New Course Changes Made

Recommendations Seek Approval of State Board Next

Course changes for the Oregon catalog during the year 1940-41 were approved by University instructors at a faculty meeting Wednesday afternoon in Friendly hall.

The list, as recommended by the committee on course changes, will be filed by Dr. Donald M. Erb, president, in the chancellor's office for approval of the state board of higher education. The board will meet in Portland Tuesday, December 12.

Faculty members passed a resolution extending sympathy to the friends and family of the late Robert Carlton Clark, Oregon history instructor. The resolution commented on Dr. Clark's ability and praised his service on this campus.

What A Man!

There seems to be no limit to the capabilities of this boy Frank Emmons. Once before we mentioned that he was some shucks as a singer, a la Dick Todd.

And now we hereby tack M.C. (master of ceremonies) to his name. For, if you haven't heard, Mr. Emmons will be the maestro at his fraternity's Sally Rand party Saturday night.

Yes, and Frank may plant the sweetheart pin on the fan dancer, too, if Bob Smith doesn't want the honor.

A New Beef Trust

A new independent team will make its appearance on the campus soon. Sponsored by a downtown firm, it will include Buck Berry, Dick Horne, and Jim Harris, the Compton stars who played plenty of basketball in jay-see ranks; Don Mabee, the McMinnville flash who was on the varsity squad last year; Frank Emmons, Bob Smith, Peevee Bujan, and Jim Shepard.

Quite a beef trust there, but some of them can really play basketball. Wonder if they'll challenge Bobby Anet's crew of speedsters?

Short Shots . . .

According to Oregon hoop team's itinerary, Coach Hobby and his boys will spend Christmas day in Chicago again this year, playing DePaul at the Chicago Coliseum Christmas night.

For Hobby, Matt Pavalunas, Bob Officer, Red McNeely, Ted Sarpola, and John Dick it will be the second successive Christmas celebrated in Chicago, and the second away from their homes.

Bobby Anet is "headman" of the frosh basketball team in the absence of Coach John Warren, who is away proselyting for future Oregon teams. Coaches Tex Oliver and Mike Mikulak are in California "just lookin' around".
