

Banjoes — $18.00, $25.00, $40.00 and $90.00

Violins — $5.00, 7.50, $10.00, 25.00, $50.00, 75.00 and $100.00

Saxophones—$25.00, 35.00, and $45.00

Accordions—$7.50, 12.50, $19.50, 35.00, $50.00, 70.00, $125.00 and $145.00

BARKER MUSIC STORE 760 Willamette

Publisher Accepts Willcox Manuscript

A political study by W. R. B. Willcox of Eugene, has been accepted for publication by Fortune's, 67 West 41th street, New York, it was announced in New York last week.

The book, entitled "Taxation Turmoil," is a study of government income and expenditure under the present economic system, and the influence of this transfer of wealth on the man in the street. Publication date is as yet indefinite, but work on the book is going rapidly forward.

THE Gift THAT KEEPS ON GIVING

UNDERWOOD UNIVERSAL PORTABLE

This Christmas give an Underwood Portable Typewriter... a model for every purpose at a price for every purse.

STEVENS TYPEWRITER CO. 112 East Bldwy. Ph. 348

Competition Is Keen in Riflery

Bullseye Popular As Winning Team Overcomes Foes

With the finals of their two-man team competition yesterday, the women's PE rifle class completed its firing for the term. Top team was that of Alice Guistina and Susanne Cunningham who shot a score of 193 bullseyes out of a possible 200.

Second place went to Marion Barrett and Barbara Todd who almost tied the winning team with a score of 192 points. Monday the two teams did tie, and were forced to shoot the match over.

The team of Darline Warren and Barbara Miller was third with 188 points.

First place in the individual competition went to Barbara Todd with an almost perfect score of 99 bullseyes out of a possible 100, second place to Alice Guistina with 98,

XMAS CARDS Made to Order

wiltshire's 935 Oak St. Phone 297

Stray Articles To Be on Block

To add to their scholarship fund the Associated Women Students will sponsor an auction of "lost and found" articles on the steps of the Commerce building tomorrow between 11 and 12 o'clock.

Raincoats, slickers, umbrellas, pencils, pens, notebooks, jewelry, and a small library of stray books will be put on the block by Auctioneers Phil Barrett and Woody Slater.

These articles are just a few of the things which were turned into the "lost and found" University depot and which after due advertisement have been turned over to the AWS for sale.

Jeanne Haehlen was appointed by Prexy Anne Frederiksen as chairman of the auction.

and third place to Eleanor Seely with 97 points.

Sergeant Harvey Blythe, instructor in marksmanship, was highly enthusiastic over the girls' scores.

"It looks like Oregon will have another championship rifle team," he said. Sergeant Blythe is well-known for his top rifle teams, with national as well as local championship records to his credits.

The top 24 girls of the fall term class will go into the winter term rifle course and will be trained for the girls' rifle team. They will be joined by eight girls from last year's much-publicized team.

Honorary to Initiate

Beta Alpha Psi, accounting fraternity, will initiate William Esary this afternoon at 4 o'clock in room 2 of the school of business administration.

After the initiation a banquet will be held at McCrady's cafe at 6 o'clock. Spencer Collins, a practicing certified accountant in Eugene, will be the guest speaker.

Burkitt Named Prexy at NYU

Second Straight Time for UO Grad To Be Selected

Ed Burkitt, an Oregon graduate on a scholarship at New York university, has been elected president of the graduate class there, according to word received from Larry Crane and Willis Watson, Oregon graduates, by Dr. N. H. Comish, professor of business administration.

UO Grads Twice in Row

This is the second consecutive year that a student of the University of Oregon has held the office of president of the graduate class at New York university. Last year Jack Enders, class of '38, was president.

"This is a distinct honor for the University of Oregon, as there are at least 100 other graduate students on scholarships from the universities and colleges throughout the United States attending New York university," Dr. Comish declared.

Six University of Oregon graduates are attending New York university on retail scholarships this year. They include: Ed Burkitt, Larry Crane, Willis Watson, Lorraine Hunt, George S. Humphrey, and Jack Lindner. Ruth Ketchum is on a retail scholarship at Northwestern university.

Kertes Gets CPA Title

Alvin Kertes, graduate assistant in the school of business administration, received word Tuesday afternoon that he had passed the examination in the state of Washington for his certified public accountant certificate.

Warren Numerates Library's Magazines

Willis C. Warren, periodical librarian, is compiling a list of all volumes of magazines in the library. The data will be sent to the Union List of Serials to be added to similar information from almost every college in the United States. The volume which will come out early in 1941 is the second edition of this work.

the latest... our new Plum Pudding Ice Cream

It's delicious, and only 25 cents a quart. Served by our Dutch girls, you will enjoy the tasty snacks. "The neat white shop with the Dutch blue shutters."

Curb Service "EUGENE'S FINEST"

Dutch Girl On Willamette between 12th and 13th

A TIMELY TIP FOR YOUR COLLEGE TRIP...

Send your baggage direct to your campus address by nation-wide RAILWAY EXPRESS—the convenient college route. When everything's packed and ready just phone. We'll call for trunks, bags or boxes right at your door without extra charge in all cities and principal towns. (The low express rates also include receipts and $50 insurance per 100 lbs.) Then board your train with peace of mind. Now's the time to solve your college laundry problem—easily and economically. Arrange to express your laundry "home-and-back" regularly by our swift, dependable service—collect or prepaid! For complete details and courteous service merely phone

East of S. P. Pass. Station Phone 20 Eugene, Ore.

RAILWAY EXPRESS AGENCY INC. NATION-WIDE RAIL-AIR SERVICE

Special Ski Edition Tomorrow Watch for it.

Advertisement for Montgomery Ward featuring Rayon satin slippers, pajamas, and robes. Includes text: "GIVE HER THE GIFT SHE REALLY WANTS but doesn't dream she'll get!" and "Play Santa Claus as generously as you would like to—Surprise your family and friends with gifts that make their eyes sparkle! You CAN do it at Wards. Just write out your list and then come and see how little you have to pay for everything you picked! Wards shelves are bulging with lovely Christmas lingerie that is LOW PRICED!"

WHY DOESN'T AN AIRLINE PILOT WRITE A NOVEL ABOUT FLYING?

Advertisement for the novel 'High Frontier' by Leland Jamieson. Features a photo of a pilot and text: "Well, one just did! The Story: Take away today's lighted airways; take away radio beams and you're back in the '20's... with the hard-shelled pilots who flew the mail 'by the seat of their pants.' Here's a novel of one reckless flyer who inherited a bankrupt airline, a handful of insubordinate pilots, and a girl manager who predicted he'd have to grow up—or crack up." "The Author: When an expert flyer is also an expert writer—that's Leland Jamieson! Millions of Post readers know his short stories. His first full-length novel is part autobiography, part fiction—all superb entertainment. Right now, as High Frontier hops off, Capt. Jamieson is at the wheel of a DC-3 somewhere between Miami and New York, where he regularly flies day and night runs." "HIGH FRONTIER by LELAND JAMIESON Begins in this week's Post"

In this same issue: "TOO YELLOW TO PLAY FOOTBALL?" He was on the sidelines now. He was the guy who had broken Billy Cooper's leg. The guy 85,000 people were waiting to boo. And today was Game Day. A short story by Paul O'Neill on page 22 of this week's Post. THE PLAIN PEOPLE FACE THE WAR. The writer, John W. Vandercook, recently talked with French shopkeepers, peasants, heard their stories; then motored into Germany and spent hours with Nazi small-town leaders. New insight on how the common people of two countries are taking it. HOLLYWOOD HUSBANDS HAVE SO-O-O MANY PROBLEMS! Reuben Rosen, Hollywood's Boy Wonder, was a wif at changing scripts into happy endings. But could he kill his wife's infatuation for her new leading man? (Quick, get the script-girl!) A short story, Suggestion for a Happy Ending, by Edith Fitzgerald. WILD COYOTES BREAKFASTED WITH US! Snowed in eight months of the year, seven thousand feet up in the High Sierras, the author of this unusual nature article and her husband actually taught wild coyotes "table manners"! Read The Coyotes Come. MARRY FOR LOVE—REPENT AT LEISURE. A boy of nineteen marrying a woman of thirty-one? It won't last, people were saying. But the wife, desperately in love, had the courage to find out. Read Please Let Me Come Home, by Helen Deutsch. IT WAS SMART TO BE RED. Eugene Lyons gives you a Who's Who of Communism's elite... how they line up unsuspecting professors, naive clergymen, writers, and "society" folk as a front for their propaganda. AND... Short stories by Maurice Walsh and David Lamson; articles, poems, editorials, Post Scripts and cartoons. All in this week's issue of The Saturday Evening Post.