

Campus Calendar

Denton Burdick, president of the law school student body, announces a meeting of the group this morning at 11 o'clock in the law school assembly hall in Fenton.

The University faculty lecture on "Literature and the Liberal Arts College" by H. G. Merriam, professor of English, scheduled for today has been postponed until Thursday, April 11.

Junior and senior girls interested in camp counselling for the coming summer will have an opportunity to interview the camp chairman, Mrs. Morris Jones, and the camp director, Mrs. Helen Leonard, of Camp Wildwood, the Portland Girl Scout camp, in the dean of women's office, from 11 until 12 and from 1 until 4 today. Call dean of women's office for appointments.

Girls interested in camp counselling for Camp Fire Girls may be interviewed Thursday, April 4, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the social room, physical education department; 112 Gerlinger hall, by Miss Elaine Gorham. Call physical education department for appointments.

Girls interested in camp counselling for Girl Reserves may be interviewed Friday, April 5, at the YWCA bungalow, 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. by the secretary, Grace Lowers. Call YWCA for appointments.

Phi Beta will hold a meeting at 7:30 tonight at Kappa Alpha Theta. Compulsory for members and pledges.

Ex-Namanu campers are all invited to a reunion with Miss Elaine Gorham at the Anchorage tonight at 5:30. School clothes. Any price meal.

Miss Elaine Gorham, Portland Camp Fire executive and director of Camp Namanu, will interview girls who are interested in becoming camp counselors, today from 9 to 5 in Gerlinger social room.

The deadline for varsity and frosh tennis team aspirants to report to Coach Russ Cutler is today at 3 o'clock. At that time Cutler will meet the players on the University courts.

Kwama members will meet today at 12 o'clock at the College Side for a luncheon meeting. Please bring spring term dues.

Phi Theta Upsilon will meet today in men's lounge, Gerlinger, at 4:45.

Mrs. Van Loan, director of the Eugene vocational school, will address Phi Chi Theta women's business honorary members on the topic "Business Opportunities for Women" at an invitational tea to be held today at 4 o'clock in alumni room, Gerlinger hall, according to Laurita Christofferson, who is in charge of the affair.

A life insurance sales contest will be held tonight at 7:30 in room 106, Commerce.

Flight Test Slated

Tonight at 7:30 all flight students will take the final ground school exam, bringing technical instruction to an end for Oregon's first student pilot training program, it was announced last night from the office of Carlton E. Spencer, air school head.

Retailers' Meet To Attract Many

BA Students to Sell Banquet Tickets, Contact Merchants

When the Oregon Retail Distributors' institute meets on the University of Oregon campus Monday for its fourth annual conference many cities of the state will be represented. A number of delegates have already signified intentions of attending the conference, according to word received from Dr. N. H. Comish, professor of business administration and secretary of the institute.

Recreation for the delegates is being planned by the physical education division of the University. The Oregon Retail Distributors' banquet to be held in the St. Mary's Episcopal church Monday evening at 6, will climax the conference. Presiding will be Dean Victor P. Morris of the school of business administration.

Students of the school of business administration are taking an active part in the preparation for the conference by selling tickets for the banquet and contacting downtown Eugene merchants include: Laurita Christofferson, Helen V. Elliott, John E. Farrar, Maxine R. Klinge, Sarah E. Ray, Lawrence E. Reid, Leonard M. Ruecker, Allyn R. Shaw, Charles F. Skinner, Shirley L. Zion.

Newsom's Book Added to Library

The library has received a copy of "Japanese Garden Construction" by Samuel Newsom. Mr. Newsom recently visited the campus at which time a dinner was given in his honor sponsored by the Eugene Garden club and the school of architecture and allied arts.

The book has numerous sketches of Japanese gardens and architecture.

If it's for Tennis...
WARDS SELL IT FOR LESS!

Compare with $8 Rackets! Wards NATIONAL 4.29

Compare these features: 5-pc. beveled ash frame; tapered throat; tipped beech shoulder overlay; silk cord bindings; black leather grip!

Wards 1940 LAWFORD 2.98

Try and find its equal for less than $5! 3-pc. beveled frame; walnut handle and shoulder overlay. Bright silk bindings; leather grip!

Ward's INVISIBLE 8.50 4.98

Value Here's the Tennis Racket you've been waiting for. Slatted throat—fine quality silk strings. See it at Wards!

3 TENNIS BALLS
Approved by U. S. L.T.A. Save money! 98¢

WRIGHT & DITSON
Tennis Balls
Can of 3 only. $1.15

RACKET PRESS 49¢
Select, hard ash. Edges beveled.

MONTGOMERY WARD

Frosh Elections To Spring 'Lid' On 1940 Politics

Nominations Slated For April 11: Sophs Will Convene Soon

Political "goings on" at the University of Oregon get their first official 1940 introduction April 11, when President Les Anderson calls together the freshman class to nominate next year's officers.

Second class to enter the political fray will be the sophomores, with a meeting scheduled for April 18. Both meetings will be held at 7:30 on the designated evenings in Villard hall.

At that time Anderson and Sophomore Class Prexy Bob Calkins explained, nominations for the offices of president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer of next year's sophomore and junior class will be named. Elections will be held the week following nominations in each case.

THRU THE MADDING CROWD

with MAJEANE GLOVER

I'll Huff and I'll Puff

What could be more perfect to start out the new spring term than a new creation of Lucien Lelong's! Pif Paf Puf is created with the particular purpose of harmonizing makeup with the costume. First choose your costume, next choose a neat little Pif Paf Puf case which matches, and lo and behold! you find inside the exact shades best suited to your costume in lipstick, rouge, powder, and powder puff. Price, $1.50.

You Won't Be a Spectator Long

At Burch's we found great news for you. Those beautiful China buck spectator pumps with kid leather in black, brown, and blue which you have been so enthusiastic about have been reordered. Burch's college spectator is elasticized and thus is a more comfortable and smoother fit. It is priced at $7.95.

Spring Term At the "U"

The first thing we saw on entering Hadley's was an adorable dusty pink crepe alpaca date dress which we learned was only one of a group of chic spring pastels. The one frock had royal and heaven blue bands circling it above the waist which buttoned down the front, and similar bands on puffy pockets. It was neatly fitted at the waist to give a flattering effect and gradually flared into a lovely full skirt. Lace trim was used at neck and on pockets. Price, $12.95.

Soft as Gooper-Feathers

Always appealing to coeds are lovely soft robes that are useful for comfort as well as hard wear. At Penney's a complete selection of cozy Chenille robes may be found in a variety of spring colors. We all like to lounge in comfort, so see these at $2.98 and $3.98.

Let's Go to the Dogs

Whether you are a collector of wooden animals or not, you will be entranced with Sniffer and Howler, little hand carved wooden dogs at The Gift Shop. Also you will find there cunning little colts and other dogs. They are 50c to 95c each. And then you must be sure to see the Italian Dogs and Laughing Horses, hand carved with excellent detail workmanship at $2.95 each.

Button! Button! Who Has The Button?

Attracting much attention at Kaufman's is the charming white spring formal gown which is outstanding in its simplicity. The interesting fabric of waffle pique is trimmed with beautiful Irish hand crocheted lace at square neck and puffed sleeves. The fitted dress buttons all the way down the front and is strikingly set off with a bright red patent leather belt. It is $17.75. Other adorable young styles may be found in organdies, dimities, and printed taffetas from $7.95 up.

Go Jump in the Lake!

Planning for a swim soon? If so, you'll want to start thinking of swimming accessories. At The Broadway Inc. we know you'll find just what you want in beach strollers. You can't miss because they have every color imaginable. With a good sturdy sole of heavy rubber, the top is made up of various styles of straps that mean comfort as well as looks. Also you'll have a chance to get a first glance of 1940 swim suit styles.

Don't Slip Up On This

Here's something that will appeal to you no matter what the weather is like because you wear a slip rain or shine. Miller's are offering a grand regular $1.65 Barbizon slip for $1.45. This unusually sturdy style is cut on the famous Bryn Mawr patented design, and is long wearing and fits beautifully with its four gored skirt. Colors are white and blush in sizes from 31½ to 44.

This Is an Honest Racket

Spring term means tennis weather. Montgomery Ward's is prepared to help you select the best and the most reasonable in tennis equipment. If it's a racket, be sure to see Ward's selection at $4.29. If it's balls, try their Ward's Championship at 98c.