

Viennese Idea Wins Contest

Weekend Theme Is Pat Erickson's Strauss Waltz

Five students submitted the same general ideas as were present in the prize-winning entry of Pat Erickson. After the Junior Weekend judging committee had narrowed the field of contestants down to those who had offered the Strauss waltz idea, they found that Miss Erickson's entry was more elaborately prepared.

The students who submitted the Viennese waltz idea will have their choice of a ticket to the Junior Prom or the Canoe Fete. They were: Nellie Andersen, May Frye, Ivy Cook, Marge Finnegan, and Leo Marlantes.

Episcopal Worker Arriving in Eugene Is Guest of Locals

On a tour of Pacific Northwest colleges, Miss Margaret Williams, Episcopal college worker for the eighth province, will be guest of the local Episcopal student group this weekend.

Arriving Saturday evening she will confer with the cabinet Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock and will speak to the group at 6 o'clock.

A recent arrival on the Pacific coast, Miss Williams is also associate college secretary at the University of California.

Business Office Urges Repayment Of Student Loans

All student loans must be paid before spring registration to Miss Elgin at windows one and two of Johnson hall, the business office announced yesterday.

To avoid the rush at the first of next term, it was urged that as many students as possible pay before leaving school after final examinations.

Leavitt O. Wright Plans to Take Leave

Professor Leavitt O. Wright, of the department of Romance languages, who recently returned from a sick leave in California, is planning to take a sabbatical leave for the spring quarter for further recuperation and to carry on research in Spanish linguistics.

Dr. Wright has been asked to undertake a search for promising advanced scholars in philology and linguistics who may become candidates for fellowships to study at the Instituto de Filologia at Buenos Aires. He expects to interview candidates at the University of Arizona, New Mexico, and Texas on his journey southward.

Dr. Wright will resume his work at the University in the fall.

Coed Chatter

champion. DG's Anabel Hibbitt is a potential contender to the title. Hope Dondero and Mary Swearington will make it tough for anyone.

Tennis will see an old feud resumed with the Chi O triumvirate, Robin Nelson, Barbara Bamford and Betty Lou Kurtz still the girls to beat. Phyllis Sanders, Beverly Steel, and Florence Kinney are some other outstanding racqueteers from last year.

Orides seems to be the favorite for the softball crown again this year, but the Kappas have cast their shadow across the field. Last year they lost to Orides by a lone run.

For the third year the Co-op sextet walked off with the basketball championship, pushing back the ADPi bid for the crown. The Co-op team placed two players on the all-star team, High Point Scorer Hazel Oldfield and "Rusty" Tomlinson, while ADPi placed three lassies on the all-star with Mildred McCarthy, Gloria Wadsworth and Mary Ellen Smith.

The Kappa team dropped out of the basketball tournament in the semi-finals, but their guard, Betty Plankington, made the all-star squad. Volleyball season was where the Kappas triumphed. They have taken the championship three years in a row from the Co-op and have won five out of the last six times at net.

Four Eugene Pianists Presented in Recital

The Eugene high school piano ensemble which combined the talents of Phyllis Gray, Thad Elvigion, Helen Luvaas, and Laurie Pratt gave a two-piano program in the University of Oregon music auditorium last night.

Laurie Pratt led off the solo offerings with the first movement of Mozart's "Concerto in D Minor." Olive Dungan's "Enchantment," was played by Pratt and Miss Luvaas.

The first movement of Mendelssohn's "Concerto in G Minor" gave Miss Luvaas opportunity to re-enforce the firm position she holds among young musicians of Eugene. Equally brilliant was Miss Gray's offering of the finale from Beethoven's "Concerto in C Minor."

Miss Gray joined Thad Elvigion in playing five waltzes from Op. 39 of Brahms. Elvigion left little doubt as to his potentialities as both composer and keyboard virtuoso when he played a part of his own "Concerto in B Minor." He also arranged the always popular "Hungarian Rhapsody No. 2" by Liszt, which the ensemble played.

Gamma Alpha Chi Initiates 15 Pledges

Gamma Alpha Chi, women's national advertising honorary, initiated 15 new members at a meeting last night.

Panel Talk Slated

A panel discussion on the topic, "What is the kingdom of heaven?" will be the program for the 9:45 morning service at Westminster house Sunday.

Participating in the discussion will be Linden Leavitt, Jack Newton, and Martin Wolpert, students at the University. These morning services are held weekly at Westminster house, and any student, regardless of church affiliation, is welcome to attend.
