

Tickets to Harlem Hop Go on Sale Today

Odd Programs Designed for SDX Dance

One Dollar Set as Price for Spring Term Affair

Tickets for the Harlem Hop, annual spring term Sigma Delta Chi dance, will go on sale in all men's living organizations today, according to Larry Quinlan, chairman of the ticket committee.

Students will also be able to obtain tickets from Sigma Delta Chi members and pledges, Quinlan said.

University students will receive one of the oddest dance tickets ever sold on the University campus for the one dollar admission price. The tickets and programs will be combined, consisting of a piece of plywood, cut in the shape of a man's head, and with distinctly negro-like features painted on one side. On the back will be the printed program for the dance.

"Everything must go Harlem, even the tickets and programs," Jannie Leonard, general chairman, said.

Gene Coy and his 13 Black Aces will play for the dance.

Dinner Entertains Fifteen Who Have 3.5 Accumulatives

Fifteen freshman girls with accumulative GPA's of 3.5 and above will be honored by Phi Theta Upsilon, junior women's honorary, at a banquet to be held at the Anchorage tonight.

Majeanne Glover, president of the organization, hopes that tonight's scholarship banquet will develop into an annual affair to promote scholarship among first year students, and that it will take the place of a freshman honorary which dissolved several years ago.

Guest speaker of the evening will be H. G. Barnett of the anthropology department, who will speak on the relationship between students and instructors in the University. Mr. Barnett is himself a member of Phi Beta Kappa. Dean Hazel Schwering will also be present at the banquet.

Freshman girls to be honored, include Clara Louise Hering, Marjorie Sawyer, Eileen Virginia Millards, Doris Gething, Leon La Duke, Carethel Roselund, Mary Ellen Smith, Helen Moore, Adele Canada, Mary Elizabeth Earl, Mary Alderson, Mary Jane Bovington, Lela Mae Furchner, Maxine Knight, and Maxine Tripp.

Harry Barnes Has Many Honors, Was Teacher, Author

Harry E. Barnes, sociologist, historian, and criminologist, who will address today's ASUO assembly in Gerlinger hall, is a member of the editorial department of Scripps-Howard newspapers, Karl W. Onthank, dean of personnel, announced yesterday.

Mr. Barnes formerly taught at Smith college and has written many books on subjects of international interest. According to Dean Onthank, he received his first extensive notice in 1923 for his "New History and the Social Studies." Today he will speak on "The Crisis in World History."

Among the honors the author received while at college was a Phi Beta Kappa key and a "summa cum laude" at graduation.

He taught as a professor in the University of Oregon summer session in 1920.

Mr. Barnes has written 26

EVERYBODY'S FRIEND

Who are the best friends of advertising?

The manufacturer? . . . Yes, for advertising gives him a chance to acquaint thousands of people at once with the fine product he has made.

The merchant? . . . Yes, for advertising draws people to his store who might never have known about the outstanding goods he has to sell.

The consumer . . . you? . . . Yes, because advertising informs. It tells what, it tells where, it tells when, it tells how much. It saves you infinite trouble, and makes life easier, more economical, more satisfying.

Everyone profits from advertising. That's why advertising's friends are many . . . and loyal!
