

Gene Coy's Black Aces to Play for SDX Hop

Sweet Swing, Novelties, Will Be Featured

Colored Orchestra Has Played Over National Hookups

Thirteen won't be bad luck, at least, not for campus dancers, when Gene Coy's 13 Black Aces present their sweet swing April 13, at the Sigma Delta Chi spring term dance in McArthur court.

Coy was selected by the organization to play for the affair last night, culminating a long and thorough search for a satisfactory orchestra.

Coy will bring several novelty features, which have gone over big, especially with college audiences, Max Frye, promotion chairman for the dance, said. Among these will be characterizations of "Old Man Mose Is Dead" and "Smokey Joe."

"He's expected to be the successor of Duke Ellington, Jimmie Lunceford, and Count Basie as the top colored band in the country," Frye said.

Coy's Black Aces have played over several national hookups, including NBC, CBS, and Mutual. "Coy has 'wowed' audiences all over the country," Frye said.

Coy plays the drums.

'Idiot's Delight' Has Large Cast

Winner of the Pulitzer prize in 1936, presented on the New York stage and the Hollywood screen, "Idiot's Delight," assembles the largest cast of characters which has been seen this year on the campus in a student play. It will be produced behind the footlights of the University theater April 12, 13, and 16.

Gerry Smith takes the leading male role of Harry Van, opposite Helene Parsons as Irene.

Foreseeing a European war four years ago, Robert E. Sherwood made his forecast and worked it into a drama, pointing out the munition manufacturers' work in building an international conflict. The play is under the direction of Horace W. Robinson, assistant professor of drama. Donna Row is the student assistant director.

YMCA to Sponsor Frosh Discussion

Spring term's series of frosh discussions sponsored by the YMCA will meet this evening at 8:00 o'clock when Samuel Jameson, professor of sociology, will speak on "Our Grading System Under Fire."

Pros and cons of the grading system used by the University will be given by Professor Jameson in an attempt to familiarize students with the present method of measuring the ability of students.

Oregana Orders Still Being Taken

Students wishing to purchase 1940 Oreganas may still do so by seeing Mary Graham, secretary, at the educational activities office, or Cliff Stalsberg, cashier, in Johnson hall, Dick Williams, business manager, announced last night.

Full amount of $5.50 must be paid at this time and, all names will be placed on a waiting list.

Williams advised that students who have paid one dollar down on the yearbook bring the amount up to three dollars as soon as possible as there is danger that subscriptions will be cancelled.

Camp Counsellor Interviews Slated

Mrs. Helen Leonard and Mrs. Jones will interview applicants for Girl Scout camp counsellors April 4. At the same time interviews will be conducted by Mrs. Elaine Gorham for Camp Fire counsellors.

Girls who wish to apply for Girl Reserve counselling positions may interview Miss Grace Lowry, Girl Reserve secretary, at the YWCA bungalow April 5.

All ex-Namanu campers are holding a reunion with Miss Gorham Thursday at 5:30 at the Anchorage. No reservations are necessary since everyone will order just what they want, and everyone is invited.

Houses to Get Fete Partners

Each Organization Must Select Own Chairman Soon

Men's and women's living organizations who have announced their intentions of building floats for the Junior Weekend canoe fete Saturday night, May 11, will receive pairings at 4 o'clock Friday, April 5, Fred Ehlers, canoe fete chairman, announced yesterday.

Each organization must select its chairman to be in charge of its float, Ehlers said. This chairman must be present at the meeting which will be held at the College Side. The representatives will draw to determine pairings.

The women's houses deciding to build floats are: Alpha Omicron Pi, Gamma Phi Beta, Alpha Phi, Alpha Xi Delta, Alpha Chi Omega, Sigma Kappa, Delta Delta Delta, Chi Omega, Kappa Kappa Gamma, and Pi Beta Phi.

The men's organizations which will enter the float competition are Yeomen, Sigma Alpha Mu, Delta Tau Delta, Delta Upsilon, Phi Sigma Kappa, Beta Theta Pi, Phi Kappa Psi, Pi Kappa Alpha, Phi Delta Theta, Sigma Chi, and Alpha Tau Omega.

Westminster Hike Scheduled Today

Under the direction of Red Anderson, a group will leave Westminster house at 4 o'clock this afternoon for a short hike to Spencer's butte. Paper bag lunches are in order.

Anyone is welcome to attend this hike, but those planning to attend should notify Red Anderson at Westminster house in order to have transportation to and from the place where the hike starts. The group will return about 7 o'clock in the evening.
