

Blankinship Wins Contest

Earl Holmer Takes Second at Banquet; Jane Hooker Third

A humorous satire on politicians entitled "The Golden Profession" won $15 and the first prize in the W. F. Jewett after-dinner speaking contest for John Blankinship at the finals of the contest last night.

The second prize of $10 went to Earl Holmer and the third prize of $5 was won by Jane Hooker.

"The Fascination of Murder" was the subject which won for Holmer, while Miss Hooker was given her award for a speech on "The Vicissitudes of Debate."

Blankinship explained the methods of politicians and how to be one.

"The entrants showed a great variety of talent. The audience received entertainment from all of the talks," according to J. L. Casteel, director of the speech division.

Last night's contest, at the Anchorage, was one of the divisions of the Jewett speech contests, sponsored each term by Mrs. W. F. Jewett.

A banquet was held previous to the talks. The talks were on entertaining and humorous subjects and were aimed to amuse the audience.

The judges were Kenneth Shumaker, director of the lower division advertising commission, W. A. Dahlberg, assistant professor of speech, and Marvin Krenk, instructor of speech.

Mr. Casteel acted as toastmaster.

Other contestants were Bob Whitely, Florence Kinney, Bob Watson, and Ernest Hinkle.

Psychology Club Hears Carp's Paper

The newly formed psychology club, which meets every other Friday evening, had at its last meeting a paper read by Abraham Carp, research assistant in psychology. The paper was written by Dr. Ernest Gellhorn, formerly with the physiology department, and concerned a theory of the physiological foundation of the metrazol and insulin treatments of schizophrenia.

The club discusses psychological problems and the meetings are open to the public.

Water Carnival

Russ Cutler will back you in his praise for Jack, Sherm, and Jerry . . . he thinks they are tops, too. Incidentally, here's another suggestion . . . we learn that the sophomore class has thought about financing the retirement of the numbers of last year's hoop champions . . . that's okay, but the class might come through for the swimmers, too . . . after all, Jerry Macdonald is a sophomore, and the class could help in sending him back, at least.

With each team holding one match, Clark defeated Schick in four sets, 21-17, 21-19, 16-21, 21-12. The ATOs took both single events from the SPEs, but dropped the doubles with Payne and Rossman bowing to Barton and Reynolds, 21-18, 20-22, 21-19, 21-18. Beta's double and one single victory were in straight set wins, but Jake Werschkul was extended to four sets before he conquered Malling, SAE. The score was 21-19, 21-15, 19-21, 21-12.

an all-around good brand of ball. Center—Bill Harrow, Beta. Harrow was a high scorer and stand-out man on an exceptionally good team. Guards—Bill Moore, Kappa Sig, and George Schweiger, Phi Delt. Moore was the leading player on a well-balanced Kappa Sig outfit. Schweiger was sick the last of the season but made a very good impression early in the term. The second string includes Doug Hay, ATO, and Paul Beard, Beta, at forwards; Ray Dickson, Phi Delt, at center; Jake Feasley, Phi Delt, and Rodger Conrad, Beta, at guards.

Six Years Together

By the way . . . Jack first met pal Sherm Wetmore when they were sophs at Long Beach Polytechnic when he was a diver! So the Dallas-Wetmore duo have been cracking records side by side for six years. They were on a medley relay team together in '36 and '37 which held the Southern California record . . . their mark of 1:40 at 180 yards held the national record for about a week, too.

Back Stroker Sherm Wetmore held a whole flock of records during his three high school years at Long Beach Polytechnic. Perhaps the best way to give you his prep accomplishments would be in the form of a list. His backstroke records:-

- 1935—lightweight, high school.
- 50-yd.—29.8. Long Beach pool record.
- 50-meter—33.5. Southern California record.
- 50-yd.—29.9. Coast league high school and So. Cal. record.
- 1936—varsity, high school.
- 100-yd.—1:04.2. Pool record at Long Beach and also So. Cal. meet record.
- 100-yd.—1:05.9. So. Cal. and Coast league mark.
- 150-yd. medley relay—1:26 (Wetmore, Dallas, Herron) So. Cal. and Los Angeles records.

- 1937—varsity.
- 100-yd.—1:03.5. Pool record at Long Beach.
- 100-yd.—1:05.9. Tied Southern California record.
- 150-yd. medley relay (Wetmore, Dallas, Herron) 1:24.1. So. Cal., Los Angeles relay, and Coast league marks.
- 180-yd. medley relay (Wetmore, Dallas, Herron) 1:40. Southern California record.

- 100-yd.—1:04.1. Southern California prep record.
- Oh yes, and did I mention that Sherm rated third among the nation's high school backstrokers during both his junior and senior years. Summarizing it, Sherm and Jack have cracked swimming records with monotonous regularity since they entered high school and goodness knows when they first actually started paddling around.
