

YMCA Plans Full Slate Of Activities

Schedule Includes Trips, Hikes, Talks, Sutley Says

With fall term activities rapidly falling into working stride, the Oregon YMCA, according to Executive Secretary Paul Sutley, is this year planning one of the busiest calendars in its history.

Most important event on schedule at present is the membership and finance campaign which will last until Tuesday, November 21. This will be followed by a list of activities including the YM-YW cabinet retreat on December 8 and 9.

Mr. Sutley announced yesterday that the committee on creative leisure, under direction of Larry Hopkins, is planning a bicycle trip next Sunday for members of both the men's and women's Christian organizations. The same group will sponsor an organized hike Friday, November 24, through Hendricks park.

Don Walker, chairman of the commission on economic, political, and social problems, has also posted a tentative program of discussion classes for the rest of this year. Probable speakers, with their topics, have been scheduled as follows: November 29, John Casteel, "The Pacifist Approach to War"; December 6, Dr. Calvin Crumbaker, "Economic Causes and Effects of War"; and December 13, Victor P. Morris, "America's Relation to the Present War."

Meetings will be on Wednesday afternoons at 4 o'clock in the YMCA lounge, and all students are invited to attend. According to Sutley, the gatherings will not be "just another lecture" but will give students real opportunity to discuss problems of everyday importance.

Emerald Faces Blackout Crisis With Tapers, Talk

"Blackout!" ... "The Light That Failed."

No, the Germans haven't come, neither is this a publicity ad for the perennially favorite novel. But at 8 o'clock last night all the lights in the journalism shack "piddled" on and off, then "pfffted" out.

"Who done it? ... Now quit it! ... Will somebody get a candle, darn it!"

These and other ejaculations echoed about the place as Jimmie Leonard's copy-desk staff suddenly found itself behind the "eight ball." In one corner a flame flared up then "powed." Soon the dark confines of the copy-desk office was doing a good imitation of one of those firefly-infested caves in Australia.

What caused the blackout? According to observers some photographic "doohickie" Charlie Kenyon plugged into a light-switch was too much for the fuse, and it went "kaflooye." However, the incident was passed off with a shrug, because Kenyon happened to be "shooting" some publicity "mugs" of Emerald workers.

What price publicity!

Chi Os Given Alum Trophy Permanently

Guests Number 41; Kappa Sigmas Win Men's Prize

Chi Omega was awarded permanent possession of the trophy for the girls' living organization having the greatest number of registered alumnae for homecoming Monday when they announced that 41 had "signed on the dotted" over the past weekend. With two wins to their credit in as many years past, to surpass all other houses, the Chi O's, under the three first rule, took the cup for "keeps."

Thirty-four registered alumni was the number recorded by Kappa Sigma which copped the award for first place among the men's houses. Last year the cup went to Delta Tau Delta.

Commenting on the registration, Elmer Fansett, alumni secretary, said that undoubtedly many graduates returned to the homes of their college days without recording the fact. "In all probability competition would have been much closer if all houses had made an effort to keep a closer check," he stated.

Erb Praises ROTC Parade

Praising the "splendid appearance of the ROTC in the Armistice day parade," Donald M. Erb, president of the University, congratulated the military department on its fine organization in a letter received yesterday by Colonel Robert M. Lyons, head of the military department.

"For 625 students to turn out voluntarily on a holiday, and homecoming Saturday at that, speaks well for the loyalty of its undergraduates," said President Erb.

Colonel Lyon, himself, expressed appreciation over the excellent showing made by the ROTC last Saturday.

"The huge turnout, the crack appearance, and the splendid marching. I am more enthusiastic than ever over these new cadets. I have received many compliments from the various veteran organizations for the fine touch of color that our men added to the occasion."

The complete letter read as follows: Colonel Robert M. Lyon, Department of Military Science, University of Oregon, Dear Colonel Lyon:

On behalf of the University I wish to congratulate the Reserve Officer's Training Corps upon its splendid appearance for the Armistice Day parade on November 11, 1939.

When it is considered that the majority of the students have been under training for only three hours per week for six weeks, the general set-up of the corps and its showing in ranks is a matter of which we can be very proud.

For six hundred and twenty-five students to turn out voluntarily on a holiday, and Homecoming Saturday at that, with its thousand conflicting interests, to do honor to the University in representing it on this patriotic occasion speaks well for the loyalty of its undergraduates.

The visitors, the parents, and the alumni who witnessed the parade can be assured that the traditions of loyal, patriotic service are being maintained at this institution.

Very truly yours,
DONALD M. ERB,
President.

Royal 100 Years Old

It has been over 100 years from the advent of the first practical typewriter to the modern Royal typewriter with the magic margin.

Four thousand pounds of steel were used in the production of Royal typewriters in 1938. In 1936 nearly 10,000,000 pounds were used. These figures show the rapid growth of the Royal since its introduction a few years ago, creating from time to time improved models the Royal company constantly kept in mind the principles on which the Royal typewriter was founded: "Greater speed and ease of operation for the typist and greater economy and endurance for the business executive."

These typewriters may be found at the University Co-op and Office Machinery and Supply company.

State Illustrator Visits Campus

Miss Clarice Ashworth, state system illustrator, will visit the University of Oregon campus Tuesday, November 21, from 1 to 5 p.m., according to a faculty news bulletin received yesterday.

Miss Ashworth, the bulletin states, does excellent scientific illustrations, charts, graphs, and lettering for reproduction in books and journals and for classroom use. Faculty members may make appointments to consult her by calling the editor's office, campus 319.

Departments may order illustrative work on interdepartmental requisitions with charges figured on an hourly basis. Miss Ashworth will visit the campus on the third Tuesday of each month during the year 1939-1940.

Details of everything that happens on the campus in the Oregon Daily Emerald.

10 WAYS TO HAVE A GOOD TIME FOR 5¢

Any one good time for a nickel would be a bargain. But in this week's Post, you get at least ten kinds of entertainment, and a lot of timely information, all for 5 cents!

1. FOUR-WAY DRAMA. The leading story in this week's Post is recommended for (1) football fans, (2) engaged couples, (3) girls smitten with gridiron stars, and (4) fathers who have sons in love with the wrong girl. Read Yesterday's Heroes, by a new Post writer, William Brent.

2. INFORMATION PIECE. Are you annoyed by people who know "all about the war"? You can silence them by revealing the important secret clause in the Rome-Berlin axis agreement. You'll find it in Demaree Bess' article, Mussolini Prepares for War. A radio dispatch from Geneva.

3. FUN WITH OUR FOUR-FOOTED PALS. Note to Wives: When you see papa polishing his shotgun, quick—get him Vereen Bell's yarn, Brag Dog, to read! He'll end by wanting to own a bird-dog, of course. But you can talk him out of that.

4. HIGH JINKS BETWEEN THE LINES. After the game is over, read Tom Meany's football article, Dixie Plays for Blood. Not that the South fights the Civil War all over again, you understand, but what's a kick in the face if the referee isn't looking? Sizzling football stories retold by a sports writer who's watched the stretchers go by!

5. THE WOMAN IN THE CASE. "His wife doesn't know it, but I hear Professor Lorber has been running around with that good-looking school-teacher!" Is there a girl in your neighborhood the men all like and the women all hate? You'll recall her, definitely, when you read the story on page 18 of this week's Post, But Love the Sinner, by Eve Bennett.

6. PLAY GOLF WITHOUT AGONY. Ever play with somebody who keeps quoting rules—in his favor? Read Frank Bunce's story, Fore!, of the sweet young thing in red shirt and shorts who got even with the club's most formidable player—by being up on rules we bet most golfers haven't even heard of!

7. SHARE YOUR PLEASURE in the Post with others. Tell them how Father Divine produces thousand-dollar bills with the dexterity of a magician, to feed regiments of negro—and white—"angels." You'll learn how when you read Jack Alexander's rollicking article, All Father's Chillun Got Heavens—about the half-pint messiah who admits he is God.

8. GAME OF LOVE: (Played by 4). Is an ambitious wife a spur or a knife in the back to a husband starting in business? Here's the bittersweet story of two husbands whose wives raced for "success." Richard Sherman's Won't You Walk a Little Faster?

9. BE A MAN-ABOUT-TOWN WITHOUT MOVING AN INCH. You can enjoy a personally conducted tour backstage with the First Lady of the Theatre. Read about the time Helen Hayes first met George M. Cohan; the time she played to cowboys; what happened in her first "grown up" part. (It's in the unique story of her life, by her mother, continued in this week's Post. Third part of eight.)

10. FUN IN TAHITI WITH NORDHOFF & HALL. It may be raining or snowing when you take this week's Post home. What do you care? You'll be in Tahiti having a gay time reading Out of Gas, the comic adventures of the Tuttle family. You're in time to catch the second part of this five-part novel, by the authors of those best-sellers, The Hurricane, Mutiny on the Bounty and The Dark River.

ENCORE! Don't miss the editorial on page 22, A Chance to Go to Work. And fourteen swell cartoons. And poems (we direct your special attention to one on page 24 entitled For The Agony Column).
