an lverton.

The Dailes (tentative). Jan. 21-Pendleton Townies at Matt Pavalunas, husky and Pendleton (tentative).

peedy basketball guard, may be Other games may be scheduled pitcher for Coach Howard Hob- with the Portland Pilots and Fortson's diamond team this spring. land independent quintets.

Honest John may moan, but he been at the door since the start of idea of flying to Cleveland for the Oliver, another round of touch football action went by the boards Loss of Slim Wintermute, who yesterday.

of speculation about the Oregon to the rumors that several univer- doubtedly has hurt the Rube club, cleaned the Sammies in a tight coaches moving south to handle scat until they've nipped the bod- but Anet expects to have a capable battle, coming out on top by virtue replacement for the "Tall Fir" cen- of a single touchdown. Scoreless

"In Portland No. 1 alumnus ter before long. Several of the tie of the day featured the Sigma Yesterday Bill Pengra of the sities and colleges have made city's stars are working out with hall-Phi Sigma Kappa clash. Eugene News quoted Art Cohn, overtures to Tex Oliver to leave the Rubes at present, but Anet Early in the game, the SAEs Oakland writer who gives Tex Ol- the 'wilds of Oregon' and take up says "they have to show me" be- drove to the Sammie 20 on a series residence in California next sea- fore he gives them definite berths. of short passes. The latter squad son. Hoyt says: 'Yes, we've heard, Anet, Chuck Taylor all-Ameri- kicked to the midfield stripe after editor of the LA Examiner, has and we plan to do something can; Laddie Gale, NEA all-Ameri- making yardage on a couple of

Lowe to Hamel

Then came the fireworks, Harry Other ball players being con- Lowe arched a pass from his own through bouncing this season "The same goes for Lon Stiner sidered for posts are Ford Danner, 45 to teammate DeWitt Hamel there seems to be no worry on this at Oregon State College. Percy former frosh star: Ken Shipley, who was enjoying himself on the Locey, the Ol' Olympic club grid- Oregon athlete; Gib Wiley, varsity Sammie 20. Letting the ball plop "No coaches are more firmly en- der who is now graduate manager reserve last year; and Gordon and into his arms, Hamel turned trenched than Tex Oliver of Ore- of the Beavers, says Oregon State Dick Wright, independent aces, around and started waltzing, comgon and Lon Stiner of OSC. Win, wouldn't trade Stiner for all the Fans who have been a bit doubt- ing to a stop on the 5 under the lose, or draw, for the remainder rest of the football coaches in the ful of the playing condition of the none-too-gentle persuasion of the of the season, both have turned in country. The Beaver headmen Rubes can begin to dispel those Sammie backfield. Determined to journeymen jobs this fall and the realize Stiner has done a neat job doubts right now. Anet fully real- finish his dance, he two-stepped northwest citizenry appreciates of coaching, although only eight izes his responsibility to the fans, into the end zone on the next play and received another of Lowe's There is no Hobby Hobson on passes to chalk up the only score hand to pick out the fault and to of the day.

Dec. 2-SONS at Roseburg.

Dec. 7-Oregon here.

Jan. 3-Oregon here.

st Grove (tentative).

Jan. 6-SONS at Medford.

Jan. 12 and 13-Pacific at For

Jan. 20-The Dalles Townies at tentative).

Longview.

see that things go right. So it's all The Sammies played defensive up to Anet and those other great ball in the last half, although rollticularly northern California and diamond team should be a wow of Oregon boys. That may explain ing up some yardage with the aid a ball club, that is if all the frosh why they are working out nightly of deceptive sleeper plays.

Petrie Provides Color

The tentative Oregonian sched- Comic relief of the game was provided by bare-footed Wesley Nov. 26-Washington All-Stars Petrie of the SAEs. Petrie threw his arms and legs in every direction but the natural ones as he pepped up his team and chastised the referees.

Dec. 8-Willamette at Salem. Sigma hall not only managed to Dec. 9 – SONS at Klamath Falls hold the highly-touted Phi Sigma Kappa nine, but almost came Dec. 15 and 16-Idaho at Mos. with a victory. After rolling up monumental scores in last week's Dec. 22-Washington at Seattle, games, the Phi Sigs apparently hit Dec. 23-Longview All-Stars at a slump, Russ Helterline, passing demon of previous contests, found Dec. 30-Oregon in Portland. his match in the hall's backfield.

2 FINE PRINTS from each of your good negatives on every 8 exposureroll you send Only 25° Get quality pictures and promptservice. Satisfaction guaranteed. Send coin. Reprints 2c each .ninimum order 25c. WESTERN PICTURE CO. 485 FORTLAND. OREGON