Flyers Ready For Navigation

P. P. Adams Leads Class; Caswell to Teach Meteorology

Flying school students took their final exam in civil air regulations last night, ending one phase of ground training, Carlton E. Spencer, head of the flying course, reported.

With the government's laws and statutes concerning air traffic safely put away, the class will swing into 15 hours of navigation, under the instruction of Assistant Dean P. P. Adams of the art school. It will have to read United States official topographic contour maps, learn to fly blind by use of a "radio beam," and try their hand at dead reckoning.

Thursday evening's class is the scheduled start of navigation work, with meteorology next on the list. A. E. Caswell, head of the physics department, will take up added duties as meteorology instructor, when the young birdmen receive practical training to determine when it is safe to cruise along the airplanes and when it is best to stay on the ground. This will also be a 15-hour course with air instruction practically assured.

Date Arranged For Y Retreat

With less than a month remaining before the YMCA-YWCA cabinet retreat December 8 and 9, Co-Chairmen Betty Lou Kurtz and Henry Carr yesterday announced six committees that will handle plans for this year's "meet."

Committees include: food, Wayne Kelly and Mary Wright; discussions, Henry Carr and Betty Lou Kurtz; recreation, Larry Hopkins and Elizabeth Steed; transportation, Milton Small and Marjorie Montgomery; resources, Jean Crites and Frank McKinney; and location, Betty Lou Kurtz and Henry Carr.

Carr stated that the retreat will probably be either near McKenzie bridge or at the beach. Approximately 30 students and faculty members are expected to be present.

Framed! ALPHA PHIS ARE SWEET... when they want to be... THEY ARE FUN... most of the time... THEY ARE POPULAR... but they also play pranks... this story has to do with a frame-up they pulled... The time: 10:45.

Enters the Siberian delivery boy (me). "Come in and wait, I'll go up and get some change," says she.

Then guess what... the noise parade had nothing on these kids... The words "Oh, did you get a pin" started it all and within 30 seconds the Tri Deltas began shutting their windows to keep out the noise... So, "with a wad of paper in one hand" and a pencil in the other the note taking session began... Patty Carson evidently got Don Gilbert's pin... Roma Theobald got a Kappa Sig pin, "Dream girl" Roberta Beck got an ATO pin—and talk about Betapins! They were on a par with three cent stamps... and Lillian Scott—say that girl had four pins!

And we hear that Nancy Hay gave Norm Foster, Delt, the well known goodbye...

A printer's mistake cut the last line on a poem appearing in this column Tuesday. A postlude appeared on Angell's desk yesterday. Without her permission we publish it.

We got her goat With a poem we wrote And she still doesn't Know her would-be beau!

The blame fell wrong On a reporter so young Who is doing his best To give Angell no rest!

Frosh Riflemen Start Practice

Silence never sets on the ROTC rifle range these days. Six hundred-odd freshmen have begun practice firing, and lines are waiting for every gun. In addition a maximum enrollment class of feminine markswomen are always on hand to try their skill.

Sergeant Harvey Blythe, instructor in the rifle is the busiest man up at the ROTC headquarters. He personally instructs every person on the range in the "Relax, Hold and Squeeze" of good riflemanship.

Freshman competition will be unusually keen this year, according to Sergeant Blythe. In addition to the top shots of the class being picked for the rifle team, a new award for the outstanding freshman rifleman of the year has been announced.

To the best freshman shot of the year will go a $10 merchandise order and a medal. The award is being offered for the first time this year by Byron and Kneeland of The Man's Shop.

Top freshman rifle shots at present in the different companies are: Earl Homer and Lewis Brainerd of Company A, Dan Biggs, Clifford Anet, and Jim Schiller of Company B, Edward Berg and Bill Udick of Company C, Spencer Weills of Company D, and Robert Britt and Reid Ferrall of

Sweethearts Face Newsreels; Machine Stars

The supposed dream of all girls came true Saturday morning to the five contestants for the title "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi" when they found themselves facing a movie camera.

It wasn't a romantic role opposite Tyrone Power or a "gripping" scene with Robert Taylor, but they were in the movies no less. It was a newsreel cameraman who did the shooting. He came to take pictures of Oregon's new lawn chair-mower for Universal newsreels and the Sigma Chi candidates were used for human interest.

The favored few were: Pat Nelson, Evelyn Nelson, Lorabelle Wraith, Ellen Ann Evans, and Jean Morrison.

More Mildness, Coolness, and Flavor with Slower-Burning Camels

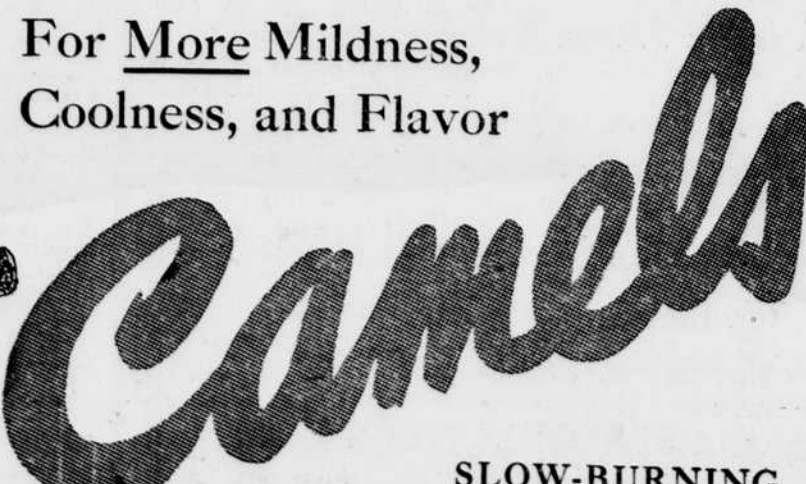

FAST BURNING — creates hot flat taste in smoke... ruins delicate flavor, aroma...

SLOW BURNING — protects natural qualities that produce mildness, thrilling taste, fragrance... a cooler smoke...

The costlier tobaccos are slower-burning... milder... cooler... mellower

MANY a smoker has switched to Camels because his value-sense applauded the thrift of getting more puffs per pack. But... that's only one small part of the story of slow burning. You get a lot more than savings! You get extra mildness! Common sense tells you that a fast, fiery, hot-burning cigarette will not smoke comfortably or yield a delicate taste and fragrance. And that slow-burning tobaccos naturally would be mild and mellow. You get extra coolness. You needn't be a scientist to know that the slower tobacco burns, the cooler the smoking. You get extra-fine flavor. Excess heat ruthlessly destroys the subtle elements of flavor and aroma. Slow-burning Camels tell their own taste-tale! So... for thrift and for a smoking thrill... light up a slow-burning Camel!
