

Conference Opener Scheduled Today

OREGON Daily EMERALD

VOLUME XLI

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, FRIDAY, APRIL 19, 1940

NUMBER 106

Vandeneynde Leads Class of '43

New Prexy Beats Ballif In Frosh Poll

All Running Mates Of Victor Elected To Other Positions

Frosh class political wars came to an end yesterday as Bud Vandeneynde was elected to preside over the class of '43 for next year, defeating Len Ballif by a count of 226 to 188.

When the smoke of battle cleared away at the final vote tabulation, every office in support of Vandeneynde was carried: Marge Dibble elected to the vice-presidency, Mary McAdams, secretary, and Reid Ferrall, treasurer.

Total ballots for each candidate:

President — Bud Vandeneynde 226, Len Ballif 188.

Vice-president — Marge Dibble 227, Peggy Rakestraw 187.

Secretary — Mary McAdams 223, Ruth Hartley 191.

Treasurer — Reid Ferrall 225, Mack Dietrich 189.

Silenced political guns marked the end of a week's campaign, climaxing with bloc rallies Wednesday and the freshman trek to the polls yesterday until four. Activity along the campus "front" will renew as the sophomores open their campaign.

Westminster Will Hold Open House

In addition to regular Westminster members at the weekly open house tonight, there will be about 40 guests from the vocational school in Eugene, Mrs. J. D. Bryant, hostess director of the group, announced yesterday.

Dancing, games, singing, and refreshments will be in order from 8 until 11:30 p.m.

Campaign 'Bills' In Emerald Unauthorized

When Emerald readers picked up their copy of the campus daily yesterday morning many found colored campaign posters stuffed between the pages. Some took this as an indication that the student daily was being partial and was supporting one candidate over another.

This was entirely untrue. The posters were stuffed in after the Emerald had left the University press. The students responsible for the action did so without authorization and will be brought before the student discipline committee, upon petition of Emerald heads, later this week.

One for Each

(Courtesy the Oregon Journal)

Hobby Hobson, basketball and baseball mentor, and Russ Cutler, swimming coach, each receive a fat check from Bob Calkins, sophomore class president. The class voted $50 for the retirement of the numerals of Oregon's national champion basketball team and $100 to send Oregon's three ace swimmers to the national meet at Yale university.

Student Union Need Cited by Professor

"So integral in student activities that I don't see how they get along without it," is the opinion of James L. C. Ford, assistant professor of journalism, concerning the University of Michigan's huge student union building.

"The need for one at Oregon is apparent," he affirmed when approached on the question.

First hand observer of student unions at many colleges, Mr. Ford cites the centralizing effect on campus activities and the tendency toward a more democratic student life as beneficial points attributed to a union hall. Fraternal affiliations aren't a barrier between groups when all students and faculty can associate on common grounds, he brought out.

Alumni Entertainment

"An important function which could best be filled by a union hall is alumni entertainment," declared Mr. Ford, a point seldom mentioned when weighing benefits.

An end to the dance floor problem, rooms for committee meetings, publications headquarters, a rest lounge—with latest newspapers, a restaurant, and possibly adequate seating space for theatrical productions would all be provided by Oregon's proposed structure.

Theater Added

Mr. Ford reports that Michigan has added a theater that seats 3,000 with the finest equipment in that area. Within the spacious halls are all types of eating places from a serve-yourself to a table service cafe. Special music rooms with classical albums are possible. The union would be a good place to go over notes for the next class. Assignments for all classes could be posted on the bulleting board as

(Please turn to page three)

Sophomores Nominate Candidates

Jack McCliment, Louie Torgeson Run for President

It took Oregon's sophomore class just 15 minutes last night to zip through the formal nomination of Jack McCliment and Louie Torgeson for the presidential job next year, and to hear their campaign promises from the traditionally political stage of Villard hall.

Figuring too in the race will be the following candidates, nominated for other class offices: For vice-president, Jean Burt and Virginia Tyrrell; for secretary, Martha McClung and Betty Plankington; and for treasurer, Wayne Kelty and Clark Weaver.

Torgeson and McCliment will end up their campaigns next Thursday, when moleskin-wearers go to the polls in the YMCA hut to select their new officers. Bob Calkins is the retiring executive.

3 o'Clock Club To Meet Tonight

When the last page proof is taken tonight and the forms ready for the press, the Three o'Clock Club, Emerald workers' honorary, will hold their weekly meeting.

An important business meeting will be followed by pictures of the group by Ted Kenyon, Emerald staff photographer.

Each member also will be given an Emerald press card.

The usual "banquet" will follow. All members are urged to attend.

Air Corps Exams Slated Next Week

Lieutenant Murray A. Bywater, advance officer for the army air corps examining board, arrived on the campus Wednesday to make arrangements for the annual flying cadet examinations of the United States air corps.

The board will conduct its examinations in the physical education building next Monday. Each candidate will be interviewed to determine his fitness and will undergo a rigid physical examination. He must also have completed two years of college, or take an examination which is the equivalent.

The examining board consists of Captain Steven V. Guzak, Captain Ehrling L. Berquist, Major Thomas W. Blackburn, Lieutenant Frank A. Kurtz, and Lieutenant Bywater.

Pinafores

The heads of Junior Weekend Say a pinafore will rate. And they're asking all the women, "Won't you please cooperate?"

If they need a selling slogan That they haven't used before, Try "Discard your derved ol' dirndls For a pleasant pinafore."

J.W.S.

IN TODAY'S EMERALD

Campus calendar .....	7
Baseball special .....	4, 5
Edits .....	2
Sports .....	6, 7
Band Box .....	2
Duck Tracks .....	4

Oregon Nine Faces OSC At 3 o'Clock

Injuries Hit Duck Squad: Igoe May Start on Mound

Elaborate pregame ceremonies with Mayor Elisha Large of Eugene and Coaches Howard Hobson and Ralph Coleman participating will officially usher in the 1940 baseball season at the University of Oregon today.

Today's game will pit Oregon's varsity nine against a powerful Oregon State team at 3 on Howo field.

Pregame ceremonies will open with the raising of the American flag accompanied by the "Star Spangled Banner" after which the championship pennant will be nailed to the Webfoot flag pole.

"Baseball Day" as it has been termed will be replete with prizes for the various firsts.

Probable starting battery for the Webfoots will be Pete Igoe on the mound and Cece Walden behind the plate. Glenn Elliott and Johnnie Leovich will be the likely choice for the Beavers.

Scholarship Heads Will Go to Portland

The Oregon Mothers' scholarship committee will interview applicants in Portland this weekend, the personnel office announced yesterday.

Members of the committee include Karl W. Onthank, dean of personnel, Dr. Rudolph Ernst, professor of English, Dr. Astrid Williams, assistant professor of German, and Mrs. C. C. Wintermute, president of the Oregon Mothers.

Dean Onthank stated that winners of this year's award will be announced soon after the Portland interviews. Value of the scholarship this year is $500.

Wesleyans to Hike

It will be "over the hills and far away" we go for those who wish to hike with Wesley club at 8 o'clock, says Dick Chambers, president.

Those who plan to be one of the group are asked to be at Chambers' home at 935 Patterson street by 8 o'clock.

From President to --- What? Checkup Tells

By PAT ERICKSON

ASUO presidents since 1930 have turned to professions all the way from handling real estate to fighting in China, a recent check-up showed.

Tom Stoddard, 1930 prexy, is now in charge of the residence sales department of Commonwealth, Inc., in Portland. In school he was a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity and was active in all school affairs. He graduated in business administration.

Brian Mimnaugh, student chief in 1931, is now employed by Wakefield-Fries and Woodward real estate company in Portland. He has charge of marketing and sales promotion work. He, too, was a member of Phi Delta Theta and graduated in business administration.

Bond Salesman

Bob Hall, son of Robert Carr Hall, University press manager, was president in 1932. A member of Delta Upsilon, he graduated in business ad. He is now a bond salesman in Portland, and has two children.

Tom Tongue, 1933 leader, took a B.S. degree in economics in 1934 at Oregon, a J.D. in 1937 in law here, and a J.S.D. from the Yale law school in 1939. He is now an attorney with the bureau

(Please turn to page three)