Webfoot Hoopsters Face Rubensteins In Battle Tonight

which Buck Berry, or "Buck Berry rides again" fame, Jim Harris, and Dick Horne matriculated. Anet's gang has three of last year's national championship first string men, namely—Anet, Gale, and Johansen. Dick is the only holdover of starters for Oregon from last year.

Trick Shots

Tonight, Eugene townspeople and Oregon students besides seeing the Oregons for the last time before the trip will see two of the cleverest shots in the business. Maybe, they're the crasiest, but they're good. Sarpoia may spin around in midair for John Q. Public or Butterworth may wrap his legs around his neck and cast off near sub-stratosphere for two points.

Probable starters will be Gale, Silver, Butterworth, Anet, and Johansen for the Rubes, Dick, Sarpoia, Anderson, Pavalunas, and Townsend will probably be on the floor for Hobson's part of the feuding.

Marshik will not play until the Oregon team meets the New Orleans Gaylords on December 16. A tonsil operation is keeping him on the bench.

Another thing fans love to watch are those nice, long, high, arching shots that some people call howitz-Officer, trainer.

ers. Johansen is the chief tosser for the Anets in this department. Pavalunas will probably stand back in "no man's land" to shove his shots through space for the Ducks.

Rally Scheduled

After the "battle" a rally is scheduled to give the Webfoots a fitting and proper send-off to the crusades.

The parade will start at McArthur court after the game and wend its way downtown to the S. P. depot. The Cascade starts rolling to the southland and New Orleans at 9:10 p.m. with 14 new passengers on board.

Tuberculosis?

The University of Chicago has offered full tuition scholarships to Rhodes scholars forced from England by the current war.

Exotic Masks

objects on display show the lives and social organizations of the people who made them, though they are also of interest to the theater.

The masks from Java, Bali, and Mexico differ from those of the Northwest in the sophistication of their finish. They also are very colorful and some are quite old.

The Mexican masks in the collection were brought back from a journey to Mexico this summer. They include an ancient Aztec mask (Xipe Totec) which was used in spring ceremonies and signified the renewal of life, struggling through death. There is also a puppet stage with the characters of peon, a priest, a masked dancer, and a lady. The clown mask was used in fiesta dances.

Books, prints, and other objects of interest are also on display.

Skiers Get Bumped

"Jumping must grow up with one," claimed the slat-rider. Until last year jumping and cross-country entrants in meets was optional. Team competition is compulsory in downhill and slalom.

Jump 100 Feet

Rollie Dickie, intramural director and newly appointed ski coach, has been working the Oregon hopefuls in an attempt to get them in shape for the coming season.

After the beginning of winter term, weekend practices will be held. Calisthenics and track work from a mile up to a mile and a half are a part of the conditioning process. The unfinished area in the gym is used as a track. Last year there was no coach; the fellows were their own coaches.

Hoopmen

Gamma hall scored their third win by defeating the Sigma hoopers 35-24. L. LeClair scored 14 points for Gamma and G. Mellor made 8 for Sigma hall.

Alpha hall trounced the Sherry Ross basketballers 33-4. W. McKeivitt was high point man for Alpha with 12 points, while E. Blair scored all 4 points for the losers.

Zeta hall defeated Omega 28-18, to tie with Gamma and Alpha for first place in the league. G. Landeen made 10 points for Zeta.
